Roni Al-Dor, President and CEO, commented "We report our sixth consecutive quarter of operating profit. We also report approximately $400,000 positive cash flow from operations for the first quarter of 2008. We are now benefitting from our past activities to increase efficiencies at each of our subsidiaries. We have stabilized our ship and are sailing forward. We have increased our lead generation and face several promising opportunities that we expect will become signed agreement in 2008. Due to the devaluation of the US Dollar against the New Israeli Shekel, we had an increase in finance expenses which created an increase in our Net Loss."

Mr. Al-Dor added, "We thank our customers, our investors and our employees for the good news we report today. We believe that our positive trend will continue and that we will have more good news to report to you in the future."

Comment Regarding Non-GAAP

Sapiens' management believes that the presentation of non-GAAP measures can enhance the understanding of the company's ongoing economic performance, and provides useful information to investors regarding financial and business trends relating to the company's financial condition and results of operations. Sapiens therefore uses internally the non-GAAP information to evaluate and manage the Company's operations.

This non-GAAP financial measures are not in accordance with, or an alternative for, generally accepted accounting principles and may be different from non-GAAP financial measures used by other companies. In addition, these non-GAAP financial measures are not based on any comprehensive set of accounting rules or principles. Sapiens believes that non-GAAP financial measures have limitations in that they do not reflect all of the amounts associated with Sapiens' results of operations as determined in accordance with GAAP and that these measures should only be used to evaluate Sapiens' results of operations in conjunction with the corresponding GAAP measures.

Please refer to the Reconciliation of GAAP to Non-GAAP Results at the end of this release.
