* for the relevant reporting period

Overall, the Group managed to maintain favourable development in its mobile business in the first quarter of 2017, as it continued to harness its 4G leading position with efforts to steadily expand its 4G customer base as well as to preserve and raise 4G customer value. As at 31 March 2017, the total number of mobile customers was around 856 million, ARPU of these customers increased by 1.6% year-on-year to RMB58.5. The number of 4G customers was 568 million, representing a net increase of 33.04 million for the first quarter. Data traffic business maintained rapid growth, with handset data traffic recording a 101% increase year-on-year and handset DOU exceeding 1,000MB. Meanwhile, as the substitution impact of over-the-top (OTT) business on voice services continued to intensify, total voice usage decreased by 7.0% compared to the same period last year.

In the first quarter of 2017, the Group continued to focus on speed upgrade, quality enhancement and targeted development to develop wireline broadband customers and business, refining its products and services that resulted in further enhancements to business quality and market competitiveness. As at 31 March 2017, the total number of wireline broadband customers was 85.68 million, representing a net increase of 8.06 million for the first quarter. ARPU of wireline broadband customers steadily trended up to RMB32.6.

In the first quarter of 2017, the Group's telecommunications services demonstrated favourable growth momentum with revenue growing by 6.1% year-on-year to RMB160.9 billion. Due primarily to the expanded scale of handset sales from open channels, the Group's sales of terminals fell with revenue from the sales of products going down by 10.7% year-on-year to RMB23.1 billion. Operating revenue amounted to RMB184.0 billion, representing an increase of 3.7% over the same period last year.

The Group is at a critical stage of transformation of its development, with a relatively high demand for resources from various fronts including the growth of 4G business, the development of wireline broadband, the expansion of the corporate customer market as well as the deployment of emerging business. The Group will spare no effort in enhancing cost efficiency across its operations and promoting more efficient use of resources. EBITDA for the first quarter of 2017 stood at RMB67.1 billion, up by 3.0% compared to the same period last year. Profit attributable to equity shareholders was RMB24.8 billion, up by 3.7% compared to the same period last year. Margin of profit attributable to equity shareholders was 13.5%, and profitability continued to be maintained at a sound level.

The Group will continue to adhere to the principles of forward-looking planning, effective resources allocation, rational investment and refined management in cost allocation, endeavour to strike a balance between the Group's short-term performance and long-term development, strive to increase revenue and save costs and maintain favourable profitability, thereby continuously creating value for investors.

The Board wishes to remind investors that the above performance indicators are based on the Group's unaudited management accounts. Investors are cautioned not to unduly rely on such data.

In the meantime, investors are advised to exercise caution in dealing in the securities of the Company.

By Order of the Board
