Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

The information set forth in Item 8.01 below is incorporated by reference in this Item 5.07 as if fully set forth herein.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 30, 2012, Electromed, Inc. (the “Company”) held its 2013 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the “Annual Meeting”). Shareholders cast votes on the following three proposals, as described in the Company’s Proxy Statement:

- 1) To set the number of directors at six (6).

- 2) To elect the following six (6) director nominees named in the Proxy Statement: Stephen H. Craney, Dr. George H. Winn, Thomas M. Hagedorn, Craig N. Hansen, Darrel L. Kloeckner, and William V. Eckles.

- 3) To ratify the appointment of McGladrey LLP as the Company’s independent registered public accountant for the Company’s 2013 fiscal year.

At the Annual Meeting, a shareholder nominated two additional individuals for election to the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”): Dr. Ann M. Hoven and James Schollett.

On December 7, 2012, the Company instituted a lawsuit against the shareholder who nominated the two additional individuals for election to the Board at the Annual Meeting. The Company asserted that this shareholder violated the proxy solicitation rules in connection with the nomination and election of directors at the Annual Meeting. On September 23, 2013, the Company settled the litigation with the shareholder and entered into an agreement with her whereby she agreed to dismiss her claims with prejudice, to refrain from taking certain actions relating to the control of the Company for a period of three years from September 23, 2013 and to withdraw her nomination of two individuals for election to the Company’s board of directors, in addition to certain other agreements.

The shareholder subsequently withdrew the nominations of Dr. Ann M. Hoven and James Schollett and each of Dr. Ann M. Hoven and James Schollett revoked her or his consent to serve on the Board of the Company. As a result, the Company is now able to provide final voting results, as set forth below:
