CHANGE IN EXECUTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF A DIRECTOR

To better align Sasol's organisation structure with its strategy and to take advantage of the many exciting growth opportunities, Sasol today announced the following organisational changes to its Group Executive Committee, effective 1 July 2010:

Nolitha Fakude, currently an Executive Director of Sasol Limited, will assume additional responsibility for Information Management, Supply Chain, Shared Services, Operations Excellence, Functional Excellence and Safety, Health and the Environment with effect from 1 July 2010. This is in addition to her current responsibility for Human Resources, Corporate Affairs and Government Relations.

Lean Strauss will assume responsibility for New Business Development and Technology, responsible for delivering on Sasol's growth aspirations across the Group; and André de Ruyter will assume responsibility for all the Group's existing operating businesses with the exception of Sasol Mining.

The Sasol Limited Board also announced that Chief Executive, Pat Davies, will stay on in his current position for approximately a year beyond his normal retirement date, in order to ensure that succession is implemented smoothly. The Sasol Limited Board has already initiated a comprehensive local and international recruitment program for a successor and both internal and external candidates will be considered.
