Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 29, 2014, S&T Bancorp, Inc. (S&T) and Integrity Bancshares, Inc. (Integrity), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) pursuant to which Integrity will be merged with and into S&T (the Merger). As a result of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Integrity will cease and S&T will continue as the surviving corporation in the Merger. In addition, under the terms of the Merger Agreement, as soon as practicable following the consummation of the Merger, Integrity Bank, a Pennsylvania state-chartered bank and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Integrity, will merge with and into S&T Bank, a Pennsylvania state-chartered bank and a wholly-owned subsidiary of S&T, with S&T Bank as the surviving bank. However, for a period of at least three years following the Merger, S&T Bank intends to operate bank branches in the markets currently served by Integrity Bank using the name Integrity Bank A Division of S&T Bank.

The Merger Agreement provides that Integrity shareholders will have the opportunity to elect to receive in exchange for each share of Integrity common stock they own immediately prior to completion of the Merger either a cash payment of $52.50 or 2.0627 shares of S&T common stock. All shareholder elections will be subject to allocation and proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement which are intended to ensure that, in the aggregate, at least 80% of the Integrity common shares outstanding will be exchanged for S&T common stock. The transaction is expected to be a tax-free exchange to the extent shareholders of Integrity receive stock in exchange for their Integrity shares.

Upon consummation of the Merger, each outstanding vested and unvested option to acquire a share of Integrity common stock will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, an amount in cash equal to the excess, if any, of the per-share cash consideration of $52.50 over the exercise price per share.

Following the closing of the Merger, Jim Gibson, Chairman, President and CEO of Integrity, as well as another board member of Integrity, yet to be determined, will be invited to serve on S&T's board of directors.

Integrity and S&T have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including Integrity making covenants not to solicit alternative transactions or to enter into discussions concerning, or provide confidential information in connection with, an alternative transaction.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Integrity and S&T, and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, Integrity may be obligated to pay S&T a termination fee of $6,250,000.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to a number of customary conditions, including (i) the approval and adoption by the requisite votes of the holders of the outstanding shares of common stock of Integrity, (ii) the registration of the offering of the S&T common stock to the Integrity shareholders under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the listing of such stock for trading on the NASDAQ Global Select Stock Market, and (iii) certain regulatory approvals.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such document, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Forward Looking Statements:

This filing, and the investor presentation incorporated by reference into Item 7.01 herein, contain forward-looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In general, forward-looking statements usually use words such as may, believe, expect, anticipate, intend, will, should, plan, estimate, potential or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology, including statements related to the expected timing of the closing of the proposed merger, the expected returns and other benefits of the proposed merger to shareholders, estimated expense reductions resulting from the transaction and the timing of achievement of such reductions, the impact on tangible book value, and the effect of the merger on S&T's and S&T Bank's capital ratios. Forward-looking statements represent management's beliefs, based upon information available at the time the statements are made, with regard to the matters addressed; they are not guarantees of future performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties that change over time and could cause actual results or financial condition to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements, and there can be no assurances that: the proposed merger will close when expected, the expected returns and other benefits of the proposed merger to shareholders will be achieved, the expected operating efficiencies will result, estimated expense reductions resulting from the transaction will occur as and when expected, or that the effect on S&T's and S&T Bank's capital ratios will be as expected. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, the possibility that expected benefits may not materialize in the time frames expected or at all, or may be more costly to achieve; that the merger transaction may not be timely completed, if at all; that prior to completion of the merger transaction or thereafter, the parties' respective businesses may not perform as expected due to transaction-related uncertainties or other factors; that the parties are unable to implement successful integration strategies; that the required regulatory, shareholder, or other closing conditions are not satisfied in a timely manner, or at all; reputational risks and the reaction of the parties' customers to the merger transaction; diversion of management time to merger-related issues; and other factors and risk influences contained in the cautionary language included under the headings Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and Risk Factors in S&T's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013 and other documents subsequently filed by S&T with the SEC. Consequently, no forward-looking statement can be guaranteed. S&T does not undertake any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
