Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On July 3, 2006 pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated May 5, 2006 as thereafter amended and restated, Online Resources Corporation (the "Corporation") and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Online Resources Acquisition Co., completed the merger (the "Merger") under which the Corporation acquired all of the outstanding stock of Princeton eCom Corporation, a Delaware corporation, for a cash acquisition price of $180 million with an additional $10 million payable to the Princeton eCom shareholders if certain condition subsequent are satisfied. Of the initial $180 million, $14.4 million has been escrowed to cover indemnification claims, if any, that may arise in favor of the Corporation within one year from the closing of the Merger.

On July 3, 2006, in order to raise part of the funds required to complete the Merger, the Corporation closed (i) a $85 million credit facility and (ii) sold $75 million of shares of its newly designated Series A-1 Preferred Stock. Under the credit facility, Special Value Expansion Fund, LLC and Special Value Opportunities Fund, LLC, both affiliates of Tennenbaum Capital, LLC, purchased the Corporation's five year senior secured notes bearing interest at Libor plus 7%. Interest under the notes is payable quarterly and principal is due on July 2, 2011.

The same two affiliates of Tennenbaum Capital also purchased 75,000 shares of Series A-1 Preferred Stock at a price of $1,000 per share. The shares are initially convertible at a rate of $16.22825 per share or 4,621,570 shares in the aggregate. Although the shares have anti-dilution protection, in no event can the number of shares issued upon conversion exceed 5,102,986 shares. Although as initially reported in the Corporation's Form 8-K filed on May 8, 2006, the shares were to have an 8% cumulative preferred dividend, the rights of the shares, as finally determined, have no current dividend right. Instead, the liquidation preference value of the shares increases at the rate of 8% per annum of the original issuance price with an interest factor thereon based upon the iMoneyNet First Tier Institutional Average. This 8% per annum increase is convertible, but the Corporation maintains the right to avoid the conversion of this increase and instead pay it in cash. The shares are subject to put and call rights following the seventh year anniversary of their issuance at 115% of the original issue price plus the 8% per annum increase with the interest factor thereon.

Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

As reported under item 2.01, the Corporation has issued and sold 75,000 shares of its newly designated shares of $0.01 par value Series A-1 Preferred Stock at an aggregate purchase price of $75 million to Special Value Expansion Fund, LLC and Special Value Opportunities Fund, LLC, both affiliates of Tennenbaum Capital, LLC. Lehman Brothers, Inc. obtained a 5% commission on the sale of these shares. The Corporation relied upon Rule 506 of Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection with the issuance of these shares.

As noted, above, the shares are convertible at a rate of $16.22825 per share. The anti-dilution rights of the shares are based upon a weighted average price of shares issued below the conversion price; provided, however, shares issued in connection with compensatory equity grants, shares issued above $12.9826 and other issuances as set forth in the certificate of designations that establishes the rights and preferences of the shares of Series A-1 Preferred Stock are excluded from the anti-dilution protections. The Corporation can require the conversion of the shares if the 30 day volume weighted closing price per share of the Corporation's common stock is at least 165% of the initial conversion price.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On July 3, 2006, the Corporation filed with the Delaware Secretary of State a Certificate of Designations authorizing and designating the rights and preferences of the Corporation's $0.01 par value 75,000 shares of Series A-1 Preferred Stock. Such shares were designated from the 2,702,500 remaining shares of preferred stock reserved for issuance under the Corporation's amended and restated certificate of incorporation.
