Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K (including the exhibit hereto) may contain certain estimates, statements of belief or judgment and assumptions that may be deemed to be “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and/or the “Bespeaks Caution” doctrine applied by the courts under the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. Such forward-looking statements are based on current plans, expectations, estimates, beliefs and judgments about the value of the assets of the Trust. Words such as “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “seeks,” “estimates” or variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future payments to holders of beneficial interests in the Trust (“Liquidating Trust Interests”) and are subject to risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict. These risks include, among other factors: (i) the Trust’s ability to obtain the approval of the Bankruptcy Court with respect to motions in the chapter 11 proceedings of WMI and WMI Investment Corp. (together with WMI, the “Debtors”) prosecuted by the Trust from time to time; (ii) the Trust’s ability to realize the expected value of the Trust’s assets (including the timing and amount thereof); (iii) the Trust’s ability to resolve disputed claims in its favor; (iv) where the Trust is successful in resolving disputed claims in its favor, there could be significant delay before any recovery is obtained with respect to such claims or any distribution can be made to the holders of Liquidating Trust Interests; (v) risks associated with any litigation and other claims that might be brought against the Debtors, or by or against the Trust, in the future during the anticipated initial three year term of the Trust (which term may be extended for up to an additional three years, subject to certain limited exceptions, with the approval of the Bankruptcy Court); (vi) the existence of different classes of Liquidating Trust Interests and the different distribution priorities of each class could give rise to occasions when the interests of the holders of different classes of Liquidating Trust Interests could diverge, conflict or appear to diverge or conflict; for example, operational and/or financial decisions by the trustee of the Liquidating Trust regarding the litigation or settlement of certain disputed claims could favor one class of holders of Liquidating Trust Interests over another, adversely affecting the distribution to that particular class of Liquidating Trust Interests; and (vii) there is no liquidity for the Liquidating Trust Interests, which are non-certificated and non-transferable, other than by will, intestate succession or operation of law.
