Other than as provided herein, and except as contained in the agreements filed as exhibits to this Schedule 13D or as has been publicly announced by the Issuer or the Reporting Persons, the Reporting Persons do not have and, to the best of their knowledge, none of their respective directors or officers have, any present plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions set forth in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, each Reporting Person specifically reserves the right to change its intentions with respect to any or all of such matters. In reaching any decision as to its course of action (as well as to the specific elements thereof), each Reporting Person currently expects that it would take into consideration a variety of factors, including, but not limited to, the following: the Issuer's business and prospects; other developments concerning the Issuer and its business generally; other business opportunities available to the Reporting Person; developments with respect to the business of the Reporting Person; changes in law and government regulations; general economic conditions; and money and stock market conditions, including the market price of the securities of the Issuer.

The Certificate of Designation provides that the Preferred Stock shall have no voting rights, except as described below or as otherwise required by law. Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Issuer, any merger or consolidation of the Issuer with or into another entity, any sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer or other Fundamental Transaction (as defined in the Certificate of Designation), each share of Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive dividends on the shares of Preferred Stock that shall accrue, whether or not declared by the Board of Directors of the Issuer (the "Board"), from and after the original issue date of the Preferred Stock at a rate of (i) 5% per each year, or (ii) the rate that cash dividends were paid in respect of the Common Stock (with Preferred Stock being paid on an as-converted basis in such case), for such year if such rate is greater than 5%.

The Certificate of Designation provides that for so long as any Preferred Stock is outstanding, the vote or consent of a majority of the Preferred Stock is required to approve certain matters specified in the Certificate of Designation.

The Purchase Agreement provides for preemptive rights for Wipro LLC, subject to certain exceptions and limitations, which grants Wipro LLC the right to participate in any future issuances of new securities of the Issuer for so long as Wipro LLC owns at least a majority of the Preferred Stock purchased by Wipro LLC pursuant to the Purchase Agreement. Wipro LLC may participate in such issuances at a level based on the Wipro LLC's ownership percentage of the Issuer on a fully-diluted basis prior to such issuance.

In connection with the signing of the Purchase Agreement, the Issuer and Wipro LLC have entered into a registration rights agreement (the "Registration Rights Agreement"). Under the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, the Issuer will prepare and file with the Securities and Exchange Commission, within 30 days following the receipt of a demand notice of Wipro LLC on or after January 30, 2019, a registration statement (the "Registration Statement") covering the resale of the shares of Common Stock underlying the Preferred Stock (collectively, the "Registrable Securities"). Subject to limited exceptions, the Issuer will use its reasonable best efforts to have the Registration Statement declared effective as soon as practicable, but in any event within 120 days, after Wipro LLC requests that the Issuer prepare and file the Registration Statement, but in no event shall the Registration Statement become effective earlier than January 30, 2019.
