Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On June 27, 2018, Cesca Therapeutics Inc. (the “Company”) received a letter from The Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”) indicating that the Company is required to maintain a minimum bid price of $1 per share. The Company’s closing bid price has been less than $1 for the last 30 consecutive business days. As such, the Company is not compliant with the minimum bid price requirement under Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2).

The letter from Nasdaq provides the Company with a compliance period of 180 calendar days, or until December 24, 2018, to regain compliance with the minimum bid price requirement. If at any time during this 180 day compliance period the closing bid price of the Company’s stock is at least $1 for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days, then Nasdaq will provide the Company with written confirmation of compliance and the matter will be closed.

If compliance cannot be demonstrated by December 24, 2018, the Company may be eligible for additional time. To qualify, the Company will be required to meet the continued listing requirement for market value of publicly held shares and all other initial listing standards on the Capital Market (except the bid price requirement), and will need to provide written notice of its intention to cure the deficiency during the second compliance period. The notice states that, if the Company meets these standards, then the Company may be eligible to have an additional 180 calendar day compliance period. If the Company is not granted an additional 180 day calendar period, then NASDAQ will provide written notification that the Company’s securities will be subject to delisting. At that time, the Company may appeal the determination to delist its securities to a Hearings Panel. There can be no assurance that the Company will regain compliance or otherwise maintain compliance with the other listing requirements.

Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

The Company held its annual meeting of stockholders on June 22, 2018 (the “Annual Meeting”).
