ENERGY TRANSFER EQUITY ANNOUNCES COUNTERCLAIMS AGAINST WILLIAMS

Seeks court ruling that it may terminate its merger agreement with Williams; Also Announces Dismissal of Williams Lawsuit Against Kelcy Warren

DALLAS May 26, 2016 Energy Transfer Equity, L.P. (NYSE: ETE) (ETE or the Partnership) today announced that it has filed its Affirmative Defenses and Counterclaim in the lawsuit brought by The Williams Companies, Inc. (NYSE: WMB) (Williams) in the Delaware Court of Chancery on Friday, May 13, 2016. The Affirmative Defenses and Counterclaim were filed under seal on May 20, 2016.

The Counterclaim alleges that Williams has breached the merger agreement entered into with ETE on September 28, 2015, by, among other things:

the Williams board of directors modifying or qualifying its approval and recommendation of the merger by, among other things, (i) modifying, qualifying or disclaiming the fundamental bases for its original recommendation of the merger, including by concluding that the fairness opinions obtained by the Williams board of directors are no longer reliable and declining to obtain new fairness opinions, (ii) refusing to reconfirm its recommendation of the merger that was made on September 28, 2015 in the face of such disclaimers, and (iii) consistently making public statements implying that the Williams Board supports enforcing the merger agreement as opposed to completing the merger; refusing to cooperate with ETE's efforts to finance the merger; failing to use reasonable best efforts to complete the merger; and suing Kelcy Warren, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of ETE's general partner, personally in Dallas County, Texas in violation of a mandatory forum selection provision in the merger agreement.

ETE seeks a declaratory judgment that Williams has breached the merger agreement, including by its board of directors modifying or qualifying its approval and recommendation of the merger, and that due to Williams' breaches and its delays in bringing its claims, Williams is not entitled to the relief it seeks. ETE also seeks a judgment that due to Williams' breaches of the merger agreement, ETE is entitled to immediately terminate the merger agreement. In the event ETE is entitled to and does terminate the merger agreement due to a modification or qualification of the Williams board of directors' recommendation of the merger, Williams would owe ETE a termination fee of $1.48 billion.

In addition, ETE seeks a declaratory judgment that, in the event Latham & Watkins LLP (Latham), its outside tax counsel, is not able to deliver a 721(a) tax opinion prior to the outside date of June 28, 2016 set forth in the merger agreement, ETE will be entitled to terminate the merger agreement without penalty due to the failure of a closing condition. Latham has advised ETE that it would not be able to deliver this tax opinion were the opinion requested as of today, and ETE believes that there is a substantial risk that the closing condition relating to this tax opinion will not be met or waived.

ETE also announced today that, on May 24, 2016, the District Court of Dallas County, Texas granted a motion to dismiss the lawsuit brought by Williams against Kelcy Warren. Mr. Warren had filed the motion to dismiss on the basis that Williams' lawsuit against him in Dallas County was a breach of the mandatory forum selection provisions of the merger agreement, among other things.

Notwithstanding the pendency of the litigation described above, ETE intends to continue to comply with all of its obligations under the merger agreement. The parties have agreed to expedited proceedings with respect to the lawsuit in the Delaware Court of Chancery, with a trial scheduled to be held June 20 and June 21, 2016.

Energy Transfer Equity, L.P. (NYSE:ETE) is a master limited partnership that owns the general partner and 100% of the incentive distribution rights (IDRs) of Energy Transfer Partners, L.P. (NYSE: ETP) and Sunoco LP (NYSE: SUN). ETE also owns approximately 2.6 million ETP common units and approximately 81.0 million ETP Class H Units, which track 90% of the underlying economics of the general partner interest and IDRs of Sunoco Logistics Partners L.P. (NYSE: SXL). On a consolidated basis, ETE's family of companies owns and operates approximately 71,000 miles of natural gas, natural gas liquids, refined products, and crude oil pipelines.
