Item 8.01 Other Events

On March 27, 2015, Neogen Corporation issued a press release announcing Jerome Properties, LLC, has adopted a prearranged trading plan in accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission rule 10b5-1. James Herbert, Chairman and CEO of Neogen Corporation is a minority owner of this entity that owns shares of Neogen Corporation common stock.

Herbert does not have control of this entity, but felt the disclosure was appropriate. The filing is only for a portion of the shares owned by that entity and is a small portion of total shares of Neogen stock held by Herbert or for his benefit.

Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Commission permits officers of public companies to adopt predetermined written plans for trading specified amounts of company stock when they are not in possession of material non-public information in order to gradually diversify their investment portfolio and to minimize the market effect of stock sales by spreading them over an extended period of time.

The 10b5-1 Plan adopted by Jerome Properties LLC involves a market order to sell up to 10,000 shares per month of Neogen Corporation common stock each month for one year. The Plan will take effect on April 1, 2015 and expire on March 31, 2016.

The stock transactions under the Rule 10b5-1 Plan will be disclosed publicly through Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Neogen undertakes no obligation to report on Form 8-K any Rule 10b5-1 plans that may be adopted by any of its other officers and directors or to report on Form 8-K any modifications or termination of any publicly announced trading plans, except to the extent required by law.
