(c)

On January 24, 2015, Accretive Health, Inc. (the Company) appointed Richard B. Evans, Jr., age 47, as its Senior Vice President, Corporate Controller and Principal Accounting Officer. From July 2001 until September 2014, Mr. Evans was an audit partner at KPMG LLP with responsibility for financial statement and internal control audits. Mr. Evans joined KPMG in 1990 and advanced through multiple management roles during his twenty-four years with that firm. From October 2014 through January 2015, Mr. Evans focused on family matters.

In connection with his appointment, Mr. Evans and the Company entered into an offer letter pursuant to which Mr. Evans is entitled to an annual base salary of $300,000, and is eligible for a discretionary cash bonus with a target equal to 40% of his annual base salary (prorated for 2015). Pursuant to the offer letter, Mr. Evans will also be granted a nonqualified stock option to purchase up to 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock pursuant to the Company's 2010 Stock Incentive Plan, with an exercise price equal to the closing price of the Company's common stock reported through the facilities of the OTC Markets Group Inc. on the grant date (the Stock Option). The Stock Option will vest and become exercisable over a four-year period based on continued service to the Company and will expire on the tenth anniversary of grant. In addition, Mr. Evans will be eligible to receive discretionary annual long term incentive equity grants from the Company with a target equal to 30% of his base salary. Pursuant to the Company's severance plan, in the event that Mr. Evans's employment with the Company is terminated other than for cause, in addition to any earned but unpaid salary and his accrued and vested benefits under the employee benefit programs of the Company, Mr. Evans also will be entitled to receive a cash amount equal to his monthly base salary rate, paid monthly for a period of six months following the date of such termination.

Mr. Evans does not have any family relationships with any director or executive officer of the Company.

There are no transactions between Mr. Evans and the Company that are required to be reported under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

(b)

On January 24, 2015, in connection with the Company's appointment of Mr. Evans as Corporate Controller and Principal Accounting Officer, Peter Csapo resigned as the Company's Principal Accounting Officer, but remains the Company's Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer.
