INTRODUCTION

This Information Statement is being furnished pursuant to Section 14(f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) and Rule 14f-1 promulgated thereunder. This Information Statement is being provided solely for informational purposes and not in connection with a vote of the Company's shareholders.

This Information Statement is being mailed on or about January 24, 2013, to the shareholders of record of common stock of Bold Energy, Inc., a Nevada corporation (“we”, “us”, or the “Company”), as of the close of business on January 7, 2013 (the “Record Date”). You are receiving this Information Statement in connection with the resignation and appointment of certain persons that will change a majority of the Company’s Board of Directors pursuant to a change of control transaction as detailed herein.

SHARE EXCHANGE AGREEMENT

On November 12, 2012, the Company and its controlling stockholders entered into a Share Exchange Agreement (the “Share Exchange Agreement”) with Anio, Ltd., a limited liability company established under the laws of the United Kingdom, which conducts its primary line of business under the name Lot78, Inc. (“Lot78”) and the stockholders of Lot78 (the “Selling Stockholders”). Pursuant to the Share Exchange Agreement, the Company shall issue 30,954,388 new shares of its common stock, representing approximately 54.26% of the Company’s outstanding shares, to the Selling Stockholders in exchange for 100% of the currently issued and outstanding capital stock of Lot78. As a result of the Share Exchange Agreement, Lot78 shall become the Company’s wholly-owned subsidiary, and the Company shall acquire the business and operations of Lot78. The Share Exchange Agreement will close on or after February 4, 2013, but no sooner than ten (10) days following the filing of this Information Statement with the Commission and the mailing of this Information Statement to our shareholders of record (the “Closing”).

Pursuant to the Share Exchange Agreement, the following changes to our Executive Officers and Board of Directors shall occur on or prior to the Closing:

Eden Clark, the Company’s current sole officer and director, shall tender her resignation from all positions held with the Company; and Oliver Amhurst shall be appointed as the Company’s sole officer and director.

Concurrent with the Closing of the Share Exchange Agreement, the Company’s Board of Directors, having received the written consent of shareholders holding a majority of the Company’s outstanding shares of common stock, approved: (i) an amendment to the Company’s Articles of Incorporation to change the Company’s name from Bold Energy, Inc. to Lot78, Inc. (the “Corporate Name Change”); and (ii) a change to the Company’s OTC trading symbol from BOLD to LOTO, or if unavailable, to LOTT or LOTE (the “Symbol Change”). Nevada corporate law permits holders of a majority of the voting power to take shareholder action by written consent. Accordingly, the Company will not hold a meeting of its shareholders to consider or vote upon the Corporate Name Change or Symbol Change as described in this Information Statement. The Corporate Name Change and Symbol Change will not become effective until at least (10) days following the filing of this Information Statement with the Commission and the mailing of this Information Statement to our shareholders of record.

CHANGES TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

As of the date of this Information Statement, the Board of Directors consists of only one director, Eden Clark. Pursuant to the Share Exchange Agreement, on or prior to the Closing, Eden Clark shall tender her resignation as a member of the Board of Directors and Oliver Amhurst shall be appointed as the sole member of the Board of Directors and shall serve as a Director of the Company until his successor is duly elected and qualified or until the next annual meeting of the Company's shareholders.

CORPORATE NAME CHANGE AND SYMBOL CHANGE

The Board of Directors of the Company, having received the written consent of the Company's majority shareholders, approved (i) an amendment to the Company's Articles of Incorporation to change the Company's name from Bold Energy, Inc. to Lot78, Inc.; and (ii) a change in the Company's OTC trading symbol from BOLD to LOTO, or if unavailable, to LOTT or LOTE. The Corporate Name Change and Symbol Change have been approved by the Board of Directors and majority shareholders of the Company because the new name and symbol better represent the Company's new business focus resulting from the Company's acquisition of Lot78 and its business and operations.

The Company intends to file a Certificate of Amendment to its Articles of Incorporation (the "Amendment") with the Secretary of State of Nevada to effectuate the Corporate Name Change no sooner than ten (10) days following the filing of this Information Statement with the Commission and the mailing of this Information Statement to our shareholders of record.

Certificates for the Company's common stock that recite the name Bold Energy, Inc. will continue to represent shares in the Company after the Corporate Name Change has become effective. If, however, a shareholder wishes to acquire a certificate reciting the name Lot78, Inc. after the effectiveness of the Corporate Name Change, the shareholder may do so by surrendering its certificate to the Company's transfer agent with a request for a replacement certificate and the appropriate stock transfer fee.

The Company's transfer agent is:

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires our directors and executive officers and persons who beneficially own more than ten percent of a registered class of our equity securities to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of change in ownership of common stock and other equity securities of the Company. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely upon a review of Forms 3 and 4 and amendments thereto furnished to us under Rule 16a-3(e) during the year ended July 31, 2012, Forms 5 and any amendments thereto furnished to us with respect to the year ended July 31, 2012, and the representations made by the reporting persons to us, we believe that during the year ended July 31, 2012, our executive officers and directors and all persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of our equity securities complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements.

Code of Ethics

We have adopted an informal Code of Ethics that applies to our officers and directors, which we feel is sufficient at this time given that we are still in the start-up, development stage and have no employees other than our officers and directors.

Committees of the Board of Directors

We do not presently have a separately designated standing audit committee, compensation committee, nominating committee, executive committee or any other committees of our Board of Directors. The functions of those committees are currently undertaken by our Board of Directors. Because we have only one director, we believe that the creation of these committees, at this time, would be cumbersome and constitute more form over substance.

Audit Committee

We have not established a separately designated standing audit committee nor do we have an audit committee financial expert serving on our Board of Directors. However, the Company intends to establish a new audit committee of the Board of Directors that shall consist of independent directors. The audit committee's duties will be to recommend to the Company's board of directors the engagement of an independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's financial statements and to review the Company's accounting and auditing principles. The audit committee will review the scope, timing and fees for the annual audit and the results of audit examinations performed by the internal auditors and independent registered public accounting firm, including their recommendations to improve the system of accounting and internal controls. The audit committee shall at all times be composed exclusively of directors who are, in the opinion of the Company's board of directors, free from any relationship which would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a committee member and who possess an understanding of financial statements and generally accepted accounting principles.

Related Party Transactions and Director Independence

Currently, there are no contemplated transactions that the Company may enter into with our current or incoming officers, directors or affiliates. If any such transactions are contemplated, we will file such disclosure in a timely manner with the Commission on the proper form so that any such transaction is available for the public to view.

The Company has no formal written employment agreement or other contracts with our current or incoming officers and directors and there is no assurance that the services to be provided by them will be available for any specific length of time in the future. The amounts of compensation and other terms of any full time employment arrangements would be determined, if and when, such arrangements become necessary.

For purposes of determining director independence, we have applied the definitions set out in NASDAQ Rule 5605(a)(2). The OTCBB on which shares of our common stock are quoted does not have any director independence requirements. The NASDAQ definition of "Independent Director" means a person other than an Executive Officer or employee of the Company or any other individual having a relationship which, in the opinion of the Company's Board of Directors, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director.

According to the NASDAQ definition, Eden Clark is not an independent director because she is also an executive officer of the Company. Further, our incoming director, Oliver Amhurst, will not be an independent director because he will also serve as an executive officer of the Company.

Review, Approval or Ratification of Transactions with Related Persons

We are a smaller reporting company as defined by Rule 12b-2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and are not required to provide the information under this item.

Board Leadership Structure and Role in Risk Oversight

We have not adopted a formal policy on whether the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer positions should be separated or combined, however, we have traditionally determined that, due to the small size of the Company and the nature of its operations, it is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders to combine these roles.

Our Board of Directors is primarily responsible for overseeing our risk management processes. The Board of Directors receives and reviews periodic reports from management, auditors, legal counsel, and others, as considered appropriate regarding our Company's assessment of risks. The Board of Directors focuses on the most significant risks facing our Company and our Company's general risk management strategy, and also ensures that risks undertaken by our Company are consistent with the Board's tolerance for risk. While the Board oversees our Company, our Company's management is responsible for day-to-day risk management processes. We believe this structure is the most effective approach for addressing the risks facing our Company and that our Board leadership structure supports this approach.

Board Meetings and Committees; Annual Meeting Attendance

The Board of Directors held a total of three general meetings during the Company's last fiscal year ended July 31, 2012. No director attended fewer than 100% of all meetings of the Board of Directors during this period. The Company has no committees. We do not have a formal policy regarding attendance by Directors at annual meetings of shareholders.

Shareholder Communications

The Board of Directors encourages shareholders to send communications to the Board or to individual members of the Board. Such communications, whether by letter, e-mail or telephone, should be directed to the Chairman of the Company, who will forward them to the intended recipients. However, unsolicited advertisements or invitations to conferences or promotional material, in the discretion of the Chairman or the Chairman's designee, may not be forwarded to the directors.

If a shareholder wishes to communicate to the Board about a concern relating to the Company's financial statements, accounting practices or internal controls, the concern should be submitted in writing to the Board in care of the Chairman at the Company's headquarters. If the concern relates to the Company's governance practices, business ethics or corporate conduct, the concern likewise should be submitted in writing to the Chairman at the Company's headquarters address. If the shareholder is unsure as to which category his or her concern relates, he or she may communicate it to any one of the directors in care of the Company's Secretary. The Company's "whistleblower" policy prohibits the Company or any of its employees from retaliating or taking any adverse action against anyone for raising a concern. If a shareholder or employee nonetheless prefers to raise his or her concern in a confidential or anonymous manner, the concern may be directed to the Chairman at the Company's headquarters.

Shareholders who wish to contact our Board members either individually or as a group may do so by writing to c/o Corporate Secretary, Bold Energy, Inc., 112 North Curry Street, Carson City, Nevada 89703, or by telephone at (775) 333-1198 specifying whether the communication is directed to the entire Board or to a particular director. Shareholder letters are screened by Company personnel to filter out improper or irrelevant topics, such as solicitations, and to confirm that such communications relate to matters that are within the scope of responsibilities of the Board or a Committee.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

We know of no material, existing or pending legal proceedings against our Company, nor are we involved as a plaintiff in any material proceeding or pending litigation. There are no proceedings in which our current or incoming directors, officers or any affiliates, or any registered or beneficial shareholder, is an adverse party or has a material interest adverse to our interest.
