SECOND ITEM Determination of Amounts and Other Details of Stock-Based Remuneration, etc. for Directors, etc.

1. Reasons for the proposal and the rationale for remuneration, etc. proposed thereunder

It is proposed that a new stock-based remuneration system be introduced (hereinafter the System), which provides delivery or grant (hereinafter the delivery, etc. collectively) of shares in the Company, and the sum of money equivalent to the cash proceeds from the conversion of some of the shares in the Company (hereinafter the shares in the Company, etc.) along with the dividends on shares in the Company (including the shares subjected to the aforementioned conversion into cash) to Directors and Operating Officers who conduct business execution and who are residents of Japan (hereinafter the Directors, etc., collectively).

After the introduction of the System, remuneration, etc. for the Directors, etc. shall consist of fixed monthly remuneration, executive bonus and stock-based remuneration.

The purpose of introducing the System is to further enhance the motivation for contributing to the sustainable growth of corporate value over the medium- to long-term, and to promote sharing of interests between the Directors, etc. and shareholders. Therefore the Company considers the introduction to be appropriate.

Since Operating Officers eligible for the System could be newly appointed as Directors during the applicable period of the System, it is proposed that the amounts and other details of entire remuneration, etc. under the System be decided.

Remuneration, etc. under this proposal shall be provided to the Directors, etc. in addition to the amount of remuneration for Directors of the Company (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), (no more than 1,160 million yen per year, of which the remuneration for Outside Directors shall be no more than 34 million yen), as approved at the 93rd Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 15, 2017.

The number of Directors eligible for the System shall be five, subject to a resolution approving Proposal No. 1 as originally proposed. Meanwhile, 16 Operating Officers as of the conclusion of this Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be eligible for the System.

2. The amounts and other details of remuneration, etc. under the System

(1) Outline of the System

Under the System, a trust (hereinafter the Trust) shall acquire shares in the Company, using funds contributed by the Company, and provide the Directors, etc. with the delivery, etc. of shares in the Company, etc. as well as the dividends paid thereon. Details are as follows.

- | | |
|---|--|
| (i) Persons eligible for the System | Directors and Operating Officers who conduct business execution and who are residents of Japan |
| (ii) Maximum amount of funds contributed by the Company (details are as described in (3) below) | An amount not exceeding 3,910 million yen for the trust period (approximately three years) shall be contributed. |
| (iii) Upper limit of the number of shares in the Company (including the shares subjected to conversion into cash) for the delivery, etc. to Directors, etc. from the Trust, and the method for acquiring such shares in the Company (details are as described in (3) and (4) below) | Not exceeding 1,310,000 shares in the Company shall be subjected to the delivery, etc. (for three fiscal years). |

Shares in the Company shall be acquired from the stock market, resulting in no dilution.

The yearly average at 437,000 shares (per fiscal year) of the aforementioned upper limit of the number of shares in the Company is equivalent to approximately 0.02% of the total number of shares issued (as of March 31, 2018, excluding treasury stock).

(iv) Performance conditions to be achieved (details are as described in (4) below)

The performance-linked coefficient shall be variable in a range between 50% and 150%, depending on the progress of financial criteria such as the consolidated operating profit ratio in the final fiscal year of the three consecutive fiscal years starting from the fiscal year in which the grant date of standard points belongs, and of non-financial criteria such as brand value and ESG.

(v) Timing of the delivery, etc. of shares in the Company, etc. to the Directors, etc. (details are as described in (5) below)

After three years from the grant of standard points

Shares in the Company delivered from the Trust to the Directors, etc. shall continuously be held for one year after the retirement in addition to the period in service.

(2) Beneficiary requirements for the System
Directors, etc. may receive delivery, etc. from the Trust corresponding to the number of share delivery points (as defined in (4) below), on condition that they satisfy the beneficiary requirements.

The beneficiary requirements are as follows.

- (i) a person holds office as a Director, etc. (including persons who are newly elected as Directors, etc. on or after the start date of the System);

Table of Contents

- (ii) a person has neither left office for personal reasons (excluding cases of leaving office for personal reasons due to unavoidable reasons such as injury and illness) nor resigned or been removed from office due to circumstances such as engaging in certain acts of misconduct or material violations of duties or internal rules while in office; and
- (iii) a person fulfills any other requirements prescribed in the trust agreement or the share delivery rules of the Company as being deemed necessary in order to achieve the purpose of the System as a stock-based remuneration system.

(3) Maximum amount of funds contributed by the Company

The initial trust period under the System shall be approximately three years from August 2018 (scheduled) to the end of August 2021 (scheduled).

The Company shall contribute a trust fund not exceeding 3,910 million yen for the trust period (approximately three years), thereby establishing a trust for the benefit of the Directors, etc. who meet the beneficiary requirements. The Trust shall, under the instruction of the trust administrator, acquire shares in the Company from the stock market, using the trust fund. The Company shall grant standard points (as defined in (4) below) to the Directors, etc. each year during the trust period, and the Trust shall provide, after three years from the grant of standard points, the delivery, etc. of shares in the Company, etc. equivalent to the number of the share delivery points.

The Company may continue to use the Trust at the expiry of the trust period of the Trust, by amending the trust agreement along with additional trust funding, rather than newly establishing a trust.

In such case, the trust period shall be extended for the same period as the original trust period (three years), while the Company shall, for each extended trust period, contribute additional funds not exceeding the maximum amount of the trust fund as approved by the resolution at the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. However, in the event of such additional funding, if there remain in the Trust property at the end of the trust period before extension, shares in the Company (excluding shares in the Company equivalent to the share delivery points granted to the Directors, etc. that are yet to be subjected to the delivery, etc.), and cash (hereinafter the residual shares etc., collectively), the sum of the amount of the residual shares etc. and the trust fund to be additionally contributed shall not exceed the maximum amount of the trust fund as approved by the resolution at the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. The trust period may be extended likewise thereafter.

If the Company decided not to amend the trust agreement, or provide additional trust funding, at the expiry of the trust period, no points shall be granted to the Directors, etc. thereafter; provided, however, that if, at this point in time, the Directors, etc. who may meet the beneficiary requirements remains in office, the trust period of the Trust may be extended until the delivery, etc. of shares in the Company, etc. to such Directors, etc. is completed.

(4) Method for calculating the number of shares in the Company (including the shares subjected to conversion into cash) for the delivery, etc. to Directors, etc. and the upper limit thereof

The Company shall, in July each year, grant to the Directors, etc. standard points determined according to their rank, and shall, around June three years after such grant of standard points (or at the time of retirement or death of the Directors, etc. if such retirement or death takes place before the expiry of the applicable period as defined in (*2) below), determine the number of shares to be delivered (including the shares subjected to conversion into cash), based on the points calculated by multiplying the number of standard points by the performance-linked coefficient (hereinafter the share delivery points). One point shall be converted to one share in the Company for this purpose.

However, in the event of share split or share consolidation involving the shares in the Company during the trust period, the number of the share delivery points, and the upper limit of the number of shares to be delivered described below, shall be adjusted according to the ratio of such share split or share consolidation.

[Formula for calculating standard points]

Rank-based standard stock-based remuneration (*1) ÷ the monthly average closing price of the shares in the Company at the Tokyo Stock Exchange in July 2018 (or that in March immediately preceding the month in which the date of extension of the trust belongs, if the trust is continued)

[Formula for calculating the share delivery points]

Standard points x Performance-linked coefficient (*2)

(*1) Rank-based standard stock-based remuneration is determined in consideration of job responsibilities and duties, along with the ratios of cash remuneration and stock-based remuneration to the entire remuneration, etc. for Directors, etc.

(*2) The performance-linked coefficient shall be variable in a range between 50% and 150%, depending on the progress of financial criteria such as the consolidated operating profit ratio of the three consecutive fiscal years (hereinafter the Applicable Period) starting from the fiscal year in which the grant date of standard points belongs, as well as the progress of non-financial criteria such as brand value and ESG. In the event of retirement or death of a Director, etc. before the expiry of the Applicable Period, a 100% performance-linked coefficient shall be applied.

The total number of shares in the Company (including the shares subjected to conversion into cash) for the delivery, etc. as described above from the Trust to Directors, etc., shall not exceed the upper limit of 1,310,000 shares (for three fiscal years).

Table of Contents

- (*) This upper limit is established based on the maximum amount of the trust fund as described in (3) above, while in consideration of factors such as the current share price.

(5) Method and timing of the delivery, etc. of the shares in the Company, etc. to the Directors, etc.
The Company shall provide the delivery, etc. of shares in the Company, etc. corresponding to the share delivery points to the Directors, etc. who meet the beneficiary requirements, following the completion of designated procedure to determine beneficiary immediately after the determination of the share delivery points, as a general rule (namely after three years from a grant of standard points, or at the time of retirement of the Directors, etc. if such retirement takes place in the meantime). In this case, the number of shares in the Company equivalent to 50% of the share delivery points (the number of shares less than a share unit will be rounded off) shall be delivered, while the number of shares in the Company equivalent to the rest of the share delivery points shall be converted into cash within the Trust, and the proceeds therefrom shall be granted.

In the event of death of a Director, etc. who meets the beneficiary requirements, prior to the date of expiry of the Applicable Period, the number of shares in the Company equivalent to the share delivery points at such point in time shall wholly be converted into cash within the Trust, and the proceeds therefrom shall be granted to the heir of the said Director, etc.

The Directors, etc. shall continuously hold the shares in the Company delivered from the Trust for one year after the retirement, in addition to the period in office.

(6) Dividends paid on the shares in the Company held within the Trust
Considering that the shares in the Company, etc. will be delivered only after three years from a grant of standard points, and in order to further enhance the motivation for contributing to the sustainable growth of corporate value over the medium- to long-term, dividends paid on the shares in the Company held within the Trust shall be received by the Trust, and then shall be granted to the beneficiaries in proportion to the number of shares in the Company (including the shares subjected to conversion into cash) for the delivery, etc. from the Trust, along with the shares in the Company, etc. subjected to the delivery, etc. described in (5) above, while being allocated to the trust fees and trust expenses for the Trust.

(7) Exercise of voting rights of the shares in the Company held in the Trust
As for the shares in the Company held in the Trust (shares in the Company prior to the delivery, etc. to the Directors, etc.), voting rights shall not be exercised during the trust period, to ensure the neutral position of the Trust concerning the management of the Company.

(8) Other details of the System
Other details of the System shall be decided by the Board of Directors on each occasion of the establishment of the Trust, the amendment to the trust agreement, and the contribution of additional fund to the Trust.

Table of Contents

Meanwhile, dividends that has been paid to the shares in the Company held in the Trust shall also be granted to the beneficiaries, commensurate with the number of shares in the Company (including the shares subjected to conversion into cash) for the delivery, etc. from the Trust.
- (viii) Residual shares arising at the expiry of the trust period shall be subjected to the delivery, etc. to Directors, etc., if the Trust is continuously utilized under the System or under a similar stock-based remuneration system, by amending the trust agreement and entrusting additional funds. If the Trust is terminated due to the expiry of the trust period, such residual shares shall be transferred for no consideration from the Trust to the Company, and the Company intends to cancel such residual shares by the resolution of the Board of Directors, as a means of returning earnings to shareholders.
- (ix) Residual dividends on the shares in the Company held in the Trust arising at the expiry of the trust period shall be used as funds to acquire shares in the Company, if the Trust is continuously utilized. If, however, the Trust is terminated due to the expiry of the trust period, the portion of the residual dividends in excess of the trust expenses reserve (an amount of the trust fund less funds for share acquisition, and a reserve allocated to the trust fees and trust expenses, hereinafter the same), shall be donated to organizations that have no conflict of interest with the Company or the Directors, etc.

(1) Review of Operations

Looking at the economic environment surrounding Honda, its consolidated subsidiaries and its affiliates accounted for under the equity method (hereinafter, the Honda Group) in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2018, the United States economy continued a steady recovery, mainly due to improvement in employment conditions and growing personal consumption. Europe saw a gradual economic recovery, mainly due to improvement in employment conditions and growing personal consumption. In the Asian economies, India experienced a moderate recovery focused on domestic demand and the economies of Thailand and Indonesia picked up; while China's economy continued an upward trend. The Japanese economy saw a gradual recovery, mainly due to steady improvement in employment conditions and a gradual upturn in personal consumption, in addition to moderate growth in capital investment.

On the research and development front, we made proactive efforts to develop safety and environmental technologies and advanced technologies to enhance the attractiveness of our products, incorporating open innovation with external partners. With regard to production, we further strengthened our production structure and developed a production system to deal with changes in demand on a global basis. As for sales, we worked to enhance our product lineup through measures such as aggressively launching products that offer new value and delivering products that go beyond national borders.

Honda has been conducting market-based measures in relation to airbag inflators mainly in North America and Japan. This is related to the problem where the internal pressure of inflators rises abnormally at the time of airbag deployment on the driver's side and passenger's side, causing damage to the container and spraying metal fragments within the cars. We are continuing to focus on the satisfaction and safety of our customers and making every effort through market-based measures to replace those airbag inflators as quickly as possible.

(4) Preparing for the Future

1) Management Policies and Strategies

The Honda Group has two Fundamental Beliefs: Respect for the Individual, and The Three Joys (the Joy of Buying, the Joy of Selling, and the Joy of Creating). Respect for the Individual calls on Honda to nurture and promote these characteristics in our company by respecting individual differences and trusting each other as equal partners. The Three Joys are based on Respect for the Individual, and is the philosophy of creating joy together with everyone involved in Honda's activities, with the joy of its customers as the driving force.

Based on these Fundamental Beliefs, Honda strives to improve its corporate value by sharing joy with all people, and with our shareholders in particular, by practicing its Mission Statement: Maintaining a global viewpoint, we are dedicated to supplying products of the highest quality, yet at a reasonable price for worldwide customer satisfaction.

Honda has also defined its vision toward 2030 as “Serve people worldwide with the joy of expanding their life’s potential, as we strive to expand creation of value in the domains of mobility and daily lives.”

2) Management Challenges and Preparing for the Future

The business environment surrounding the Honda Group has come to a major turning point. Values are diversifying, the population is aging, urbanization is accelerating, climate change is worsening, and the industrial structure is changing due to the energy shift and progress in technologies such as artificial intelligence (AI) and IoT, all on a global basis.

Amid such changes in the environment, the Honda Group formulated the “2030 Vision” as a new challenge directed at the next generation that articulates the ways we can provide value unique to the Honda Group in order to contribute to solving various social issues while continuing to achieve sustainable growth. By doing so, the Honda Group will work on the challenges described below.

1. Product Quality

To strengthen customer trust by offering products founded in safety and achieve a new level of outstanding quality of products, the Honda Group has created a system that continuously enhances and improves quality at every stage: design, development, production, sales and service. The Honda Group will work to improve product quality by implementing a shared global quality management system and by providing training and education aimed at improving the skills of employees involved in quality assurance.

2. Research and Development

In addition to engaging in traditional Mono-zukuri (the art of making things), the Honda Group will work on the advancement of mobility and improvement of people’s daily lives for people all over the world through the integration of Mono-zukuri and Koto-zukuri (new experiences drawn from the art of making things), with a new value that works cooperatively with people. The Honda Group views that the expansion of possibilities of new value creation accompanying the evolution of digital technologies, such as AI and big data, in recent years presents a good opportunity. As such, the Honda Group will actively pursue open innovation through strategic collaboration mainly with outside companies and further focus on research and development in new areas.

6. The Environment

Through Honda's proprietary technologies and business activities, the Company will work to deal with climate change and energy issues, efficient utilization of resources and preservation of clean air, with the aim of realizing a zero-environmental impact society.

Responses to Climate Change and Energy Issues

Honda will seek to reduce total CO₂ emissions by 50% compared to year 2000 levels by 2050. To achieve this, Honda will promote the reduction of CO₂ emitted from products mainly by expanding lineup of products with exceptional environmental performance and actively promoting the use of electric-powered motors, along with building an organizational structure for developing technologies for electric-powered motor products in line with trends in fuel economy regulations and market needs around the world.

Honda will also strengthen its efforts in developing technologies in the area of total energy management to reduce CO₂ emissions related to mobility and people's everyday lives, advancing energy-saving technologies in the area of business activities, and effectively utilizing and diversifying energy mainly through megawatt scale solar power generation, with the aim of completely eliminating energy risk from heavy dependence on fossil fuels in the future.

Efficient Utilization of Resources

Honda will conduct effective utilization of resources and proper processing and recycling through cooperation/partnership with stakeholders in response to the depletion and resulting difficulty of obtaining rare earth metals and other resources.

Preservation of Clean Air

Through these company-wide activities, Honda aims to be a company that society, which includes our shareholders, our investors and our customers, wants to exist.

(3) POLICY REGARDING DECISIONS FOR DISTRIBUTION OF DIVIDENDS, ETC.

The Company strives to carry out its operations worldwide from a global perspective and to increase its corporate value. With respect to the redistribution of profits to its shareholders, which we consider to be one of the most important management issues, the distribution of dividends is determined after taking into account retained earnings for future growth and consolidated earnings performance, among other factors, from a long-term perspective. Dividends will be paid with a target of approximately 30% for the ratio of the dividend amount to consolidated profit for the year attributable to owners of the parent (payout ratio).

The Company's basic policy on the distribution of dividends is to pay a dividend four times a year. The decision-making body for dividends is the Board of Directors.

The Company will also acquire its own shares at a timing it deems optimal with the goal of improving efficiency of the Company's capital structure and implementing a flexible capital policy.

The Company will allocate retained earnings toward financing R&D activities that are essential for its future growth, capital expenditures and investment programs that will expand its operations, and maintaining sound financial conditions.

5. Basis and method of valuation for financial assets

(1) Non-derivative financial assets

(Financial assets measured at amortized cost)

A financial asset is classified into financial assets measured at amortized cost when the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect the contractual cash flows, and the contractual term of the financial asset gives rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. Financial assets measured at amortized cost are initially measured at their fair value, and are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

(Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income)

Honda elects to designate investments in equity securities, such as shares held for maintaining and strengthening trade relationships, as financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income.

Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income are initially measured at their fair value, and subsequent changes in fair value of the investment are presented in other comprehensive income.

(Financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss)

Financial assets measured at fair value other than financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income are classified into financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss are initially measured at their fair value, and subsequent changes in fair value are recognized in profit or loss.

(2) Derivatives

Derivatives are initially recognized as assets and measured at fair value, when Honda becomes a party to the contractual provision of the derivatives. Subsequent changes in fair value of derivatives are recognized in profit or loss in the period of the changes.

6. Basis and method of valuation for inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. The cost of inventories includes purchase costs and conversion costs, and it is determined principally by using the first-in first-out method.

7. Basis and method of valuation and depreciation method for equipment on operating leases

Equipment on operating leases is initially measured at cost. Depreciation of equipment on operating leases is calculated using the straight-line method over the lease term. The depreciable amount is the cost of the equipment less its residual value.

8. Basis and method of valuation and depreciation method for property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment is initially measured at cost. Depreciation of property, plant and equipment, except for land that is not subject to depreciation, is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life. The depreciable amount is the cost of the asset less the respective estimated residual values.

Table of Contents

9. Basis and method of valuation and amortization method for intangible assets
(Research and development)

Capitalized development cost is measured at the sum of expenditures for development incurred between when the foregoing conditions for capitalization are initially met and when the development is completed, and includes all directly attributable costs to the development process. Capitalized development cost is amortized using the straight-line method over the expected product life cycle of the developed product.

Expenditures on research and other development expenditures which do not meet the foregoing conditions are expensed as incurred.

(Other intangible assets)

Other intangible assets are initially measured at cost and principally amortized using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives.

10. Impairment

(1) Financial assets measured at amortized cost
(Receivables from financial services Allowance for credit losses)

The allowance for credit losses is management's estimate of probable losses incurred on receivables from financial services. Various methodologies are utilized when estimating the allowance for credit losses including models that incorporate vintage loss and delinquency migration analysis. The models take into consideration attributes of the portfolio including loan-to-value ratios, internal and external credit scores, and collateral types. Economic factors such as used vehicle prices, unemployment rates, and consumer debt service burdens are also incorporated when estimating losses.

(Receivables from financial services Allowance for losses on lease residual values)

The allowance for losses on lease residual values is management's estimate of probable losses on the uninsured portion of the lease residual values incurred on receivables from finance leases. The allowance for losses on lease residual values is based on management's evaluation of many factors, including current economic conditions, industry experience, and the finance subsidiaries' historical experience with residual value losses.

(2) Equipment on operating leases, property, plant and equipment and intangible assets
At the end of the reporting period, the carrying amount of equipment on operating leases, property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets are assessed to determine whether or not there is any indication of impairment. If there is such an indication, the recoverable amount of such asset is estimated and compared with the carrying amount of the asset as a test of impairment.

11. Provisions for product warranties

Honda recognizes provisions for product warranties to cover future product warranty expenses. Honda recognizes costs for general warranties on products Honda sells and for specific warranty programs, including product recalls. Honda provides for general estimated warranty costs at the time products are sold to customers. Honda also provides for specific estimated warranty program costs when it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

12. Post-employment benefits

For defined benefit plans, the present value of defined benefit obligations less the fair value of plan assets is recognized as either a liability or an asset in the consolidated statements of financial position.

The present value of defined benefit obligations and service costs are principally determined for each plan using the projected unit credit method. The discount rate is determined by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on high quality corporate bonds that is consistent with the currency and estimated term of the post-employment benefit obligation. Net interest on the net defined benefit liability (asset) for the reporting period is determined by multiplying the net defined benefit liability (asset) by the discount rate.

Past service cost defined as the change in the present value of the defined benefit obligation resulting from a plan amendment or curtailment is recognized in profit or loss upon occurrence of the plan amendment or curtailment.

Honda recognizes the difference arising from remeasurement of present value of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of the plan asset in other comprehensive income when it is incurred, and reclassifies it immediately to retained earnings.

Note on Financial Instruments:Current Status of Financial Instruments*1. Risk Management

Honda has manufacturing operations throughout the world and sells products and components to various countries. In the course of these activities, Honda holds trade receivables arising from business activities, receivables from financial services, trade payables, and financing liabilities, and is thus exposed to market risk, credit risk, and liquidity risk associated with the holding of such financial instruments.

These risks are evaluated by Honda through periodic monitoring.

2. Market Risk

Honda is exposed to the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument fluctuates because of changes in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates.

Honda uses derivatives that consist mainly of foreign currency forward exchange contracts, foreign currency option contracts, currency swap agreements, and interest rate swap agreements to reduce primarily the risk that future cash flows of a financial instrument fluctuates because of changes in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates.

Derivatives are used within the scope of actual demand in accordance with risk management policies. In addition, Honda does not hold any derivatives for trading purposes.

3. Credit Risk

Honda is exposed to the risk that one party to a financial instrument causes a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation. Honda reduces the risk of financial assets other than derivatives in accordance with credit administration rules. Honda reduces the risk of derivatives by limiting the counterparties to major international banks and financial institutions that meet internally established credit guidelines.

4. Liquidity Risk

Honda raises funds by commercial paper, bank loans, medium-term notes, corporate bonds, and securitization of finance receivables. Honda is exposed to liquidity risk that Honda would not be able to repay liabilities on the due date due to the deterioration of the financing environment.

Exposure to liquidity risk is managed by maintaining sufficient capital resources, a sufficient level of liquidity, and a sound balance sheet.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts and fair value of financial instruments as of March 31, 2018 are as follows: Yen (millions)

	Carrying Amount	Fair Value
Assets
Receivables from financial services	4,958,063	4,935,772
Debt securities	174,115	174,113
Equity securities	210,682	210,682
Derivatives	88,345	88,345
Liabilities
Financing liabilities	6,799,010	6,795,675
Derivatives	52,786	52,786

Measurement methods and assumptions used to measure the fair values of financial instruments are as follows:

1. Cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and trade payables

The fair values approximate their carrying amounts due to their short-term maturities.

2. Receivables from financial services

The fair value of receivables from financial services is measured primarily by discounting future cash flows using the current interest rates applicable for these receivables of similar remaining maturities.

Table of Contents

3. Debt securities

Debt securities consist mainly of mutual funds, corporate bonds, local bonds, and auction rate securities. The fair value of mutual funds with an active market is measured by using quoted market prices. The fair values of corporate bonds and local bonds are measured based on proprietary pricing models provided by specialists and/or market makers, and the models obtain a wide array of market observable inputs such as credit ratings and discount rates. To measure fair value of auction rate securities, Honda uses a third-party developed valuation model which obtains a wide array of market observable inputs, as well as unobservable inputs including probability of passing or failing auction at each auction.

4. Equity securities

The fair value of equity securities with an active market is measured by using quoted market prices. The fair value of equity securities with no active market is measured mainly by using the comparable company valuation method and other appropriate valuation methods.

5. Derivatives

Derivatives consist mainly of foreign currency forward exchange contracts, foreign currency option contracts, currency swap agreements, and interest rate swap agreements. The fair values of foreign currency forward exchange contracts and foreign currency option contracts are measured by using market observable inputs such as spot exchange rates, discount rates, and implied volatility. The fair values of currency swap agreements and interest rate swap agreements are measured by discounting future cash flows using market observable inputs such as LIBOR rates, swap rates, and foreign exchange rates. The credit risk of the counterparties is considered in the valuation of derivatives.

6. Financing liabilities

The fair value of financing liabilities is measured by discounting future cash flows using interest rates currently available for liabilities of similar terms and remaining maturities.

Table of ContentsNotes to Information about Per Common Share:

Equity per share attributable to owners of the parent and basic earnings per share attributable to owners of the parent are as follows: Yen

	Mar. 31, 2017	Mar. 31, 2018
Equity per share attributable to owners of the parent	4,047.81	4,461.36
Basic earnings per share attributable to owners of the parent	342.10	590.79

Equity per share attributable to owners of the parent has been computed by dividing equity attributable to owners of the parent by the number of shares outstanding at the end of the period. The number of shares outstanding at the end of the years ended March 31, 2017 and 2018 were 1,802,280,395 and 1,778,277,815, respectively.

Basic earnings per share attributable to owners of the parent has been computed by dividing earnings attributable to owners of the parent by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. The weighted average number of shares outstanding for the years ended March 31, 2017 and 2018 were 1,802,282,093 and 1,793,088,970, respectively. There were no potentially dilutive common shares outstanding for the years ended March 31, 2017 or 2018.

Other1. Loss related to airbag inflators

Honda has been conducting market-based measures in relation to airbag inflators. Honda recognizes a provision for specific warranty costs when it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. There is a possibility that Honda will need to recognize additional provisions when new evidence related to the product recalls arise, however, it is not possible for Honda to reasonably estimate the amount and timing of potential future losses as of the date of this report.

In the United States and Canada, various class action lawsuits and civil lawsuits related to the above mentioned market-based measures have been filed against Honda. The plaintiffs have claimed for properly functioning airbag inflators, compensation of economic losses including incurred costs and the decline in the value of vehicles, as well as punitive damages. Most of the class action lawsuits in the United States were transferred to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida and consolidated into a multidistrict litigation.

For the year ended March 31, 2018, Honda has reached a settlement with the plaintiffs regarding the multidistrict litigation in the United States. This settlement is subject to final court approval. Honda recognized the settlement of JPY 53,739 million as selling, general and administrative expenses, which includes funds to support airbag inflator recall efforts and such.

Except for the class action lawsuits in the United States which have been settled, other class action lawsuits and civil lawsuits have not been resolved yet. Honda did not recognize a provision for loss contingencies because the conditions for a provision have not been met as of the date of this report. Therefore, it is not possible for Honda to reasonably estimate the amount and timing of potential future losses as of the date of this report because there are some uncertainties, such as the period when these lawsuits will be concluded.

2. Impairment loss and reversal of impairment loss on investments accounted for using the equity method

The Company recognized impairment losses on certain investments accounted for using the equity method because there was objective evidence of impairment from declines in quoted market values. The amount of the impairment losses is JPY 12,871 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. The impairment losses are included in share of profit of investments accounted for using the equity method in the consolidated statements of income. For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2018, the Company did not recognize any significant impairment losses.

In addition, the Company recognized reversal of impairment losses on certain investments accounted for using the equity method mainly due to the recovery of quoted market values. The amount of the reversal of impairment losses is JPY 15,782 million, which had been previously recognized, for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2018. The reversal of impairment losses is included in share of profit of investments accounted for using the equity method in the consolidated statements of income.

3. Impact of the pension plan amendment on the Company's consolidated financial position and results of operations

In August 2016, the Company and its certain subsidiaries in Japan decided, effective April 1, 2017, to extend mandatory retirement age from 60 years old to 65 years old and introduce a flexible retirement scheme that enables employees to choose retirement age between 60 years old and 65 years old, along with amendments to their defined benefit pension plans to align with the postponement of the retirement age, to fulfill diversifying needs of individual employees. The plan amendments include the revision of the benefit curve, to make a lump-sum benefit payment at the retirement age between 60 years old and 65 years old under the new plan consistent with that at the mandatory retirement age, 60 years old. In addition, one of the defined benefit pension plans is replaced by a defined contribution plan.

These plan amendments resulted in a reduction of the defined benefit obligations and recognition of the past service cost in profit or loss. Honda recognized JPY 84,024 million of past service cost in a credit to profit or loss, of which JPY 37,197 million is included in cost of sales, JPY 21,385 million is included in selling, general and administrative and JPY 25,442 million is included in research and development in the consolidated statements of income for the year ended March 31, 2017. The defined benefit obligations and plan assets were also remeasured.

4. Impacts of the Enactment of the U.S. Tax Cuts and Jobs Act

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act was enacted in the U.S. on December 22, 2017. Due to the Act, the federal corporate income tax rate in the U.S. applicable to the Company's U.S. businesses was reduced from 35 percent to a blended corporate rate of 31.55 percent for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2018 and to 21 percent from the fiscal year commencing on April 1, 2018.

Based on the reduction of the federal corporate income tax rate, the Company reevaluated deferred tax assets and liabilities in its U.S. consolidated subsidiaries. As a result, the Company has recognized impacts of the enactment of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, including a decrease in income tax expenses of JPY 346,129 million, in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2018.
