Item 3.03. Material Modifications to Rights of Security Holders.

(a) We have executed the First Amendment to our 2002 Rights Agreement to require stockholder approval before a Distribution Date can occur under our Rights Agreement. This Rights Agreement, commonly known as a "poison pill," affects the rights of the holders of our shares of $0.0001 par value common stock. Prior to this amendment, rights certificates would be issued and rights of stockholders would become exercisable following certain acquisitions of our shares or the announcement of any tender or exchange offer for our shares. The Rights Agreement refers to the date for such issuance as the "Distribution Date". Pursuant to this First Amendment, our stockholders would first need to approve the Rights Agreement in order for a Distribution Date to occur. Without such approval, rights certificates would not be issued under the Rights Agreement and the Company would have no ability to use the Rights Agreement to effect any anti-takeover actions. Additionally, our Board of Directors has resolved that no shares of our undesignated preferred stock shall be used for anti-takeover purposes without prior stockholder approval.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

Our Board of Directors has determined to reduce the number of shares of our $0.0001 par value common stock for which awards can be granted under our proposed 2005 Stock Option and Restricted Stock Plan from 3,000,000 shares to 1,700,000 shares. Our Board has also agreed to not permit the Company to lend funds to any participant for the exercise of any award under this proposed plan, unless our stockholders have previously approved such a loan.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(c) Exhibits

4.1 First Amendment dated as of April 25, 2005, to the Rights Agreement between Online Resources Corporation and American Stock Transfer and Trust Company filed as an exhibit to a Form 8-K on January 15, 2002.
