On June 17, 2013, J. Douglas Lang, the Vice President, Reservoir Engineering/Acquisitions of Whiting Petroleum Corporation (the Company) informed the Company that he will retire from the Company effective June 30, 2013.

On June 17, 2013, the Compensation Committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors of the Company approved the payment of a bonus to Mr. Lang, which will be paid pursuant to the terms of the Noncompetition Agreement described below. The Committee determined to approve such payment:

To reward Mr. Lang for his substantial contributions to the Company in the last two years, during which period he delayed retirement at the Company's request.

To partially compensate Mr. Lang for the forfeiture as a result of his retirement of 56,639 shares of restricted stock, which were granted in 2011, 2012 and 2013 and valued at approximately $2.7 million at the time the Committee took its action, and for not receiving a grant under the Company's Production Participation Plan for his partial year of service during 2013.

Payment of the bonus in two installments of $525,000 each will be contingent on Mr. Lang's compliance with terms of a Noncompetition Agreement that he entered into with the Company effective June 17, 2013 (the Agreement), which provides that Mr. Lang may not engage in activities competitive with the business of the Company until December 31, 2015. The Agreement provides that the Company will pay the first installment on March 31, 2014 and the second installment on March 31, 2015, subject in each case to Mr. Lang's continued compliance with the noncompetition covenant in the Agreement. A copy of the Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and is incorporated by reference herein. The foregoing description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to such Exhibit.
