PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

iHeartCommunications, Inc. (the Company) is unable to file its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 (the Annual Report) within the prescribed period due to a delay in completion of the financial statements of Clear Media Limited, an indirect, non-wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company whose ordinary shares are listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. The Company understands that several employees of Clear Media Limited are subject to an ongoing police investigation for misappropriation of funds. Clear Media Limited is conducting additional procedures and processes, including a special investigation by forensic accountants and an external law firm appointed by Clear Media Limited's board of directors and approved by the Audit Committee of Clear Channel Outdoor Holdings, Inc., an indirect, non-wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, into the misappropriation of funds. During the course of the special investigation, it was discovered that three bank accounts were opened in the name of Clear Media Limited entities, which were not authorized, and certain transactions were recorded therein. These matters have been referred to the police for investigation.

As a result of these developments, the Company will be unable to complete the financial statements required to be included in the Annual Report by the required filing date. The Company has also not been able to complete its assessment of the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2017.

On March 14, 2018, iHeartMedia, Inc. and certain of its subsidiaries, including the Company (collectively, the Debtors), filed voluntary petitions for reorganization (the Chapter 11 Cases) under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division (the Bankruptcy Court). The filing of the Chapter 11 Cases came at the same time during which the Company's preparation of its financial statements is being conducted. The Company determined that it was necessary and prudent to delay the filing of the Annual Report to allow management to focus on providing the required information and making the necessary filings with the Bankruptcy Court in the Chapter 11 Cases. Due to the nature of the Chapter 11 Cases and important competing demands on the Company's management, the delay in preparing the Annual Report could not be avoided. The Company has filed a motion asking the Bankruptcy Court for approval of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, so that the independent registered public accounting firm can continue to work on the audit of the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017. The completion of the audit of the Company's financial statements by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm has been delayed pending the approval by the Bankruptcy Court.

The Company is working expeditiously to complete its financial statements and file its Annual Report as soon as possible, but because the special investigation is still ongoing, and the results of the special investigation are unknown, and because of competing demands on the Company's management as a result of the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Company is currently unable to determine when it will be able to do so.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period YES NO
for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company expects to report consolidated revenues of approximately $6,171 million for the year ended December 31, 2017 compared to consolidated revenues of approximately $6,260 million for the year ended December 31, 2016. The approximately $89 million decrease in revenues is due primarily to the sale of the Company's Australia and Turkey business in 2016, partially offset by growth in the Company's iHM segment as a result of an increase in national trade and barter, as well as higher spot sales in response to the Company's national investments. The Company expects to report consolidated operating income of approximately $970 million for the year ended December 31, 2017 compared to consolidated operating income of approximately $1,505 million for the year ended December 31, 2016. The approximately $535 million decrease in operating income is due primarily to the net gains of $349 million on the dispositions of certain non-strategic U.S. markets and the Company's Australia and Turkey businesses in 2016, compared to net gains of $39 million on dispositions in 2017. Lower revenues and increases in direct operating expenses and selling, general and administrative expenses also contributed to the decrease in operating income.
