Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On October 20, 2014, Koss received a notice from NASDAQ stating that the Company had not met the NASDAQ Global Market listing requirement of maintaining a minimum market value of publicly held shares of $5,000,000 for the past 30 consecutive business days. As provided in the NASDAQ rules, the Company has 180 calendar days, or until April 20, 2015, to regain compliance with this requirement. NASDAQ noted that instead of continuing to comply with the Global Market listing requirements, the Company may apply to transfer its securities to the NASDAQ's Capital Market.

Management intends to apply to NASDAQ to move from the NASDAQ Global Market to the NASDAQ Capital Market during the current fiscal quarter, and estimates that the transfer could be effective as early as 10 business days from the date of application. Management believes that the Capital Market is more suited to smaller reporting companies such as Koss, and that by transferring, the Company could save additional costs in the future and would immediately satisfy the minimum Capital Market listing requirements.

On October 24, 2014, the Company issued a press release announcing the receipt of the notice from NASDAQ. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
