INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

ITEM 8.01 Other Events.

On December 14, 2016, BOK Financial Corporation (“BOK Financial”) announced that the change in the fair value of its mortgage servicing rights (MSR), net of economic hedge, is expected to decrease fourth quarter pretax net income by approximately $17.4 million.

Since mid-year 2016 the company has maintained an MSR hedge position to reduce the impact of a 50 basis point decrease in long-term interest rates to within its board-approved risk tolerance levels. This hedge position increased exposure to an increase in long-term interest rates. Long-term interest rates have increased more than 80 basis points thus far in the fourth quarter, primarily due to the outcome of the presidential election. This has resulted in a $36.6 million increase in the fair value of the MSR, offset by a $54.0 million loss on the MSR hedge.

As of December 13, 2016, the company adjusted the MSR hedge position, effectively locking in the $17.4 million negative earnings impact and preventing further material losses from an increase or decrease in interest rates for the balance of the quarter.

Financial results for the fourth quarter 2016 will be released before market open on Wednesday, January 25, 2017.

The company does not anticipate any material variances from the financial assumptions for the quarter provided in its most recent earnings conference call.
