ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS

In April 2008, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Office Depot, Inc. affirmed its commitment to pay-for-performance and transparency in executive compensation by announcing its intention to do the following for compensation awards made after the current fiscal year which ends December 31, 2008:

- At least 50% of the equity awards to the named executive officers as defined in the SEC rules will be performance-based equity awards that are earned or paid out based on the achievement of reasonable performance targets. The details of the performance criteria and the hurdle rates associated with the performance targets will be disclosed in the proxy statement for the annual meeting of stockholders. From this disclosure, stockholders will know the minimum level of performance required for any such performance-based equity grants to be earned or paid out.
- With respect to named executives officers annual cash bonus program and/or long- term incentive cash plan, the qualitative and quantitative performance criteria and hurdle rates used to determine the payouts of the cash program will be disclosed in the proxy statement for the annual meeting of stockholders. From this disclosure, stockholders will know the minimum level of performance required for any cash bonus to be paid to a named executive officer, as well as the maximum cash bonus payable to a named executive officer for superior performance.
