1999 Long-Term Incentive Plan

On February 8, 2013, the Board of Directors of UDR, Inc. (the "Company") approved an amendment and restatement of the 1999 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). This amendment and restatement revises the definition of change in control to include (1) certain reverse mergers in which the Company is the surviving entity and (2) a change in the composition of the Board of Directors over a period of 12 months or less such that a majority of the Board of Directors ceases, by reason of one or more contested elections, to be comprised of individuals who are "continuing directors" (as defined in the Plan). The amendment and restatement also provides an exception to the rule that the Compensation Committee may provide that unexercised awards will expire in the event of a change in control if the change in control results from a change in the composition of the Board of Directors, including a change in the composition of the Board of Directors resulting from the acquisition of more than 50% of the Company's outstanding voting securities.
