PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Company's independent registered public accounting firm, McGladrey LLP (McGladrey), recently advised the Company's Audit Committee that it had identified a matter that raised questions in relation to the SEC's auditor independence rules. Specifically, an entity associated with McGladrey provided certain bookkeeping and payroll processing services to the Company's subsidiary in China which were not consistent with the auditor independence rules. The services were provided in 2010 and 2011 and in the first quarter of 2012; the fees for the services were insignificant. McGladrey noted for the Audit Committee that during each of these periods, its audit engagement team was not aware of the services being provided to the Company's subsidiary in China. McGladrey advised the Audit Committee that it believes that this matter did not compromise or impair its integrity or objectivity with respect to conducting its audits and issuing reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements, and the Audit Committee upon careful evaluation agreed with these conclusions. As an additional measure taken in response to the matter described above, the Audit Committee engaged another independent accounting firm to perform an audit of the Company's subsidiary in China for the year ended December 31, 2012; the firm performing this audit is providing the results of its audit work to McGladrey, so that McGladrey can issue its report on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012.

As a result of the steps taken to resolve this matter, the audit of the Company's 2012 consolidated financial statements could not be completed by March 18, 2013, the date by which the annual report on Form 10-K which is the subject of this filing is required to be filed under applicable SEC rules, and the annual report on Form 10-K does not include information required under Items 6, 7, 7A, 8 and 9A of Form 10-K and does not include Exhibit 23 and Exhibit 32 or complete certifications in the form of Exhibit 31. Upon issuance of McGladrey's audit report on the Company's 2012 consolidated financial statements, the Company will file a corresponding amendment to the Form 10-K to include the foregoing information.
