Edgar Filing: ESTEE LAUDER COMPANIES INC - Form 8-K

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Overnight Share Repurchase Agreement

On March 6, 2007, The Estee Lauder Companies Inc. ("the Company") entered into an "overnight share repurchase" agreement (the "Agreement") with Bank of America, N.A. ("Bank of America") to repurchase from Bank of America approximately $750 million of its outstanding shares of the Company's class A common stock (the "Class A Common Stock"). The accelerated repurchase is part of the Company's share repurchase program, which was last increased by 20 million shares, and previously disclosed in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K, filed on February 15, 2007.

Under the Agreement, the Company expects to purchase during the week ending March 9, 2007 approximately 16 million shares of its Class A Common Stock at a cost of approximately $750 million from Bank of America. The exact purchase price per share and number of shares to be delivered by Bank of America initially to the Company shall be fixed in accordance with the Agreement. It is expected that Bank of America will purchase an equivalent number of shares that it initially delivers to the Company over a period of the next several months. At the end of that period, the Company may receive from, or may be required to pay, Bank of America a settlement amount to be determined based on the volume weighted average price for the shares of Class A Common Stock during the period of Bank of America's purchases. Such payments received by the Company shall be settled in additional shares of Class A Common Stock. Such payments made by the Company may, at the Company's option, be settled in shares of Class A Common Stock or cash. The Company's obligation to pay in respect of two thirds of the initial shares delivered is subject to a cap. All of the shares repurchased under the Agreement will be placed into treasury.

In the ordinary course of its businesses, Bank of America or its affiliates have or may have various relationships with the Company and its subsidiaries involving the provision of a variety of financial services, including cash management, commercial banking, investment banking, advisory or other financial services, for which they received, or will receive, customary fees and expenses. In addition, the Company and its subsidiaries may have entered into interest rate and foreign exchange derivative arrangements with Bank of America or its affiliates.

The forward-looking statements in this current report, including those containing the words "may", "expect" or similar expressions, are based on the Company's current understandings. Actual actions, timing and results may differ materially from those forward-looking statements due to a number of factors, including the Company's future operating results and financial condition (see the "Forward-Looking Information" section of the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 31, 2006 for additional factors that could affect operating results and financial condition) and changes in the public equity and debt markets that could affect the terms upon which the overnight share repurchase is settled.

$400 Million Revolving Credit Agreement

Edgar Filing: ESTEE LAUDER COMPANIES INC - Form 8-K

On March 6, 2007, the Company entered into a credit agreement (the "Agreement") by and among the Company, Estee Lauder Inc., a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, the Eligible Subsidiaries of the Company, as defined therein (the "Eligible Subsidiaries"), the lenders listed therein (the "Lenders"), JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent ("JPMCB"), Bank of America N.A., as syndication agent, Citibank, N.A., as documentation agent and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and JPMCB, as joint bookrunners.

The Facility (as defined below) created by the Agreement is intended to supplement the Company's existing, and unused, $600 million revolving credit facility.

The Agreement provides for a 364-day revolving credit facility (the "Facility") to the Company and the Eligible Subsidiaries (collectively, the "Borrowers"), in the amount of $400,000,000, of which the entire amount is currently undrawn and available. The proceeds of the loans made under the Agreement will be used by each Borrower to provide credit support for such Borrower's commercial paper program, to fund the Company's share repurchase program and for general corporate purposes in the ordinary course of business of the Company and its subsidiaries, as shall be determined by the Company from time to time. The Facility commenced on March 6, 2007 and expires by its terms on March 4, 2008.

Estee Lauder Inc. will act as Guarantor with respect to the obligations of the Borrowers under the Agreement and the Company will act as Guarantor with respect to the obligations of the Borrowers under the Agreement, other than itself, each pursuant to the terms set forth in the Agreement.

Interest and fees payable under the Agreement shall be determined pursuant to the terms set forth in the Agreement.

The Agreement also contains certain affirmative, negative and financial covenants customary for facilities of this type, including, furnishing to Lenders periodic financial information of the Company and all reports, proxy statements and registration statements filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission; paying and discharging, at or before maturity, material obligations and liabilities; maintenance of corporate existence and ability to do business; limitations on ability to consolidate, merge or sell, lease or otherwise transfer all or substantially all assets; limitations on the incurrence of liens; limitations on the incurrence of debt by subsidiaries of the Company; and limitations on transactions with affiliates.

The Agreement also contains certain events of default customary for facilities of this type (with customary grace periods), including nonpayment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts when due; material inaccuracies of representations and warranties; violations of covenants; the occurrence of certain bankruptcy events; certain ERISA events; material judgments; changes of control; or the invalidity of the guaranty provided by the Guarantors. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, any outstanding loans under the Agreement may be accelerated and/or the Lenders' commitments may be terminated; provided however, that upon the occurrence of certain insolvency or bankruptcy related events of default, all amounts payable under the Agreement will automatically become immediately due and payable, and the Lenders' commitments will automatically terminate.

Edgar Filing: ESTEE LAUDER COMPANIES INC - Form 8-K

In the ordinary course of their respective businesses, one or more of the Lenders, or their affiliates, have or may have various relationships with the Company and its subsidiaries involving the provision of a variety of financial services, including cash management, commercial banking, investment banking, advisory or other financial services, for which they received, or will receive, customary fees and expenses. In addition, the Company and its subsidiaries may have entered into interest rate and foreign exchange derivative arrangements with one or more Lenders, or their affiliates.
