subsidiaries. The Company and each of its certain subsidiaries granted liens in substantially all of their personal property assets to secure their respective obligations under the New Credit Facility. Under certain circumstances, the Company and each of its certain subsidiaries will be required to grant liens in certain real property assets to secure their respective obligations under the New Credit Facility.

The New Credit Facility replaces a $175 million revolving credit facility which was due to expire March 31, 2003. Proceeds from the New Credit Facility at closing were used to repay the Company's old credit facility. Additional proceeds from the New Credit Facility will be used for general corporate purposes, including letters of credit, working capital, capital expenditures, and costs associated with the Company's recent acquisition of Qdoba Restaurant Corporation.

The Credit Agreement with respect to the New Credit Facility is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 and is incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Credit Agreement.
