A.M. BEST FINANCIAL STRENGTH RATINGS REASSIGNED TO KINGSWAY GENERAL AND YORK FIRE

Toronto, Ontario (March 5, 2004) (TSX:KFS, NYSE:KFS) Kingsway Financial Services Inc. today announced that A.M. Best has reassigned the financial rating of Kingsway General Insurance Company and York Fire & Casualty Insurance Company from A- (Excellent) to B++ (Very Good) and assigned a negative outlook. A.M. Best said that the rating action is as a result of the operating and underwriting performance of the subsidiary companies in 2002 and 2003 which is partially offset by rate increases, the strengthening of loss reserves, the progress made to reduce claim costs as well as the explicit financial support of Kingsway. A.M. Best further commented that Kingsway Financial has demonstrated its continued commitment to raising capital to provide support for the ongoing operations of its Canadian subsidiaries.

We are disappointed with the rating action taken by A.M. Best, particularly after the actions taken to reduce claim costs, strengthen reserves and increase premiums, said Bill Star, President & Chief Executive Officer. Kingsway Financial continues to provide capital support to our Canadian companies to ensure they meet required capitalization standards. A.M. Best has expressed concerns regarding the impact of the regulatory changes to the automobile insurance product in Ontario and Alberta and has taken rating action on several major companies operating in the Canadian market, some of whom have requested that A.M. Best not publish their financial strength ratings.

A.M. Best publishes independent opinions of an insurers' financial strength and ability to meet policyholder obligations. According to A.M. Best, the companies rated at B++ (Very Good) have a good ability to meet the obligations to policyholders. All other subsidiaries in the group maintained their current ratings.
