Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Laidlaw International, Inc. (the "Company") sold American Medical Response, Inc. ("AMR") to an affiliate of Onex Corporation ("Onex") in accordance with a Stock Purchase Agreement dated December 6, 2004, as amended (the "Stock Purchase Agreement"). Subsequent to the sale, AMR management advised the Company that they had determined that, utilizing an alternative method of valuing accounts receivable, AMR's accounts receivable reserves had been understated between $39 million and $50 million during the last five years, including the date of sale. As a result of this matter, Onex could have asserted a claim against the Company under the Stock Purchase Agreement. On June 2, 2006, the Company paid Onex $10 million in satisfaction of all potential claims Onex may have had against Laidlaw under the Stock Purchase Agreement in regards to this matter. This settlement will result in the Company recording a $10 million loss from discontinued operations during the three months ended May 31, 2006.
