Professional Diversity Network, Inc.
Condensed Consolidated Notes to Financial Statements

1. Description of Business

Professional Diversity Network, Inc. is both the operator of the Professional Diversity Network (the “Company,” “we,” “our,” “us,” “PDN Network,” “PDN” or the “Professional Diversity Network”) and a holding company for NAPW, Inc., wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company and the operator of the National Association of Professional Women (the “NAPW Network” or “NAPW”), as well as Noble Voice LLC and Compliant Lead LLC (collectively, “Noble Voice”), each of which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company and together provide career consultation services. The Company is a corporation organized under the laws of Delaware, originally formed as IH Acquisition, LLC under the laws of the State of Illinois on October 3, 2003. The PDN Network operates online professional networking communities with career resources specifically tailored to the needs of different diverse cultural groups including: Women, Hispanic-Americans, African-Americans, Asian-Americans, Disabled, Military Professionals, Lesbians, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT), and Students and Graduates seeking to transition from education to career. The networks’ purposes, among others, are to assist its registered users in their efforts to connect with like-minded individuals, identify career opportunities within the network and connect with prospective employers. The Company’s technology platform is integral to the operation of its business. The NAPW Network is an exclusive women-only professional networking organization, whereby its members can develop their professional networks, further their education and skills, and promote their business and career accomplishments. NAPW provides its members with opportunities to network and develop valuable business relationships with other professionals through its website, as well as at events hosted at its local chapters across the country. The Noble Voice division typically conducts over 37,000 career consultations per week. Noble Voice monetizes these consultations by using proprietary technology to drive inexpensive online traffic to our offline call center and generating value-added leads for the Company’s strategic partners who provide continuing education and career services.

2. Liquidity, Financial Condition and Management’s Plans

The Company funds its operations principally from cash on hand and accounts receivable collected.

In April and May 2015, the Company sold an aggregate of 1,745,100 shares of the Company’s common stock at $3.00 per share for gross proceeds of $5,235,300. Net proceeds, after the payment of commissions and legal and other expenses, amounted to approximately $4.6 million (see Note 10).

The Company is closely monitoring and controlling operating costs and capital requirements and has developed an operating plan for 2015 and 2016. The Company is also leveraging the benefits of the combined operations and has actively begun eliminating duplicative costs across the organization. The Company has also developed new products that leverage the operating strengths of the three distinct business units and anticipate positive market acceptance. The Company’s continuing efforts to reduce cash outflows and monitor costs is reflected in the improved cash used in operating activities for the three months ended September 30, 2015 of $1,391,000, compared to three months ended June 30, 2015 of $2,351,000. The Company is making cost reductions in the areas of its staffing levels and operating budgets. Management believes that the Company’s cash, investments on hand and anticipated cash to be received from expected future sales will be sufficient to sustain operations for the next twelve months. However, there can be no assurances that the plans and actions proposed by management will be successful, that the Company will generate anticipated revenues, or that unforeseen circumstances will not require additional funding sources in the future or effectuate plans to conserve liquidity.

3. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accompanying unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”) for interim financial information and pursuant to the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 8 of Regulation S-X of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). Certain information or footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP have been condensed or omitted, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the SEC for interim financial reporting. Accordingly, they do not include all the information and footnotes necessary for a comprehensive presentation of financial position, results of operations, or cash flows. It is management’s opinion, however, that the accompanying unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements include all adjustments, consisting of a normal recurring nature, which are necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position, operating results and cash flows for the periods presented.

The accompanying unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 as filed with the SEC, which contains the audited financial statements and notes thereto, together with Management’s Discussion and Analysis, for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013. The financial information as of December 31, 2014 is derived from the audited financial statements presented in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014. The interim results for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the year ending December 31, 2015 or for any future interim periods.

Professional Diversity Network, Inc.
Condensed Consolidated Notes to Financial Statements

Use of Estimates - The preparation of unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period.

Making estimates requires management to exercise significant judgment. It is at least reasonably possible that the estimate of the effect of a condition, situation or set of circumstances that existed at the date of the unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements, which management considered in formulating its estimate, could change in the near term due to one or more future intervening events. Accordingly, the actual results could differ significantly from estimates.

Principles of Consolidation - The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Short-Term Investments - All highly liquid investments that have an original maturity of greater than 90 days but less than one year at the date of purchase are classified as short-term investments. The Company classifies short-term investments as held to maturity and carries them at amortized cost if the Company has the positive intent and ability to hold the securities to maturity. As of December 31, 2014, the short-term investments, consisting of municipal bonds and corporate fixed income bonds, are classified as "Level 2."

	$ 5,198,878	$ 810,116	$ (6,572)	$ 6,002,422

Goodwill and Intangible Assets - The Company accounts for goodwill and intangible assets in accordance with ASC 350, Intangibles – Goodwill and Other ("ASC 350"). ASC 350 requires that goodwill and other intangibles with indefinite lives should be tested for impairment annually or on an interim basis if events or circumstances indicate that the fair value of an asset has decreased below its carrying value.

Goodwill is tested for impairment at the reporting unit level (operating segment or one level below an operating segment) on an annual basis (December 31 for the Company) and between annual tests if an event occurs or circumstances change that would more likely than not reduce the fair value of a reporting unit below its carrying value. The Company considers its market capitalization and the carrying value of its assets and liabilities, including goodwill, when performing its goodwill impairment test. When conducting its annual goodwill impairment assessment, the Company initially performs a qualitative evaluation of whether it is more likely than not that goodwill is impaired. If it is determined by a qualitative evaluation that it is more likely than not that goodwill is impaired, the Company then applies a two-step impairment test. The two-step impairment test first compares the fair value of the Company's reporting unit to its carrying or book value. If the fair value of the reporting unit exceeds its carrying value, goodwill is not impaired and the Company is not required to perform further testing. If the carrying value of the reporting unit exceeds its fair value, the Company determines the implied fair value of the reporting unit's goodwill and if the carrying value of the reporting unit's goodwill exceeds its implied fair value, then an impairment loss equal to the difference is recorded in the consolidated statements of operations. As a result of the recurring operating losses incurred in NAPW since its acquisition in September 2014, the Company undertook a review of the carrying amount of its goodwill as of September 30, 2015. The Company performed its review based on both qualitative and quantitative factors and determined that carrying value of NAPW's goodwill exceeding its implied fair value. Accordingly, the Company recorded a goodwill impairment charge of $24,717,157 in the accompanying condensed consolidated statement of comprehensive loss for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015.

Revenue Recognition – Revenue is recognized when all of the following conditions exist: (1) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, (2) services are performed, (3) the sales price is fixed or determinable, and (4) collectability is reasonably assured.

Membership Fees and Related Services

Membership fees are collected up-front and member benefits become available immediately; however those benefits must remain available over the 12 month membership period. At the time of enrollment, membership fees are recorded as a liability under deferred revenue and are recognized as revenue ratably over the 12 month membership period. Members who are enrolled in an annual payment plan may cancel their membership in the program at any time and receive a partial refund (amount remaining in deferred revenue) or due to consumer protection legislation, a full refund based on the policies of the member's credit card company.

Revenue from related membership services are derived from fees for development and set-up of a member's personal on-line profile and/or press release announcements. Fees related to these services are recognized as revenue at the time the on-line profile is complete and press release is distributed.

Lead Generation

Under these arrangements, the Company matches educational centers with potential candidates, pursuant to specific parameters defined in each arrangement. The Company invoices the educational centers on a monthly basis based upon the number of leads provided. Revenues related to lead generation are recognized at the time the educational centers are invoiced.

Recruitment Services

Recruitment revenue includes revenue recognized from direct sales to customers for recruitment services and events, as well as revenue from the Company's direct e-commerce sales.

Product Sales and Other Revenue

Products offered to members relate to custom made plaques and an annual registry book. Product sales are recognized as liabilities under deferred revenue at the time the initial order is placed. Revenue is then recognized at the time these products are shipped. The Company's shipping and handling costs are included in cost of sales in the accompanying condensed consolidated statements of comprehensive loss.

Consumer Advertising and Marketing Solutions

The Company provides career opportunity services to its various partner organizations through advertising and job postings on their websites. The Company works with its partners to develop customized websites and job boards where the partners can generate advertising, job postings and career services to their members, students and alumni. Partner revenue is recognized as jobs are posted to their hosted sites.

Advertising and Marketing Expenses - Advertising and marketing expenses are expensed as incurred or the first time the advertising takes place. The production costs of advertising are expensed the first time the advertising takes place, except for direct-response advertising, which is capitalized and amortized over its expected period of future benefit. Direct-response advertising consists primarily of advertising contracts and is amortized over the life of the applicable contract. For the three months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, the Company incurred advertising and marketing expenses of approximately $1,506,000 and $442,000, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, the Company incurred advertising and marketing expenses of approximately $4,227,000 and $772,400, respectively. These amounts are included in sales and marketing expenses in the accompanying condensed consolidated statements of comprehensive loss. At September 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, there were no prepaid advertising expenses recorded in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheets.

Professional Diversity Network, Inc.
Condensed Consolidated Notes to Financial Statements

Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities- Financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, are carried at historical cost. Management believes that the recorded amounts approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of these instruments.

The Company measures the fair value of financial assets and liabilities based on the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. The Company maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The Company uses three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1 — quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 — quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets or inputs that are observable
- Level 3 — inputs that are unobservable (for example cash flow modeling inputs based on assumptions)

The following table presents a summary of fair value measurements for certain financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

Financial Instrument	Level	September
		30, 2015	December 31, 2014
Warrant liability	3	$ 5	$ 93,789

Level 3 liabilities are valued using unobservable inputs to the valuation methodology that are significant to the measurement of the fair value of the derivative liabilities. For fair value measurements categorized within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy, the Company’s accounting and finance department, who report to the Chief Financial Officer, determine its valuation policies and procedures. The development and determination of the unobservable inputs for Level 3 fair value measurements and fair value calculations are the responsibility of the Company’s accounting and finance department and are approved by the Chief Financial Officer.

Level 3 Valuation Techniques:

Level 3 financial liabilities consist of warrant liabilities for which there is no current market for these securities such that the determination of fair value requires significant judgment or estimation. Changes in fair value measurements categorized within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy are analyzed each period based on changes in estimates or assumptions and recorded as appropriate.

The Company uses the Black-Scholes option pricing model to value Level 3 financial liabilities at inception and on subsequent valuation dates. This model incorporates transaction details such as the Company’s stock price, contractual terms, maturity, and risk free rates, as well as volatility.

A significant decrease in the volatility or a significant decrease in the Company’s stock price, in isolation, would result in a significantly lower fair value measurement. Changes in the values of the derivative liabilities are recorded in “change in fair value of warrant liability” in the Company’s condensed consolidated statements of comprehensive loss.

As of September 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, there were no transfers in or out of Level 3 from other levels in the fair value hierarchy.

The Company decreased the warrant liability by $93,784 to reflect the change in the fair value of the warrant instruments for the nine months ended September 30, 2015. The following table sets forth a summary of the changes in the fair value of the Level 3 financial liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

Balance –September 30, 2015	$ 5

Net Loss per Share - The Company computes basic net loss per share by dividing net loss per share available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period and excludes the effects of any potentially dilutive securities. Diluted earnings per share, if presented, would include the dilution that would occur upon the exercise or conversion of all potentially dilutive securities into common stock using the “treasury stock” and/or “if converted” methods as applicable. The computation of basic net loss per share for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014 excludes the potentially dilutive securities summarized in the table below because their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements – Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards, if currently adopted, would have a material effect on the Company’s condensed financial statements.

7. Note Payable

In connection with the Company's acquisition of Old Noble Voice, and Compliant, the Company entered into a non-interest bearing promissory note ("NV Promissory Note") with Victory Holdings Group, LLC ("Victory Holdings"), a company owned by a former member of Noble Voice. Pursuant to the NV Promissory Note, Old Noble Voice and Compliant agreed to pay Victory Holdings an aggregate initial amount of $1,389,386. The initial amount to be repaid under the NV Promissory Note is subject to modification based upon collected accounts receivable and assumed accounts payable included in the acquisition. The NV Promissory Note requires monthly payments, subject to the modifications as defined in the Purchase Agreement, beginning on January 2, 2015 through and including December 1, 2015. The NV Promissory Note is secured by a security interest in the accounts receivable as of the closing date of November 26, 2014. During the nine months ended September 30, 2015, payments made on the NV Promissory Note totaled $1,294,753 and the note was contractually reduced by $32,281, based upon the terms of the NV Promissory Note, which requires periodic modification of the amounts due resulting from the Company's analysis of the acquired accounts receivable and assumed accounts payable. At September 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, the amount outstanding under the NV Promissory Note was $62,352 and $1,389,386, respectively.

8. Promissory Note

The Company has an outstanding promissory note in the amount of $445,000 (the "Promissory Note") payable to Matthew Proman, the Company's former Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer (see Note 9). The Promissory Note originally matured on August 15, 2015, has an annual interest rate of 0.35% and was due and payable in quarterly installments of $137,500 on each of November 15, 2014, February 15, 2015, May 15, 2015, with a final payment of $32,500 payable on August 15, 2015. However, if NAPW (on a stand-alone basis) on any payment date fails to meet certain performance criteria as of the end of the fiscal quarter then most recently ended with respect to gross revenue and net cash from operations, then the Company's obligation to make payments of principal and accrued interest on that date will be deferred to the next payment date that follows the next fiscal quarter end during which NAPW is able to meet such performance criteria, and the maturity date shall be correspondingly extended until such time as the note may be repaid in full. If NAPW (on a stand-alone basis) on any payment date, as of the end of the fiscal quarter then most recently ended, satisfies the gross revenue performance criteria, but fails to satisfy the cash flow performance criteria, then the Company will only be required to make payments of interest and principal to the extent NAPW has positive cash flows from operations equal to or greater than the amount due, as defined in the Promissory Note. The Promissory Note is not convertible or exchangeable for shares of the Company's Common Stock, is unsecured and may be prepaid, in full or in part, at any time by the Company without premium or penalty. The amounts owing under the Promissory Note may be accelerated upon the occurrence of an event of default. NAPW did not meet any of the specified performance criteria during the term of the Promissory Note. Accordingly, payment of the $137,500 due on November 15, 2015 will be deferred until February 15, 2016.

The stated interest rate of the Promissory Note is 0.35%, which was determined to be below the Company's expected borrowing rate of 4.80%, therefore the Promissory Note was discounted by $10,418 using a 4.45% imputed annual interest rate. The discount is being amortized over the term of the Promissory Note as non-cash interest expense in the condensed consolidated statements of comprehensive loss.

The discount was fully amortized at September 30, 2015. Interest expense amounted to $2,995 and $0 for the three months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively, which includes amortization of debt discount of $2,606 and $0, respectively. Interest expense amounted to $8,981 and $0 for the nine months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively, which includes amortization of debt discount of $7,814 and $0, respectively. There were no payments made on the Promissory Note during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015. The Promissory Note, net of the unamortized discount, amounted to $445,000 and $437,186 as of September 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, respectively.

Legal Proceedings

NAPW, Inc., the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary and successor by merger to Old NAPW, is a defendant in the related cases of Constantino v. NAPW, Inc., No. 0000074/2013 (Sup. Ct., Nassau Co.), filed on January 3, 2013 in the County Court for Nassau County, New York, and DeLisi, et al. v. NAPW, Inc., No. 2:13-CV-05322 (E.D.N.Y.), filed on September 25, 2013 in federal court for the Eastern District of New York. These cases were fully resolved during the third quarter 2015 and the confidential settlement amount net of insurance proceeds did not have a material effect on the company's results.

Noble Voice LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company acquired in connection with the Global Outreach acquisition, is party to litigation captioned as Expand, Inc. v. Noble Voice LLC et al., CASE NO.: 2014-CA-9366 A (Orange County, FL Circuit Court) pursuant to which Expand, Inc., d/b/a SoftRock, Inc. ("SoftRock") filed a complaint against Noble Voice LLC and certain other defendants (the "Noble Voice Defendants") on or about September 10, 2014 alleging the existence of a purported conspiracy by Noble Voice and the other defendants to breach the individual Noble Voice Defendants' Non-Compete Agreements and separate Confidentiality Agreements, misappropriation of trade secrets by some but not all Noble Voice Defendants, tortious interference and seeking injunctive relief. During the Third Quarter the parties met to discuss settlement of claims against the corporate defendants; negotiations that remain underway. The outcome of this lawsuit is uncertain, however, we believe that the claims asserted are without merit and we intend to aggressively defend against the claims.

The Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Noble Voice, LLC, are also parties to litigation captioned as Coleman v. Noble Voice, LLC, et al., CASE NO. 15-CV-6791 (N.D. Ill.), pursuant to which a single consumer has alleged that Noble Voice violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act ("TCPA") by contacting him in contravention of that Act's provisions. The lawsuit was received and the Company filed its Answer during the third quarter. While the case is in its preliminary stages and no discovery has commenced, the Company is confident in its TCPA compliance practices and, while the outcome of this lawsuit is uncertain, we believe that the claims asserted are without merit and we intend to aggressively defend against the claims.

The Company is a defendant in five other legal claims relating to employment related issues. We believe the claims are without merit and the results will not have a material adverse effect on the business.

General Legal Matters

From time to time, the Company is involved in legal matters arising in the ordinary course of business. While the Company believes that such matters are currently not material, there can be no assurance that matters arising in the ordinary course of business for which the Company is, or could be, involved in litigation, will not have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition or results of operations.

Separation Agreement

On July 16, 2015, the Company and Mr. Proman entered into a Separation Agreement whereby Mr. Proman resigned from his position as the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and resigned from the Company's Board of Directors. Under the terms of the Separation Agreement, the Company paid Mr. Proman severance in an amount equal to the value of nine months of his annual salary, or $206,250. The Company will also reimburse Mr. Proman for the amount of any premiums for individual medical insurance during the nine-month period following the date of the Separation Agreement. Mr. Proman released and discharged the Company and its officers, directors, employees and agents from any and all claims, whether then known or unknown, which Mr. Proman then had based upon or arising out of any matter occurring or existing at any time up to and including the date of the Separation Agreement. The Company likewise released and discharged Mr. Proman from any and all claims, whether then known or unknown, which the Company then had based upon or arising out of any matter occurring or existing at any time up to and including the date of the Separation Agreement.

Mr. Proman also agreed to provisions in the Separation Agreement prohibiting him from, for a period of one year following the date of the Separation Agreement, (i) disparaging the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or any of its or their products and services, directors, officers, employees or other agents, (ii) competing against the Company or any of its subsidiaries, (iii) soliciting the termination of any employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries and (iv) interfering with the relationship between the Company and its subsidiaries, on the one hand, and their customers, on the other hand. The Separation Agreement provides that in the event that Mr. Proman breaches his obligations under the foregoing provisions, then as liquidated damages he will forfeit any amounts otherwise owed to him under the Promissory Note. 10. Income Taxes

The effective income tax rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 was 40%, resulting in a $618,000 and $1,130,000 income tax benefit, respectively. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, the Company recorded a valuation allowance of $3,938,000. In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred income tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred income tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred income tax liabilities, projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies in making this assessment. Based on the consideration of these items, management has determined that it is more likely than not that the Company will not realize the deferred income tax asset balances to warrant the application of a valuation allowance as of September 30, 2015 and therefore has recorded a valuation allowance.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with our Unaudited Financial Statements, including the notes to those statements, included elsewhere in this Quarterly Report. This section and other parts of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (this "Quarterly Report") contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 concerning our future results of operations and financial position, business strategy and plans and our objectives for future operations. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by the following words: "anticipate," "believe," "continue," "could," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "ongoing," "plan," "potential," "predict," "project," "should," "will," "would" or the negative of the other comparable terminology, although not all forward-looking statements contain these words. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our results, levels of activity, performance or achievements to be materially different from the information expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. Although we believe that we have a reasonable basis for each forward-looking statement contained in this Quarterly Report, we caution you that these statements are based on a combination of facts and factors currently known by us and our projections of the future, about which we cannot be certain. Such risks and uncertainties include, among others, those discussed in "Item 1A - Risk Factors" of our Annual Report on Form 10-K as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on March 31, 2015, as well as in our condensed consolidated financial statements, related notes and the other financial information appearing elsewhere in this Quarterly Report and our other filings with the SEC. These factors could cause actual results to differ materially from the results anticipated by these forward-looking statements. Moreover, we operate in a very competitive and rapidly changing environment. New risks emerge from time to time. It is not possible for our management to predict all risks, nor can we assess the impact of all factors on our business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements we may make. The forward-looking statements in this Quarterly Report speak only as of the date they were made. We do not intend, and undertake no obligation, to update any of our forward-looking statements to reflect actual results or future events or circumstances. Given these risks and uncertainties, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements.

Unless we specify otherwise, all references in this Quarterly Report to the "Company," "our," "we" and "us" refer to Professional Diversity Network, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries. For purposes of this Quarterly Report, unless the context clearly dictates otherwise, all references to "professional(s)" means any person interested in the Company's websites presumably for the purpose of career advancement or related benefits offered by the Company, whether or not such person is employed and regardless of the level of education or skills possessed by such person. The Company does not impose any selective or qualification criteria on membership and the term "professional(s)" as used in this Quarterly Report should be interpreted accordingly. In addition, the Company does not verify that any member of a particular Company website qualifies as a member of the ethnic, cultural or other group identified by that website. In our discussion below, the Company occasionally refers to its number of "registered users," which we measure in terms of consumers who use the properties operated by each division. Our definition is based upon criteria relevant to the operation of each division and therefore may be different for each division. For PDN (as defined below), a registered user is a consumer who has affirmatively visited one of our properties, opted into an affinity group and provided us with demographic or contact information enabling us to match them with employers and/or jobs. For NAPW (as defined below), a registered user is a consumer who has viewed our marketing material, opted in to membership, provided demographic information and engaged in an onboarding call with a membership coordinator. For Noble Voice (as defined below), a registered user is a jobseeker who has viewed our marketing material, completed a TCPA-compliant opt-in form and provided us with contact and other demographic information enabling us to contact them. Unless otherwise noted within the context of discussing a particular division, we typically disclose "registered users" in the aggregate, combining the users from all three divisions. If a member is inactive for 24 months then such person will be automatically de-registered from our database. The term "diverse" (or "diversity") is used throughout this Quarterly Report to include communities that are distinct based on a wide array of criteria which may change from time to time, including ethnic, national, cultural, racial, and religious or gender classification.

Our Business

The Company

The Company is both the operator of the Professional Diversity Network (the “PDN Network,” “PDN” or the “Professional Diversity Network”) and a holding company for wholly-owned subsidiaries NAPW, Inc. (“NAPW”); Noble Voice LLC and Compliant Lead LLC (together, “Noble Voice”). NAPW operates National Association of Professional Women (the “NAPW Network”), which is a for-profit membership organization for professional women, with offices in New York and Los Angeles. Noble Voice provides career consultation services through its offices in Detroit, MI and Darien, IL.

The NAPW Network

The NAPW Network is a for-profit membership organization for professional women that the Company believes is among the most prominent women-only professional networking organizations in the United States. As of September 30, 2015, the NAPW Network had over 850,000 paid and non-paid professional women members. We continued to maintain high visibility for the NAPW Network through our millions of marketing impressions. During the third quarter of 2015 we increased both visibility and our members' participation in the network through the launch of our eChapter, bringing virtual networking; live and on demand, to our membership. This electronic networking functionality enhances our ability to provide an interactive professional networking experience to our members. Based on initial favorable adoption rates the Company plans on expanding virtual networking in 2016 to include regional and specific professional concentration eChapters. Members of the NAPW Network, many of whom pay annual membership subscriptions fees to us, enjoy a wealth of resources dedicated to developing their professional networks, furthering their education and skills and promoting their businesses and career accomplishments. We provide NAPW Network members with opportunities to network and develop valuable business relationships with other professionals through NAPW's website, as well as at events hosted at hundreds of local chapters across the United States. Through the NAPW Network website, members are able to create, manage and share their professional identity online, build and engage with their professional network and promote themselves and their businesses. In addition to online networking, NAPW Network members can participate in a number of local events held across the United States, including monthly chapter meetings, professional networking expos, charitable events and other events developed specifically to facilitate face-to-face networking with other professional women. NAPW has historically sponsored a National Networking Conference that provides participants the opportunity to network with other members, hear presentations from keynote speakers and participate in break-out sessions. In 2015, the Company sponsored a three-city National Networking Summit Series, with events in Chicago and Los Angeles earlier this year and a New York event held on November 6. Additionally, the Company held more than 20 other professional networking events nationwide, in conjunction with PDN's Career Networking Conferences.

NAPW Network members can also promote their career achievements and businesses through placement on the NAPW Network website's home page, in proprietary press releases drafted with the assistance of a team of professional writers, in the online Member Marketplace, during virtual eChapter meetings and in monthly newsletter publications. In addition to networking and promotional opportunities, NAPW Network members are also provided with the ability to further develop their skills and expand their knowledge base through Continuing Education with Operation Graduate, online and in-person seminars, webinars and certification courses, as well as monthly newsletters. NAPW Network members are also provided exclusive discounts on third-party products and services through our partnerships with valuable brands that include CareXtend, GoldBean, Inc. Magazine, McDonalds, Care.com, ADP, Act-1 Group and GEICO Insurance.

Additionally, as a direct result of the acquisitions we made during 2014 and the subsequent integration of those acquired businesses, we are now able to offer NAPW members the ability to opt into our Telephone Consumer Protection Act-compliant process that matches and qualifies job-seeking NAPW members with interested employers.

As previously disclosed, on July 16, 2015, Matthew Proman, the founder of NAPW and formerly our Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President, separated from the Company. We took interim steps to replace Mr. Proman by moving Chris Wesser, the Company's Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, into a day-to-day operational oversight role. Mr. Wesser filled a similar role at NAPW before our merger in September 2014. Mr. Wesser has been a full time employee of NAPW for over six years and has considerable operational and institutional knowledge of the NAPW business. During the Third Quarter, we retained as a consultant Mr. Barry Feierstein. Mr. Feierstein has been a director with Professional Diversity Network since our initial public offering. He is a Harvard MBA who previously served as a McKinsey and Company business consultant, a SVP of private credit lending at Sallie Mae, and, most recently, as Chief Business Operating Officer at Apollo Group. His past roles include extensive experience managing business operations relating to lead acquisition and telesales revenue generation.

The PDN Network

The Company's PDN Network consists of online professional networking communities dedicated to serving diverse professionals in the United States and employers seeking to hire diverse talent. Our networking communities harness our relationship recruitment methodology to facilitate and empower professional networking within common affinities. We believe that those within a common affinity often are more aggressive in helping others within their affinity progress professionally. The Company operates these relationship recruitment affinity groups within the following sectors: Women; Hispanic-Americans; African-Americans; Asian-Americans; Disabled Professionals; Military Professionals; Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT) Professionals; and Students and Graduates seeking to transition from education to career. The purpose of the PDN Network is to assist its registered users in their efforts to connect with like-minded individuals, identify career opportunities within the network and connect with prospective employers. Our technology platform is integral to the operation of this business. In so doing, our online platform provides employers a means to identify and acquire diverse talent and assist them with their efforts to comply with the regulations and requirements of the Equal Employment Opportunity-Office of Federal Contract Compliance Program ("OFCCP").

As of September 30, 2015, the Company had approximately 6.8 million PDN Network registered users, which we define as job seekers who have opted into our network for purposes of using our services. This reflects an increase during the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2015 of 19.3% compared to the 5.7 million PDN Network registered users as of June 30, 2015. This increase is primarily attributable to our acquisition of Noble Voice and the resulting increase in direct contact with job seekers. We expect that continued user growth of the PDN Network will enable us to further develop our menu of online professional diversity networking and career placement solutions. Additionally, the Company continues to operate systems that distribute jobs in an OFCCP compliant manner to career agencies, including those of state and local governments in the United States.

We currently provide registered PDN Network users with access to our websites at no cost. However the Company has strategic plans to test a premium paid membership, similar to those offered at NAPW, across the PDN Network. The Company intends to begin these initiatives in 2016.

The Company continues to nurture its relationships with key strategic alliances that we believe are valuable to our core clients. The Company currently maintains relationships with the following key strategic allies, among others: the National Urban League, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, VetJobs, DisabledPersons.com (a not-for-profit organization serving employment needs of people with disabilities), National Able Network, Veterans Exchange, Leave No Veteran Behind, ALPFA (an organization dedicated to building Latino business leaders), Illinois Hispanic Nursing Association, Women in Biology, Black Sales Journal, Ebony Magazine, Wall Street Warfighters, National Association of Hispanic Journalists, Hispanic Alliance for Career Enhancement and numerous others. New partnerships have been entered into with Black Data Processing Associates, IT Diversity Careers, the National Association of African Americans in Human Resources, The Griot and the National Association of Women MBAs. The Company considers its partner alliances to be a key value to its clients because it enables the Company to expand its job distribution and outreach efforts.

Complimentary and Mutually Beneficial Combination of the NAPW Network and the PDN Network

The PDN Network provides NAPW Network members with direct access to employers seeking to hire professional women at a high level of connectivity and efficiency. The union of the two networks has enabled the Company to launch its Hire AdvantEdge product, which matches members with jobs offered by our employment partners, qualifies those members for our partners' jobs, secures an indication of interest from the member, and directly provides our partner with the member's information or submits an application on behalf of the member to our partner's recruitment system. The PDN Hire AdvantEdge service delivers enhanced membership value to those members seeking to reenter the workforce or to upgrade their professional employment condition, and our members deliver enhanced value to our partners who are seeking candidates of our members' type. This benefit comes at no additional cost to members, reinforcing the membership value proposition. During the third quarter of 2015, the Hire AdvantEdge product has been deployed to business partners including direct employers and staffing firms. In 2016, the Company plans on enhancing the Hire AdvantEdge product with a licensed recruitment platform; a cloud based software system that will access Hire AdvantEdge from our business partners' desktops. This Hire AdvantEdge license will enable recruiters to post jobs directly and to search the PDN database. They will also be able to enhance their recruitment opportunities with both an assessment and the ability to process applicants through their internal applicant tracking systems. In addition to Hire AdvantEdge, Professional Diversity Network provides alternative values to members who are employed or are seeking employment, including, but not limited to, our patented resume optimizing service (Resonate), our job alerts and a new professional networking platform based upon PDN's core networking technology.

NAPW is already leveraging the existing PDN events platform to host networking events in major markets around the nation. Because the PDN networking career events are already being conducted, we have added additional events for NAPW members at the same venues, one hour after the PDN event ends, at a substantially lower cost than hosting stand-alone NAPW events. Employers who sponsor the PDN career networking events will have the opportunity to participate in the NAPW event and meet with members to discuss employment opportunities in what we believe is an inviting and upscale networking environment. We believe that providing the opportunity for NAPW members to meet, outside of the monthly local chapter events and the three National Networking Summits, has added additional value to all NAPW members. That is, instead of attending one national event in New York, as was the case in 2014, in future years, NAPW Network members will be able to attend any or all of our PDN Network events. Non-members may also attend, subject to certain restrictions.

Collectively, these PDN products and services are being deployed to provide enhanced value to the NAPW membership experience, which we believe will be an important component in increasing both the number of new memberships and renewals of existing memberships, which leads to increased retention.

In a similar manner, NAPW provides PDN with an enhanced value proposition to our corporate recruitment business partners by providing a unique talent source of engaged and professional women. The same Hire AdvantEdge service that creates value for members by matching them with employers in a high touch manner provides employers with a very desirable candidate in an efficient, resourced and qualified manner. Furthermore, by adding NAPW events after PDN Career Networking Conferences, PDN will have opportunities to market upgrades to the exhibitors who recruit at the PDN events that will allow such exhibitors to participate in the NAPW membership networking event and meet members who may be potential employees for their companies. Exhibitors will be able to receive more exposure to more candidates because of the fact that the NAPW Networking Event will be held after PDN's Career Networking Conference.

PDN - Operations

We generate revenue from our PDN Network through numerous sources, all of which involve recruitment services designed to meet growing demand for diverse talent. We offer job postings, recruitment advertising, semantic search technology, career and networking events. We also provide our recruitment technology platform to various business partners including ALPFA, NAACP and others. We currently have over 800 companies utilizing our products and services. Approximately 13.4% of our revenue is transacted online via ecommerce, and we believe we have the ability to increase this percentage efficiently. The majority of our sales are consummated via direct interaction with our diversity recruitment sales professionals. We generate revenue by contracting with employers seeking to diversify their workforce. We help them by promoting their job opportunities to our networks of diverse professionals and by posting their job opportunities in a method and manner compliant with the requirements of the OFCCP.

PDN - Marketing Directly to Employers

One of PDN's core business strategies involves marketing our suite of products and services directly to employers and third party recruiters. We market to both third-party and in-house corporate recruiters by assessing their diversity recruitment and talent acquisition needs and providing them real-time solutions that deliver diverse talent. We believe that the industry has no single supplier that allows employers to access diverse candidates as efficiently as we are able to at our scale or quality, or with our unique understanding of the marketplace.

We believe that our approach is both unique and scalable. Our experience tells us that the diversity recruiting market is fragmented and difficult for diversity recruiting teams to penetrate because the market lacks a centralized point of approach. PDN solves that problem by developing strategic partnerships with leading organizations and providing a single point of access, which we deliver in an automated and culturally-relevant way that is meaningful to the job seeker.

While we are developing purely online marketing channels to bring recruiters to us, and courting strategic partners who can bring us new clients in bulk, we have found that the diversity recruiting market remains heavily dependent upon personal interaction. To that end, we currently employ professionals in sales, sales support and marketing who are all trained in selling our products and services. We have also formed strategic alliances with parties who are able to help extend our organic reach. As a result, we have built an eight-channel sales outreach pipeline, which includes internal employees, third-party partners who deliver employers with demand for our products, and technology which facilitates e-commerce transactions.

With respect to our internal employees, we believe in a team approach to nurturing the relationships we build, and, therefore, have three distinct groups of sales staff and support. The first includes our table-setters, who are responsible for setting up first meetings with prospect companies. The second includes our career sales professionals, who conduct the first meeting and mature the conversation to what we hope is a successful conclusion. The third includes our nurturing sales professionals who provide ongoing account management and are responsible for successful client renewals. Together, we provide a client services team focused on delivering a high degree of satisfaction from the point of sale through renewal and expansion of our customer relationships.

We have segregated the diversity recruitment market into three sectors:

- Federal, state and local governments and companies and contractors who serve these governmental entities;
- Small and medium sized businesses as defined by companies with less than 2,500 employees; and
  - Large enterprises with greater than 2,500 employees.

Our sales team is approaching these markets using a combination of telephone, email and face-to-face marketing which includes, in some cases, personal visits to companies and or their recruitment agencies, as well as appearances at industry and trade group events where diversity recruitment recruiters are in attendance. We have invested in our direct sales infrastructure and expect to continue to do so in the future. We plan to continue to invest in our sales and marketing team during the remainder of 2015 and beyond.. These costs are primarily for sales personnel and to support the sales team with tools such as client relationship management systems, personal computers and travel expenses. The sales expenses are variable and can be adjusted to meet market conditions.

Revenue from our recruitment sector will be impacted positively and negatively by certain general macroeconomic conditions, such as the national unemployment rate. An increase in demand for employees should create market conditions favorable to us. Conversely, a weak employment environment may have a negative impact. We believe that our focus on diverse professionals mitigates this risk because of the social and political environment in the United States. We believe recent trends indicate an increased focus by companies on hiring diverse Americans for both compliance and business reasons. For example, as each population among our seven affinities grows and companies seek to conduct business with these populations, we expect companies will hire aggressively within them, resulting in a robust demand for the types of employees we are bringing into our networks. Because of our specialization and focus in diversity recruitment, as opposed to general recruitment, we have not yet experienced negative pricing pressure associated with product commoditization (which is the act of making a product or service easy to obtain by making it as uniform, plentiful and affordable as possible).

PDN - Recruitment Advertising

Diversity recruitment advertising enables recruiters to communicate their career opportunities to diverse candidates using Internet banner ads and email marketing. In the past year we have provided diversity recruitment advertising services to numerous employers. We use sophisticated technology to deliver advertising targeted by geography and occupation. Our targeting is based upon data that we have accumulated relevant to our audiences' job searches on our sites and vast profiles based upon those user experiences.

We believe that PDN stands apart from the industry in this arena because we are able to promote our clients' brands in a manner that reflects each client's commitment to diversity. What is unique to PDN is our ability to understand an employer's culture of diversity and inclusion, and effectively communicate those employer values to our job seekers, who desire to be employed by a company with a culture of diversity and inclusion. In addition to delivering job seekers through our recruiter marketing, it is critical that we deliver to those job seekers, jobs with employers they feel good about and who they feel understand them. Our recruitment advertising solutions provide job seekers with information that we believe allows them to look beyond a brand and deeper into an employer's core values. This process matters to diverse job seekers, and employers with matching core values are more likely to retain the job seekers as employees. Both we and our clients believe that this is critical to hiring and retention success, and our recruitment advertising is expected to be a growing part of our business. Our recruitment advertising solutions provide job seekers with information that we believe allows them to look beyond a brand and deeper into an employer's core values. Both we and our clients believe that this is critical to hiring and retention success, and our recruitment advertising is expected to be a growing part of our business.

In addition to selling advertising packages and assisting our clients with their branding in this regard, we sell advertising packages which include access to develop "talent communities" within our affinities' online properties, automated job feeds, access to our database for email marketing, banners within our network and affiliate networks and re-targeting of directed advertisements.

PDN - Events

We generate revenue through our events division by selling employers access to and placement in or advertising around our diversity job fairs. In 2015 we will deliver over 20 Career Networking Conferences, including NAPW's three-city National Networking Summit Series. The value of these events is multi-fold. We derive revenue from employers to whom we sell the events; we derive new members to both our PDN affinities and NAPW membership roll from participation in the events; we expect to derive increased retention among paying NAPW members; and we derive goodwill and positive publicity for our corporate brands as well as our overall message of diversity and inclusion, which further drives demand for our products and services.

NAPW - Membership Subscriptions

We believe that professionals attain success, in large part, based upon the value of their personal and professional networks. NAPW was built upon the premise that women have been historically disadvantaged in terms of building financially valuable networks, and that there exists a gap in the market for professional women to successfully network. Therefore, NAPW provides its members with online networking opportunities through its members-only site at www.napw.com, as well as through in-person networking at over 200 Local Chapters nationwide, additional career and networking events, and ancillary (non-networking) benefits such as educational discounts, shopping, and other membership perks. The information on NAPW's website is not incorporated by reference in this Quarterly Report and you should not consider it as part of this Quarterly Report.

We currently employ 105 sales professionals, 92 of whom sell new membership subscriptions and 13 of whom sell upgraded membership packages and ancillary products, as described below. Beginning during the second quarter of 2015 and continuing into the third quarter, we have been decreasing our number of sales professionals while fine-tuning our lead generation and sales processes. Based upon early results to-date, we believe we can further reduce the number of sales professionals and sales-related spend while maintaining a high level of revenue and increasing profitability. Specifically, we have had the following successes during the third quarter:

- We have instituted a new sales training program, which has allowed our sales professionals to become more productive in a shorter time. This allows us to ameliorate some of the effects of employee turnover, and to continue to drive average per-sales professional productivity to higher levels in a shorter time.
- We have altered our commission schedule so that it is now designed to drive maximum productivity at all times. Our previous schedule did not properly incentivize sales professionals to seek maximum productivity. Our ability to make this change is directly attributable to the business intelligence we are able to gain as a result of the new NAPW customer relationship management system ("CRM") built in large part using Noble Voice technical resources gained in our Q4 2014 acquisition of that company.
- We have used new business intelligence to our advantage to identify operational changes that we believe has led to improved morale and productivity without materially impacting our financial performance.
- We have used our heightened IT capacity to test a work-from-home model, which we have successfully tested through proof-of-concept stage in October 2015. We anticipate that this will allow us to efficiently close our Los Angeles office and eliminate much of the overhead associated with the Los Angeles operation, enabling us to invest more heavily in our Garden City, NY office. Long-term, we anticipate that this will also allow us to improve our hiring ratios, reduce turnover and tap into a new talent pool as we will be able to acquire sales professionals who are seeking less than full-time employment and a work-from-home model.
- Both revenue per lead and gross sales per representative, our two key metrics of sales professional performance, have improved during our cost-cutting and fine-tuning processes.
- In the third quarter 2015 we continued to make refinements to our CRM, both large and small, to improve performance and increase the job satisfaction of our sales professionals. Again, we are able to do this in large part as a result of the investment we made last year in Noble Voice, our technology catalyst as described below.

We also employ support teams to provide compliance, customer service/support and testing. Our compliance team is specifically focused on ensuring the integrity of the NAPW sales process. The team works closely with customer service and sales management to ensure that sales are conducted in an ethical manner and to identify sales representatives who would benefit from enhanced training. Our testing team consists of representatives who work with our Development and Executive teams to identify new lead-generation, sales and membership product opportunities, and to test those as well as new approaches to our current sales. Our customer service team, located in our New York, Los Angeles, Detroit and Darien, IL offices, work together to improve engagement with our members and to ensure a high degree of member satisfaction and retention.

NAPW - Upgraded Memberships and Ancillary Products

Upgraded packages include the VIP membership, which provides members with additional promotional and publicity tools as well as free access (including guest) to the National Networking Summits and continuing education programs; the press release package, which provides members with the opportunity to work with professional writers to publish personalized press releases and thereby secure valuable online presence; and the registry product, which allows members to create a durable, historical record chronicling their career achievements. We have 13 representatives in our New York and Los Angeles offices selling upgraded memberships and ancillary products. Our aforementioned compliance, testing and customer service teams also support our upgraded membership and ancillary product sales.

Noble Voice - Offline Career Consultations & Online Sales

Our Noble Voice division typically conducts approximately 25,000 career consultations per week. We monetize these consultations by using proprietary technology to drive online traffic to our call centers and generating value-added leads for our strategic partners who provide continuing education and career services. Noble Voice maintains a sophisticated CRM and marketing controls, and is able to efficiently manage the number of consultations to match demand. We believe that we have a scalable platform that can continue to meet demand as it rises.

Noble Voice - Technology Catalyst

We believe that the acquisition of Noble Voice was beneficial not only for its valuable business model and revenue stream, but also for its potential as a technology catalyst. As described, we have leveraged Noble Voice's technology to-date to enable us to roll out our Hire AdvantEdge product, which is already working to supply our clients' demand for job seekers in real time; to improve our methods of communication to prospects and leads for lead-generation; to deliver upgraded benefits not only to our NAPW members and members of the PDN affinities but to our clients through their client portal; to deliver the new NAPW website; to drive a significant increase in web traffic and time on site; and to increase the rate of new user registrations on our online properties. We believe that we will continue to leverage Noble Voice resources going forward in a manner that continues to help us gain efficiencies.

Significantly, our Noble Voice technology resources have allowed us to roll out an upgraded Customer Relations Management database and interface ("CRM") for use by NAPW across all aspects of its operations. Our new NAPW CRM was rolled out during the first quarter of 2015, tested and refined throughout the second and third quarters and is now being used by all new membership sales professionals. The new CRM is already providing us with better business intelligence around the acquisition, distribution and management of NAPW leads as well as better operational control and management of NAPW call center operations.

Quarterly Results

Overview

During the third quarter 2015 we experienced financial losses as we focused on refining our business lines with a focused goal of achieving profitability. In our recruitment division we believe that we have successfully right sized the operations to position this division to become profitable in future periods, while positioned and resourced for future growth. We have also reduced sales and marketing costs in our Noble Voice division to achieve our goal of near breakeven. We do not anticipate near term growth for this division, but have built the foundation to do so as profitable opportunities arise. Finally at NAPW we have made numerous changes to the sales and marketing structure within that division in order to achieve breakeven and establish a pathway to profitability in future periods. We are planning on further cost reductions with the elimination of our satellite sales office in Los Angeles, which is projected to save the company approximately $1.2 million in annual costs.

The Company realized $9,343,000 and $30,445,000 in total revenues during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, respectively, compared to $1,575,000 and $3,845,000 in the same prior year period, representing an increase of 493% and 692%, respectively, attributable primarily to the acquisition of NAPW in September of 2014 and Noble Voice in November of 2014. The Company decreased its Adjusted EBITDA deficit to $919,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2015 compared to $1,397,000 in the same period one year prior, a decrease of $478,000. The Adjusted EBITDA deficit for the nine months ended September 30, 2015 increased by $175,000 to $2,706,000 from $2,531,000 for the same period one year prior. This corresponds to an increase in net loss of $28,716,000 and $30,287,000 during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, respectively, compared to $941,000 and $1,692,000 in the same prior year period, representing an increase of 2,952% and 1,690% which is primarily attributable to the impairment expense recorded in the third quarter of 2015 in the amount of $24,717,000.

EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure. For reconciliations to the most comparable GAAP measure, see “Non-GAAP Financial Measures” below.

The Company operates its business in three reportable segments: (i) the NAPW Network, (ii) the PDN Network and (iii) Noble Voice operations. Of these segments, the NAPW Network generated $6,106,000, or 65.3% of our total revenue, and $19,949,000, or 65.5% of our total revenue, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, respectively. We generate revenue from the NAPW Network through membership subscriptions, the sale of press releases and an annual registry publication. Members pay their annual fees at the commencement of their membership period and benefits become available immediately; however, the revenue is recognized ratably over the 12 month membership period. Membership subscriptions represented approximately 94.6% and 96.8% of NAPW’s revenue for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015.

Our primary strategy to increase revenues from the NAPW Network is to expand the NAPW Network's base, increase the retention of that base in order to increase ongoing revenues and create a robust database of information about its key demographic - professional women which enables us to monetize that information. We believe that we can do so through the deployment of capital into (i) the NAPW Network's existing member acquisition model, (ii) testing new methods of member acquisition, (iii) key member retention initiatives, (iv) the refinement of existing, and development of additional, NAPW Network member benefits and (v) our information collection and technology infrastructure.

The PDN Network generated $903,000, or 9.7% of our total revenue, and $2,642,000, or 8.7% of our total revenue, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, respectively. The majority of revenue generated by the PDN Network comes from job recruitment advertising. For the three months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, approximately 92.0% and 61.6%, respectively, of our aggregate revenue was generated from job recruitment advertising. The sales and marketing team, launched in 2013 at Professional Diversity Network, is executing its sales plan to bring on numerous new direct relationships with employers who seek to recruit diverse talent. We have also experienced adoption of our OFCCP compliance product services by a number of customers. By combining diversity recruitment advertising with job postings and compliance services, the Company is able to deliver a valuable, cost effective and comprehensive solution for businesses subject to OFCCP compliance.

We generate revenue from our PDN Network through numerous sources all of which involve recruitment services. We offer job postings, recruitment advertising, semantic search technology and career and networking events. We also license our recruitment technology platform. We currently have over 800 companies utilizing our products and services. For the three months ended September 30, 2015, approximately 13.4% of our PDN revenue was transacted online via ecommerce through our proprietary properties and those of our partners, compared to 12.5% for the three months ended September 30, 2014. The majority of our PDN Network direct sales are consummated via direct interaction with our diversity recruitment sales professionals.

While we recognize revenue in our financial statements ratably as earned over the lives of the respective contracts we enter into, internally we track gross bookings for services we originate through our direct sales force on a quarterly basis strictly as our performance measurement. Although direct bookings are non-binding and the revenue derived from such bookings are not recorded in earnings until all of the revenue recognition criteria are met, we consider direct bookings to be a key performance indicator of where we stand against our strategic plan.

Our Noble Voice division generated $2,334,000, or 25.0% of our total revenue, and $7,853,000, or 25.8% of our total revenue, during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015. We generate revenue from our Noble Voice operations from its lead generation activities and sales of data not used in the lead generation process. Lead generation sales represented approximately 83.1% and 85.9% of the revenue attributable to the Noble Voice business segment for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

We make reference to "Adjusted EBITDA," a measure of financial performance not calculated in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP"). Management has included EBITDA because it believes that investors may find it useful to review our financial results as adjusted to exclude items as determined by management. Reconciliations of this non-GAAP financial measure to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure, net loss, to the extent available without unreasonable effort, are set forth above.

Management believes Adjusted EBITDA provides a meaningful representation of our operating performance that provides useful information to investors regarding our financial condition and results of operations. Adjusted EBITDA is commonly used by financial analysts and others to measure operating performance. Furthermore, management believes that this non-GAAP financial measure may provide investors with additional meaningful comparisons between current results and results of prior periods as they are expected to be reflective of our core ongoing business. However, while we consider Adjusted EBITDA to be an important measure of operating performance, Adjusted EBITDA and other non-GAAP financial measures have limitations, and investors should not consider them in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of our results as reported under GAAP. Further, Adjusted EBITDA, as we define it, may not be comparable to EBITDA, or similarly titled measures, as defined by other companies.

Reconciliation of Net Loss to Adjusted EBITDA

Business Outlook

As previously disclosed, we are continuing to manage several initiatives designed over the medium to long term to reduce expenses and integrate new technology that we expect will help better manage operations. During the third quarter the Company focused on managing operations towards achieving profitability in future periods. While we had an Adjusted EBITDA deficit of $919,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2015, we experienced a decreasing monthly Adjusted EBITDA deficit of approximately $554,000 in July, $331,000 in August and a near breakeven in September, with a $34,000 deficit. This corresponds to monthly net losses of $10,139,000 in July, $9,911,000 in August and $9,607,000 in September. The July results included a one-time severance payment of $206,250 made to Matthew Proman under the terms of his separation agreement.

In the third quarter of 2015 the Company took specific actions to reduce costs, including some expenses that resulted in reduction of revenues. The overarching objective is to establish predictable profitability, with high gross profit margins and then build up operations to access, what we believe to be, a very large addressable market for premium memberships and diversity recruitment services. Our new Customer Relationship Management system, launched at NAPW earlier this year, provides us with real time data that measures both the quality of our marketing spend by source, and the productivity of our sales representatives, by source, by time period and by utilization of leads by cost. Additionally powerful, is that this is a cloud based system, enabling us to empower existing and future team members to work from home. We have now tested, with favorable results, this work from home operating model successfully. Transitioning team members save time and money while working from home, and we now have the ability to recruit top talent across the nation, in a favorable expense environment.

A specific example of expense reductions that we expected would reduce sales can be found in new membership lead generation and sales representatives to service those leads. We eliminated or reduced of certain marketing channels and methods in favor of a more diversified and efficient system of generating new membership sales. In the third quarter of 2015 we shut off certain channels and began to strategically test, in an agile method, new lead sources. At the same time we eliminated certain sales resources performing at levels below company averages. These actions had led to favorable results as demonstrated in our month over month results in the third quarter. July was challenging, we improved in August and September was the best Adjusted EBITDA monthly period since the Company went public in March of 2013.

Based upon the favorable results of our sales management process in the third quarter of 2015 we can cut additional costs, while we now turn towards increasing revenues. Thus we have decided to close our Los Angeles call center at the end of 2015. We estimate that once fully transitioned, the closure of this office will further reduce our expense rate by approximately $1,100,000 annually. We also cut expenses, including marketing costs and personnel at both our recruitment and lead generation operations with favorable results. It is our expectation that the near term impact will be a reduction in revenue as not all employees will transition to the work from home model. We believe that by the end of the first quarter of 2016 we will have replaced any revenue rate deficits resulting from the transition and grow from that point forward.

Seasonality

Our quarterly operating results have historically been affected by the seasonality of employers' businesses. Historically, demand for employment hiring is lower during the first quarter and second quarters of the year and increases during the third and fourth quarters. However, while NAPW sales have slight seasonal variations, generally sales have been slightly slower during summer months and during periods near holidays like Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Eve and New Year's Day, the variations are far less significant than those of PDN's recruitment business. Because NAPW generates the majority of revenue for the Company, the seasonality of the Company's business has been less significant in recent quarters compared to quarters concluded prior to our combination with NAPW, and we expect that will be the case in future quarters. One factor that has historically affected NAPW's sales has been employee capacity within its call centers. Due to the technology developed through the Noble Voice acquisition we have been able to test a work-from-home model. While we have not rolled out this model on a wide scale, early results are promising. If this model proves itself on a large-scale, we expect that it will allow us to smooth NAPW sales over seasonal factors such as inclement weather, school holidays and vacations (when sales employees might otherwise take personal time), and the like.

Costs and Expenses

Total costs and expenses increased significantly in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 to $36,020,000 and $60,949,000, respectively, compared to $2,158,000 and $5,772,000 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014, respectively. This increase of 1,569% and 956% is primarily the result of an impairment expense of $24,717,000 recorded in the third quarter of 2015 and the increased costs of operating the acquired businesses of the NAPW Network and Noble Voice. As discussed elsewhere in this Quarterly Report, during the third quarter of 2015, we continued to reduce our financial investment in the NAPW direct mail and digital marketing campaigns to better grow revenues in a cost efficient manner. For the three months ended September 30, 2015, we realized a cost reduction of $100,000, compared to the three months ended June 30, 2015 for NAPW direct mail and digital marketing.

Noble Voice	2,334	-(2)	7,853	-(2)
Total revenues	$ 9,343	$ 1,575	$ 30,444	$ 3,845

(1) The Company began operating the NAPW Network segment after its acquisition on September 26, 2014.

(2) During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014, the Company did not operate the Noble Voice segment, which was acquired in November 2014.

The NAPW Network, which was acquired in September 2014, generated revenues from membership fees and related services and products sales of $6,106,000 and $19,949,000, respectively for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, compared to $414,000 of revenues related to membership fees and related services for the six days of September 2014 that we from the acquisition date to the end of the third quarter. The Company anticipates that in future periods, the revenue generated from the NAPW Network will continue to exceed revenue generated from the PDN Network, and will be material to the Company's financial condition and results of operations. The Company began to significantly increase its energies and spending on sales opportunities and membership benefit services after the acquisition of NAPW in September 2014. We anticipate that these investments, which are a combination of improvements that leverage PDN's technology and enhance membership services and support and our consistent, continuing investments in lead generation, will result in an increase in both membership sales in the near, mid and long term as well as an increase in renewals in the mid and long term.

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, we recognized $830,000 and $2,433,000, respectively, compared to $713,000 and $2,114,000, respectively, of revenues related to direct sales of our recruitment services by the PDN Network. This increase in direct sales is primarily attributable to the continued successful execution by our sales and marketing team of its sales plan to bring on numerous new direct relationships with employers who seek to recruit diverse talent. We have also experienced adoption of our OFCPP compliance product services by a number of customers. Additionally, direct sales of our recruitment services during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 were higher compared to the same periods in 2014 because of the positive impacts resulting the termination of our previous agreement with LinkedIn, since we no longer have post termination restrictions on our ability to sell any employers our diversity recruitment services and we are not restricted from entering into direct recruitment relationships with those companies that are using our products and services via the LinkedIn reseller agreement.

Also contributing to the increase in recruitment services revenue attributable to the PDN Network segment was $296,000 and $619,000 of revenues generated from our Events Division during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, respectively, compared to revenue of $236,000 and $481,000, respectively, for the same prior year periods.

Revenue from the PDN Network's consumer advertising and marketing solutions was $73,000 and $209,000, respectively, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, compared to $449,000 and $1,317,000, respectively, for the prior year period. The year over year decrease was primarily the result of the termination of our agreement with Apollo Group on October 9, 2014, which resulted in lost fixed monthly fees of $116,667. The Apollo Agreement would have otherwise expired by its terms on February 28, 2015. Revenue generated from agreements with our partner organizations amounted to $73,000 and $209,000, respectively, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, compared to $99,000 and $267,000, respectively, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014. Partnership revenues declined as we shifted focus to our direct sales efforts and the integration of our recent acquisitions.

Noble Voice, which was acquired in November 2014, generated $2,334,000 and $7,853,000 of lead generation and data revenue for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, respectively.

(1) The Company began operating the NAPW Network segment after its acquisition on September 24, 2014.

(2) During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014, the Company did not operate the Noble Voice segment, which was acquired in November 2014.

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 we recognized $26,389,000 and $27,687,000, respectively, of net losses attributable to the NAPW Network which was acquired September 24, 2014.

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, we recognized $2,858,000 and $3,588,000, respectively, compared to $957,000 and $1,708,000, respectively, of net losses attributable to the PDN Network. This decrease in net loss is primarily attributable to costs incurred in the acquisition of the NAPW Network in 2014.

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 we recognized $410,000 and $703,000, respectively, of net losses attributable to the Noble Voice which was acquired in November 2014.

Operating Expenses

Cost of revenues: Cost of revenues during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 were $1,464,000 and $4,648,000, respectively, an increase of $1,076,000 and $3,498,000, respectively, or 277% and 304%, from $388,000 and $1,150,000, respectively, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014. The increase for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 was due to (i) $157,000 and $535,000, respectively, of costs of products and membership services from NAPW and $877,000 and $2,878,000, respectively, from Noble Voice services that were incurred as a result of the acquisition of each company, (ii) a $0 and $183,000, increase, respectively, in technology delivery services by PDN resulting from the growth of our OFCCP compliance product and expansion of our technology development, (iii) an increase of $47,000 and $35,000, respectively, of direct costs incurred in connection with our Events Division, and (iv) an increase of $19,000 and decrease of $38,000, respectively, of revenue sharing to our partner organizations due to the changes in certain partners.

Sales and marketing expense: Sales and marketing expense for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 were $5,132,000 and $17,227,000, respectively, an increase of $4,140,000 and $14,676,000, respectively, or 417% and 575%, compared to $992,000 and $2,551,000, respectively, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014. The increase for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 primarily consisted of (i) $3,586,000 and $12,206,000, respectively, of sales and marketing expenses from NAPW, which included $1,665,000 and $5,368,000 of wages and benefits for the NAPW sales team and $1,921,000 and $6,838,000 of digital advertising and direct mail costs to generate leads, (ii) wages of $981,000 and $3,098,000, respectively, for the Noble Voice lead generation team and (iii) a decrease] of $253,000 and $487,000, respectively, in sales and marketing salaries, commissions and benefits marketing costs for PDN which resulted from adjustments to the sales and marketing team. During the third quarter of 2015, we continued to reduce our financial investment in the NAPW direct mail and digital marketing campaigns. It is our goal to continue to grow revenues in a cost efficient manner and leveraging the investment we are making in technology and people to drive that business. For the three months ended September 30, 2015, we realized a cost reduction of $100,000, compared to the three months ended June 30, 2015 for NAPW direct mail and digital marketing.

General and administrative expense: General and administrative expenses increased by $3,100,000 and $9,838,000, or 478% and 460%, to $3,748,000 and $11,594,000 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, respectively, compared to $648,000 and $1,756,000 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014, respectively, primarily due to an increase of $2,673,000 and $8,108,000 of expenses from NAPW and $769,000 and $2,527,000 from Noble Voice, and was partially offset by an decrease from PDN of $342,000 and $797,000 due to allocation of shared expenses for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015.

Impairment expense: As a result of the recurring operating losses incurred in NAPW since its acquisition in September 2014, management undertook a review of the carrying amount of its goodwill as of September 30, 2015. We performed our review based on both qualitative and quantitative factors and determined that carrying value of NAPW's goodwill exceeding its implied fair value. Accordingly, we recorded a goodwill impairment charge of $24,717,000 during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015.

Depreciation and amortization expense: Depreciation and amortization expense for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 was $926,000 and $2,731,000, respectively, compared to $130,000 and $315,000 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014, an increase of $796,000 and $2,416,000, respectively, or 612% and 767%, which was primarily due to a $786,000 and $2,308,000 increase in amortization expense, resulting from the amortization of the intangible assets of $14,905,000 acquired from NAPW and $650,000 from Noble Voice and $91,000 of amortization related to the additions to capitalized software relating to web product platform development to support emerging technologies and to the acquired software technology from CareerImp Inc. in June 2013.

Other Income (Expenses)

Included in other expenses, net, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 is interest expense in the amount of $9,000 and $84,000, respectively. Interest expense during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 is primarily the result of the note payable to Proman which had been issued in conjunction with the Company's acquisition of NAPW and prepaid interest included in the purchases of short term investment instruments. In addition, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, we recognized interest income of $2,000 and $26,000, respectively from interest earned on our short-term investments of cash in excess of our current needs for operating capital.

Change in Fair Value of Warrant Liability

The change in the fair value of the warrant liability is related to the common stock purchase warrants issued to underwriters in the Company's IPO on March 4, 2013. We recorded a non-cash gain of $2,000 and $94,000 during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, respectively, related to changes in the fair value of our warrant liability liabilities. The change in the fair value of our warrant liability was primarily the result of changes in our stock price.

Income Tax (Benefit) Expense

The effective income tax rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015 was 11.1% and 4.9%, resulting in income tax expense of $2,976,000 and $1,509,000, respectively. The effective income tax rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 was 40.0%, resulting in income tax benefits of $618,000 and $1,130,000. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2015, the Company recorded a valuation allowance of $3,938,000. In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred income tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred income tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred income tax liabilities, projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies in making this assessment. Based on the consideration of these items, management has determined that it is more likely than not that the Company will not realize the deferred income tax asset balances to warrant the application of a valuation allowance as of September 30, 2015 and therefore has recorded a valuation allowance.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

On April 5, 2012, the Jumpstart Our Business Startups Act (the "JOBS Act") was signed into law. The JOBS Act contains provisions that, among other things, reduce certain reporting requirements for qualifying public companies. As an "emerging growth company," we may delay adoption of new or revised accounting standards applicable to public companies until the earlier of the date that (i) we are no longer an emerging growth company or (ii) we affirmatively and irrevocably opt out of the extended transition period for complying with such new or revised accounting standards. We have elected to take advantage of the benefits of this extended transition period. Our consolidated financial statements may therefore not be comparable to those of companies that comply with such new or revised accounting standards. Upon issuance of new or revised accounting standards that apply to our consolidated financial statements, we will disclose the date on which adoption is required for non-emerging growth companies and the date on which we will adopt the recently issued accounting guidelines.

Our management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations is based on our consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, or U.S. GAAP. The preparation of these consolidated financial statements requires us to exercise considerable judgment with respect to establishing sound accounting policies and in making estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of our assets and liabilities, our recognition of revenues and expenses, and disclosure of commitments and contingencies at the date of the consolidated financial statements.

We base our estimates on our historical experience, knowledge of our business and industry, current and expected economic conditions, the attributes of our products, the regulatory environment, and in certain cases, the results of outside appraisals. We periodically re-evaluate our estimates and assumptions with respect to these judgments and modify our approach when circumstances indicate that modifications are necessary. These estimates and assumptions form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources.

While we believe that the factors we evaluate provide us with a meaningful basis for establishing and applying sound accounting policies, we cannot guarantee that the results will always be accurate. Since the determination of these estimates requires the exercise of judgment, actual results could differ from such estimates.

There have been no material changes to the Company's critical accounting policies and estimates as compared to the critical accounting policies and estimates described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, filed with the SEC on March 31, 2015, which we believe are the most critical to aid you in fully understanding and evaluating our reported financial results and affect the more significant judgments and estimates that we use in the preparation of our financial statements.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The following table summarizes our liquidity and capital resources as of September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively, and is intended to supplement the more detailed discussion that follows:

	September 30,
	2015	2014
	(in thousands)
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 3,881	$ 1,882
Short-term investments	750	9,238
Working capital (deficiency)	(5,219)	(3,664)

Our principal sources of liquidity are our cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments and the net proceeds from our initial public offering and other recent public offerings. Our payment terms for PDN customers range from 30 to 60 days. We consider the difference between the payment terms and payment receipts a result of transit time for invoice and payment processing and to date have not experienced any liquidity issues as a result of the payments extending past the specified terms. We collect NAPW membership fees generally at the commencement of their membership term or at renewal periods thereafter. Cash and cash equivalents and short term investments consist primarily of cash on deposit with banks and investments in money market funds, corporate and municipal debt and U.S. government and U.S. government agency securities.

Under our business agreement with Apollo Group, Apollo Group made fixed monthly payments to us in the amount of $116,667 for the following services we provided to Apollo Group: (1) access to the hosted service for University of Phoenix students and alumni; (2) reports on a daily, weekly or as otherwise requested basis by Apollo Group; and (3) supporting services, including technical support for the hosted service, or as requested by Apollo Group. The agreement with Apollo terminated on October 9, 2014 and, as a result, the Company no longer receives fixed monthly payments of $116,667.

The merger with NAPW resulted in a reduction in the amount of cash and short-term investments of the Company. The consideration for the merger consisted of $3,555,000 paid by the Company in cash to the former sole shareholder of NAPW's predecessor company, fees of approximately $474,000 paid by the Company to the Company's financial advisor, Aegis Capital Corp. and fees of approximately $349,000 paid by the Company to its legal and accounting advisors.

On March 31, 2014 the Company filed its amended Registration Statement on Form S-3 (the "Shelf"), which was declared effective by the SEC on April 2, 2015, registering for issuance shares of our common stock, preferred stock, depositary shares, rights, warrants, units and debt securities up to an aggregate amount of $100,000,000, and 6,309,845 shares of our common stock for resale by certain selling stockholders, in one or more future offerings. This Shelf presented an economical way to position the Company to take advantage of strategic opportunities that may arise, all while helping to create a more liquid market for the Company's common stock.

Following the Company's 2014 acquisitions, which have enabled it to report the revenue growth depicted in its financial statements for the quarters ended March 31, 2015, June 30, 2015 and September 30, 2015, it became prudent to raise additional working capital to replenish amounts spent on the acquisitions and subsequent integration.

To that end, in April of 2015, the Company held its first offering under the Shelf and sold an aggregate of 1,670,000 shares of its common stock at $3.00 per share for gross proceeds of $5,010,000. After the payment of underwriting commissions and discounts, the net proceeds of the offering amounted to approximately $4,400,000. In May of 2015, the underwriters elected to exercise their option to purchase an additional 75,100 shares of the Company's common stock, also at $3.00 per share, for gross proceeds of $225,300, or approximately $210,000 after the payment of underwriting commissions and discounts. These offerings enabled the Company to replenish its current assets, maintain the ability to pursue new opportunities and enjoy a more liquid market for its common stock. The Company believes it has more than adequate cash reserves to execute its business plan and drive the Company to profitability.

We intend to continue to make investments to support our business growth and may require additional funds to increase our sales and marketing efforts and product development and acquire complementary businesses and technologies. We may need to engage in equity or debt financings to secure additional funds. Future efforts to raise additional funds may not be successful or they may not be available on acceptable terms, if at all.

We currently anticipate that our available funds and cash flow from operations will be sufficient to meet our working capital requirements for the next twelve months.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

Since inception, we have not engaged in any off-balance sheet activities as defined in Regulation S-K Item 303(a)(4).

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards, if currently adopted, would have a material effect on the Company's condensed financial statements.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Not applicable.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

As of September 30, 2015, our management conducted an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as such term is defined in Rule 13a-15(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Based upon that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of the end of the period covered by this report in ensuring that information required to be disclosed was recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by us in such reports is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting, as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) of the Exchange Act, that occurred during our most recent fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal controls over financial reporting.

However, during the third quarter of 2015, we continued to undertake certain initiatives to improve and remediate material weaknesses related to our internal control over financial reporting that were identified for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014. Specifically, the Company continued implementing new policies to more fully segregate incompatible duties and enhance the overall internal control structure. Additional procedures were written supporting which functions employees with access to the general ledger system can access, which will provide additional internal control enhancements. As a result of the 2014 acquisitions of NAPW and Noble Voice, we continue to reallocate roles and responsibilities in order to improve our segregation of duties. In the third quarter of 2015 we made changes to our payroll processing procedures at PDN which improved segregation of duties and strengthened internal control over that function.

We anticipate that the actions described above and resulting improvements in controls will strengthen the Company's internal control over financial reporting and will, over time, address the related material weakness. However, because many of the controls in the Company's system of internal controls rely extensively on manual review and approval, the successful operation of these controls may be required for several quarters prior to management being able to conclude that the material weakness has been remediated.

PART II

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

NAPW, Inc., the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary and successor by merger to NAPW's predecessor company, is a defendant in the related cases of Constantino v. NAPW, Inc., No. 0000074/2013 (Sup. Ct., Nassau Co.), filed on January 3, 2013 in the County Court for Nassau County, New York, and DeLisi, et al. v. NAPW, Inc., No. 2:13-CV-05322 (E.D.N.Y.), filed on September 25, 2013 in federal court for the Eastern District of New York. These cases involved allegations of same-sex sexual harassment against a female manager by five female employees. The cases were settled in full on August 26, 2015, subject to confidentiality agreements. Under the terms of the settlement agreement, all parties executed releases and the cases were dismissed. The confidential settlement amount net of insurance proceeds did not have a material effect on the company's results.

Noble Voice LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company acquired in connection with the Global Outreach acquisition, is party to litigation captioned as Expand, Inc. v. Noble Voice LLC et al., CASE NO.: 2014-CA-9366 A (Orange County, FL Circuit Court) pursuant to which Expand, Inc., d/b/a SoftRock, Inc. (“SoftRock”) filed a complaint against Noble Voice LLC and certain other defendants (the “Noble Voice Defendants”) on or about September 10, 2014 alleging the existence of a purported conspiracy by Noble Voice and the other defendants to breach the individual Noble Voice Defendants’ Non-Compete Agreements and separate Confidentiality Agreements, misappropriation of trade secrets by some but not all Noble Voice Defendants, tortious interference and seeking injunctive relief. During the Third Quarter the parties met to discuss settlement of claims against the corporate defendants; negotiations that remain underway. The outcome of this lawsuit is uncertain, however, we believe that the claims asserted are without merit and we intend to aggressively defend against the claims.

The Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Noble Voice, LLC, are also parties to litigation captioned as Coleman v. Noble Voice, LLC, et al., CASE NO. 15-CV-6791 (N.D. Ill.), filed on August 17, 2015 in federal court for the Northern District of Illinois, pursuant to which a single consumer has alleged that Noble Voice violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”) by contacting him in contravention of that Act’s provisions. The lawsuit was received and the Company filed its Answer during the third quarter. While the case is in its preliminary stages and no discovery has commenced, the Company is confident in its TCPA compliance practices and, while the outcome of this lawsuit is uncertain, we believe that the claims asserted are without merit and we intend to aggressively defend against the claims.

The Company is a defendant in five other legal claims relating to employment related issues. We believe the claims are without merit and the results will not have a material adverse effect on the business.
