GOL Begins Tickets Sales to Córdoba and Rosário, Argentina

São Paulo, December 23, 2005 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (NYSE: GOL and Bovespa: GOLL4), Brazil's low-cost, low-fare airline, will begin sales for two new destinations: Córdoba and Rosário, both in Argentina. Flights are confirmed to begin to Córdoba on January 8 and Rosário on January 11.

GOL will offer two different flight options to Córdoba, one leaving from Guarulhos airport in São Paulo with stops in Curitiba (PR), Brazil, and Asuncion, Paraguay. The second flight, departing from Galeão airport in Rio de Janeiro (RJ), will stop in Porto Alegre (RS). Flights to Rosário will also depart from Galeão airport, stopping in Porto Alegre (RS).

Beginning regular operations to two additional cities in Argentina demonstrates the Company's commitment to serving the needs of each local market. We believe that these new destinations in Argentina provide another opportunity to connect important business centers in South America, says Tarcísio Gargioni, vice-president of Marketing and Services at GOL.

With a population of 38.5 million, Argentina is the most frequented South American destination by Brazilians traveling to neighboring countries. In 2004, 1.2 million passengers traveled between Brazil and Argentina. The country is a member of the MERCOSUR (the South American trade block comprised of Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay and Paraguay) and reached a GDP of US$ 129.7 billion in 2004.

Tickets are available for purchase through GOL's website, www.voegol.com.br, by telephone or through your travel agent. Please check the destination table below for more information on flight schedules:
