Item 4. Description of Securities

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Subject to the provisions of the Israeli Companies Law, 1999 (the “Companies Law”), we may indemnify, exempt or insure our office holders, if a provision authorizing such indemnity, exemption or insurance is included in our articles of association (our amended and restated articles of association include such provisions).

The Companies Law allows us to insure our office holders against the following liabilities incurred for acts performed as an office holder:

- a breach of duty of loyalty to the company, to the extent that the office holder acted in good faith and had a reasonable basis to believe that the act would not prejudice the company;
- a breach of duty of care to the company or to another person; and
- a financial liability imposed on the office holder in favor of another person.

We cannot, however, indemnify, exempt or insure our office holders against any of the following:

- a breach of duty of loyalty, except, with respect to indemnification and insurance, to the extent that the office holder acted in good faith and had a reasonable basis to believe that the act would not prejudice the company;
- a breach of duty of care committed intentionally or recklessly, excluding a breach arising out of the negligent conduct of the office holder;
- an act or omission committed with intent to derive illegal personal benefit; or
- a fine, civil fine, financial sanction or forfeit levied against the office holder.

An Israeli company may not exempt an office holder from liability for a breach of the duty of loyalty of the office holder. The company may, however, approve certain office holder’s actions performed in breach of the duty of loyalty, provided that the office holder acted in good faith, the act or its approval does not prejudice the company and the office holder discloses the nature of his or her personal interest in the act and all material facts and documents a reasonable time before discussion of the approval. An Israeli company may exempt an office holder, in advance, from liability to the company, in whole or in part, for a breach of duty of care, other than in connection with a prohibited distribution to shareholders.

Pursuant to the Companies Law, we may undertake to indemnify in advance an office holder for financial obligation imposed on an office holder in favor of another person pursuant to judgments, settlements or arbitrators’ awards approved by a court, provided that such undertaking is limited to events that the board of directors deemed foreseeable based on the company’s actual activities at the time of the approval by the board of the undertaking to indemnify, and provided further that the indemnification is limited to an amount or criteria determined by the board of directors as reasonable under the circumstances and that the indemnification undertaking states the foreseeable activities and the amount or criteria. In addition, we may undertake to indemnify in advance an office holder against the following liabilities incurred for acts performed as an office holder:

- reasonable litigation expenses, including attorneys’ fees, incurred by the office holder as a result of an investigation or proceeding instituted against him or her by an authority authorized to conduct such investigation or proceeding, provided that (i) no indictment was filed against such office holder as a result of such investigation or proceeding and (ii) either (A) no financial liability was imposed upon him or her as a substitute for the criminal proceeding as a result of such investigation or proceeding or (B) if the financial liability was imposed, it was imposed with respect to an offense that does not require proof of criminal intent or in connection with financial sanction; and reasonable litigation expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by the office holder or imposed by a court in proceedings instituted against him or her by the company, on its behalf or by a third party or in connection with criminal proceedings in which the office holder was acquitted or in which the office holder was convicted of an offense that does not require proof of criminal intent.

In addition, pursuant to the Companies Law, we may undertake to indemnify an office holder retroactively.

Under the Companies Law, exemption, indemnification and insurance of office holders must be approved by our compensation committee and our board of directors and, in respect of our Chief Executive Officer and our directors, by our shareholders.

Our amended and restated articles of association allow us to indemnify and insure our office holders to the fullest extent permitted by the Companies Law and the Israeli Securities Law, 1968 (the "Securities Law"). In accordance with the Securities Law, we may not indemnify or insure our office holders for a proceeding instituted against such office holder pursuant to the provisions of Chapters H'3, H'4 and I'1 under the Securities Law. In accordance with our amended and restated articles of association we may also insure and undertake to indemnify our office holders, subject to the provisions of the Companies Law and the Securities Law, for (a) expenses, including reasonable litigation expenses and legal fees, incurred by our office holders as a result of a proceeding instituted against them in relation to (1) infringements that may impose financial sanction pursuant to the provisions of Chapter H'3 under the Securities Law or (2) administrative infringements pursuant to the provisions of Chapter H'4 under the Securities Law or (3) infringements pursuant to the provisions of Chapter I'1 under the Securities Law, (b) payments made to injured parties of such infringement under Section 52ND(a)(1)(a) of the Securities Law and (c) expenses, including reasonable litigation expenses and legal fees, incurred by our office holders as a result of a proceeding instituted against them under the Israeli Restrictive Trade Practices Law, 5748-1988, all in respect of actions taken by them in their capacity as directors or office holders of the Company or their capacity as directors or office holders of any other subsidiary of the Company.

In addition, we have entered into agreements with each of our office holders undertaking to indemnify them to the fullest extent permitted by law and to indemnify venture capital funds that are or were affiliated with or represented by such office holders party to such agreements. Indemnification with respect to financial obligation incurred by the office holder as a result of judgments, settlements or arbitrators' awards approved by a court is limited to an amount or criteria determined by the board of directors as reasonable under the circumstances, and to events determined as foreseeable by our board of directors based on the company's activities. Insurance is subject to our discretion depending on its availability, effectiveness and cost.

Item 9. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act; To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective Registration Statement; and
 - (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;
- Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the Registration Statement is on Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

- That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment
- (2) shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
 - (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the Registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-8 and has duly caused this Registration Statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Sunnyvale, California on July 26, 2018.
