CSP Inc. Announces Delay in Filing of its Form 10-K Annual Report

BILLERICA, MA, January 16, 2007 - CSP Inc. (Nasdaq:CSPI), a provider of IT Solutions, systems integration services and dense cluster computing systems, announced today that it had been unable to complete and file its Annual Report on 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 by the extended due date, January 16, 2007. The Company filed a Form 12b-25 Notification of Late Filing on December 29, 2006. The Company has been working diligently to complete the financial statements and Form 10-K but has not been able to conclude its work by the extended due date. All remaining work is expected to be completed and the Form 10-k filed by the end of January 2007.

Safe Harbor

The Company wishes to take advantage of the "Safe Harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 with respect to statements that may be deemed to be forward-looking under the Act. Such forward-looking statements may include, but are not limited to, those relating to realigning the German MODCOMP workforce, growing the U.S. Systems and Solutions sales force, the prospects for the MultiComputer division, the timing of deliveries relating to the Raytheon contract, and the interest in the Company's FastCluster 3000 Series. The Company cautions that numerous factors could cause actual results to differ materially from any forward-looking statements made by the Company. Such risks include general economic conditions, market factors, competitive factors and pricing pressures, and others described in the Company's filings with the SEC. Please refer to the section on forward-looking statements included in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
