Item 4. Description of Securities.

This Registration Statement registers the issuance by the Registrant of up to 15,000,000 shares of Class 1 Common Stock, $0.01 par value per share ("Class 1 Stock"), pursuant to the Registrant's Long-Term Stock Incentive Plan, amended and restated as of December 6, 2007 (the "Plan"). The material terms of the Class 1 Stock are set forth below.

Voting

The shares of Class 1 Stock do not generally have voting rights. Holders of Class 1 Stock will not be entitled to vote except that such holders will be entitled to vote as a separate class on matters with respect to which a separate class vote of holders of Class 1 Stock is required by law and will be entitled to vote with respect to any increase or decrease in the number of shares of Class 1 Stock as a single class with the holders of the Registrant's Class A Stock, $.01 par value per share ("Class A Stock"), and Class B Stock, $.01 par value per share ("Class B Stock") (in which case the holders of Class 1 Stock and Class A Stock will be entitled to one (1) vote per share and the holders of Class B Stock will be entitled to ten (10) votes per share).

Dividends and Distributions

The shares of Class 1 Stock will not have any preference as to dividends, but may participate in any dividend when and if declared by the Company's Board of Directors. Cash dividends may be declared and paid with respect to Class A Stock without corresponding cash dividends being declared and paid with respect to Class 1 Stock, and if cash dividends are declared and paid on Class 1 Stock then cash dividends must be declared and paid on Class A Stock in an amount that is at least ten percent greater than the cash dividends declared and paid on Class 1 Stock. The cash dividends declared and paid on Class B Stock and Class 1 Stock must always be the same. Upon liquidation of the Registrant, holders of Class 1 Stock will share ratably on a per share basis in net assets to be distributed with respect to common stock together with holders of Class A Stock and Class B Stock.

Conversion

Each holder of a share of Class 1 Stock may, without cost to such holder and at the holder's option, convert shares of Class 1 Stock into shares of Class A Stock on a one-for-one basis; however, such conversion is permitted only if the holder immediately sells the Class A Stock acquired upon conversion in a market transaction or to an unrelated party in a bona fide private sale.

Other

Holders of Class 1 Stock will not have preemptive rights to purchase shares of the Registrant's capital stock. Shares of Class 1 Stock are not redeemable, and there will be no sinking fund provisions for shares of Class 1 Stock.

Item 5. Interest of Named Experts and Counsel.

James A. Locke III, Esq. serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the Registrant. Mr. Locke is a partner in the law firm Nixon Peabody LLP, which firm has rendered an opinion regarding the legality of the securities offered by this Registration Statement. As a member of the Registrant's Board of Directors, Mr. Locke is eligible to receive awards under the Plan. Mr. Locke presently owns, and has options to acquire, securities of the Registrant.

Certain other attorneys of Nixon Peabody LLP may also own shares of the Class A Stock into which the Class 1 Stock is convertible. A copy of the opinion of Nixon Peabody LLP is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The General Corporation Law of Delaware (Section 102) allows a corporation to eliminate the personal liability of directors of a corporation to the corporation or to any of its stockholders for monetary damage for a breach of his/her fiduciary duty as a director, except in the case where the director breached his/her duty of loyalty, failed to act in good faith, engaged in intentional misconduct or knowingly violated a law, authorized the payment of a dividend or approved a stock repurchase or redemption in violation of Delaware corporate law or obtained an improper personal benefit. The Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Registrant contains a provision which eliminates directors' personal liability as set forth above.

The General Corporation Law of Delaware (Section 145) gives Delaware corporations broad powers to indemnify their present and former directors and officers and those of affiliated corporations or other entities against expenses incurred in the defense of any lawsuit to which they are made parties by reason of being or having been such directors or officers, subject to specified conditions and exclusions; gives a director or officer who successfully defends an action the right to be so indemnified; authorizes the Registrant to advance expenses upon receipt of an undertaking by the person seeking indemnity to repay such amount if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification; and authorizes the Registrant to buy directors' and officers' liability insurance. Such indemnification is not exclusive of any other right to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or otherwise.

The Registrant's Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides for indemnification to the fullest extent authorized by Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware for current and former directors and officers of the Registrant and also to persons who are or were serving at the request of the Registrant as directors, officers, employees or agents of other entities (including subsidiaries); provided that, with respect to proceedings initiated by such indemnitee, indemnification shall be provided only if such proceedings were authorized by the Board of Directors. The right of indemnification is not exclusive of any other right which any person may acquire under any statute, bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or otherwise.

From time to time the Registrant has and will enter into agreements with underwriters for securities offerings which provide for indemnification of directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant for losses, claims, damages, or liabilities resulting from an untrue statement made in a registration statement in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Registrant by or on behalf of such underwriters for inclusion in the registration statement.

The Registrant maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance and a corporate reimbursement policy insuring directors and officers against loss arising from claims made arising out of the performance of their duties.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(h) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the provisions described in Item 6 of the Registration Statement, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the Registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all the requirements for filing on Form S-8, and has duly caused this Registration Statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the Town of Perinton, State of New York, on the 13th day of February, 2008.
