PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The registration's preparation for, and compilation, dissemination and review of relevant information required by, the registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended August 31, 2007 could not be accomplished to permit a timely filing of such report without undue hardship and expense to the registrant. Although the registrant attempted to conclude an appropriate process, using the resources reasonably available to it, which would have permitted a timely filing of such report, the registrant was unable to do so, The delay was attributable in part to the time and resources devoted to resolving certain accounting and reporting issues impacting the registrant's annual report on 10-K for the year ended August 31, 2006 and the subsequent interim reports on form 10-Q. The registrant resolved those issues with the Commission and filed amended reports in late October, which impacted its year end closing procedures. The registrant undertakes to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K no later than fifteen days after its original prescribed due date.
