Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On August 25, 2015, Northfield Bancorp, Inc. (“Northfield Bancorp”) and its wholly owned subsidiary, Northfield Bank, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Hopewell Valley Community Bank (“Hopewell Valley”), pursuant to which Hopewell Valley will be merged with and into Northfield Bank, with Northfield Bank as the surviving entity.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the merger, each share of Hopewell Valley common stock (including Hopewell Valley Series A preferred stock that will be deemed converted into Hopewell Valley common stock at a rate of 1.55-to-one) will, at the election of the shareholder, be converted into the right to receive either $14.50 in cash or 0.9592 shares of Northfield Bancorp common stock in exchange for each share of Hopewell Valley held by them, subject to proration procedures so that 75% of the outstanding Hopewell Valley common shares is converted into Northfield Bancorp common stock and the balance is converted into the cash consideration.

The transaction has been approved by the Board of Directors of each entity and is expected to close in the first quarter of 2016. Completion of the merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals and the approval of Hopewell Valley’s shareholders. In addition, the closing of the merger is conditioned on the receipt of approval from the U.S. Department of the Treasury for the redemption of the Series B preferred stock issued by Hopewell Valley pursuant to the Small Business Lending Fund, either through a cash payment or the issuance of replacement stock by Northfield Bancorp.

Following the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, Patrick L. Ryan, the Chairman of the Board of Hopewell Valley, will join each of Northfield Bancorp and Northfield Bank’s Board of Directors and James Hyman, Hopewell Valley’s President and CEO, will remain with Northfield as Regional President for the Hopewell Valley franchise.

The directors and executive officers of Hopewell Valley have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement at the shareholders’ meeting to be held to vote on the proposed transaction. If the merger is not consummated under certain circumstances, Hopewell Valley has agreed to pay Northfield Bancorp a termination fee of $2.0 million.

The Merger Agreement also contains usual and customary representations and warranties that Northfield Bancorp and Northfield Bank and Hopewell Valley made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between Northfield Bancorp, Northfield Bank and Hopewell Valley, and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, the representations and warranties are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from what may be viewed as material to shareholders, and the representations and warranties may have been used to allocate risk between Northfield Bancorp, Northfield Bank and Hopewell Valley rather than establishing matters as facts.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such document, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and that is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety. A copy of a press release dated August 26, 2015, announcing the merger is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
