PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of FairMarket, Inc. ("FairMarket") for use at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of FairMarket to be held on Wednesday, May 22, 2002 at 3:00 p.m., local time, at the Goodwin Procter LLP Conference Center, Second Floor, Exchange Place, 53 State Street, Boston, Massachusetts, 02109, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof (the "Annual Meeting").

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying materials are being mailed on or about April , 2002 to holders of record of our common stock as of the record date for the meeting, March 28, 2002.

FairMarket's 2001 Annual Report to Shareholders, together with FairMarket's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001 (which includes FairMarket's consolidated financial statements), is being mailed to stockholders of FairMarket with this Proxy Statement. The Annual Report to Shareholders and the Annual Report on Form 10-K are not, however, part of the proxy solicitation material.

VOTING AND SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

At the Annual Meeting, stockholders will act upon the matters set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting, including the election of a Class II director. We are not aware of any other matters to be presented at the meeting other than those described in this Proxy Statement. If any other matters are properly presented at the meeting, proxies will be voted in accordance with the judgment of the proxy holders.

Stockholders entitled to vote; tabulation of votes. If our records show that you are a stockholder as of the close of business on March 28, 2002 (the record date for the meeting), you are entitled to receive notice of the Annual Meeting and to vote the shares of FairMarket's common stock that you held at the close of business on the record date. Each outstanding share of common stock entitles its holder to cast one vote for each matter to be voted upon.

Edgar Filing: FAIRMARKET INC - Form PRE 14A

All votes will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the meeting, who will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes, abstentions and "broker non-votes." "Broker non-votes" are shares represented at the meeting that are held by brokers or nominees as to which instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or persons entitled to vote those shares, and for which the brokers or nominees do not have discretionary voting power to vote those shares.

On March 28, 2002, there were 29,295,007 shares of our common stock outstanding, held by 207 stockholders of record.

Attending the Annual Meeting. All stockholders of record of shares of FairMarket's common stock at the close of business on the record date, or their designated proxies, may attend the Annual Meeting.

Quorum. The presence, in person or by proxy, of holders of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of FairMarket's common stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. As of the record date, there were shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Shares that reflect abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Voting your shares. Shares may be voted as described below.

Voting by proxy holders for shares registered directly in the name of the stockholder. If your shares are registered directly in your own name with our transfer agent, EquiServe Trust Company, then you are considered to be the "holder of record" of those shares. If you hold your shares in your own name as a holder of record, you may instruct the proxy holders named in the enclosed proxy card how to vote your shares by marking, signing, dating and mailing the proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. If you do not instruct the proxy holders named in the enclosed card how to vote your shares but you sign, date and return the proxy, your shares will be voted FOR the election of Rory J. Cowan, the Board of Directors' nominee for director.

Voting by proxy holders for shares registered in the name of a brokerage firm or bank. If your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee (in other words, in "street name"), you will receive instructions from your nominee that you must follow in order to have your shares voted.

Voting by mail. If you would like to vote by mail, please mark your proxy card, sign and date it, and return it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

Voting in person. If you are the stockholder of record and attend the Annual Meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person. "Street name" stockholders who wish to vote at the meeting will need to obtain a proxy form from their broker, bank or other nominee that holds their shares of record.

Voting by phone. If you are the stockholder of record and live in the United States or Canada, you may vote your proxy by following the "Vote by Phone" instructions on the enclosed proxy card. If your shares are held in street name, whether you may vote those shares telephonically will depend on your broker or other nominee's voting arrangements, and you should contact your broker or other nominee for that information if it does not appear on the voting form you receive from your broker or other nominee.

Voting by Internet. If you are the stockholder of record and have Internet access, you may vote your proxy from any location in the world by following the "Vote by Internet" instructions on the enclosed proxy card. If your shares are held in street name, whether you may vote those shares via the Internet will depend on your broker or other nominee's voting arrangements, and you should contact your broker or other nominee for that information if it does not appear on the voting form you receive from your broker or other nominee.

Revoking and changing a proxy. You may revoke or change your proxy at any time before it has been exercised by:

delivering a written revocation to the Secretary of FairMarket at our principal executive offices;

delivering another signed proxy bearing a later date; or attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Edgar Filing: FAIRMARKET INC - Form PRE 14A

Any stockholder of record as of the record date who attends the Annual Meeting may vote in person whether or not the stockholder has previously delivered a proxy, but the presence (without further action) of a stockholder at the Annual Meeting will not constitute a revocation of a previously delivered proxy.

Solicitation of Proxies. This solicitation of proxies for use at the Annual Meeting is being made by the Board of Directors of FairMarket. The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by FairMarket. If you choose to vote over the Internet, however, you are responsible for Internet access charges you may incur. FairMarket will reimburse its transfer agent for charges and expenses in connection with the distribution of proxy materials to brokers or other persons holding shares in their names or in the names of their nominees and for charges and expenses in forwarding proxies and proxy materials to the beneficial owners of those shares. FairMarket has retained Morrow & Co., Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the Annual Meeting, at a cost to FairMarket of approximately $ plus reimbursement of reasonable expenses. Solicitations may also be made by officers and regular employees of FairMarket, without additional compensation, by use of the mails, personal interview, telephone or facsimile.

PROPOSAL TO ELECT A CLASS II DIRECTOR

The number of directors making up FairMarket's Board of Directors is currently fixed at four and we currently have four directors serving. Our Board is divided into three classes, consisting of two Class I directors, whose terms of office continue until the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders, one Class II director, whose term of office expires at the Annual Meeting, and one Class III director, whose term of office continues until the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders. At each annual meeting of stockholders, a class of directors will be elected for a three-year term to succeed the directors of the same class whose terms are then expiring. At the Annual Meeting, one Class II director will be elected to serve until the 2005 annual meeting of stockholders, or until the director's successor is duly elected and qualified.

Our Board of Directors has nominated Rory Cowan to serve as the Class II director. Mr. Cowan is currently serving as the sole Class II director of FairMarket. Our Board of Directors anticipates that its nominee will serve, if elected, as a director. However, if any person nominated by our Board of Directors is unable to accept election, proxies will be voted for the election of such other person or persons as our Board of Directors may recommend.

Vote Required. The affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of a director. Votes may be cast for or withheld from any nominee. Votes cast for a nominee will count as "yes votes." Abstentions and broker non-votes will be excluded entirely from the vote and will have no effect.

Recommendation. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF FAIRMARKET UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR ITS NOMINEE, RORY COWAN. PROXIES SOLICITED BY THE BOARD WILL BE VOTED FOR THIS NOMINEE UNLESS INSTRUCTIONS TO WITHHOLD OR TO THE CONTRARY ARE GIVEN.

All of the options listed in this table were granted under FairMarket's 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, which provides that upon certain "sale events" involving FairMarket, if provision is not made for appropriate substitution or adjustment of outstanding stock options, the options will automatically become fully vested. The vesting of these options (other than the options granted in August 2001) is also subject to acceleration under the agreements described under "Severance and Change of Control Agreements" below.

- (2) Potential Realizable Value is the value of the granted options, based on the assumed annual growth rates of the share price shown during the option term. For example, a 5% growth rate, compounded annually, for Mr. Shipley's 50,000 share option grant, with its $2.0625 per share exercise price and 10-year option term, results in a share price of $3.36 per share, and a 10% growth rate, compounded annually, for that grant results in a share price of $5.35 per share. These potential realizable values are listed to comply with the regulations of the SEC, and FairMarket cannot predict whether these values will be achieved. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises are dependent on the future performance of FairMarket's common stock.
- (3) Option vests in full on January 17, 2005. Option was granted under an executive incentive option program, under which the option was subject to acceleration by 100% if each of two financial targets for 2001 were met, which targets were not met.
- (4) Option vests in full on August 28, 2004. Under the Transaction Bonus Plan described under "Severance and Change of Control Agreements" below, which terminates on August 28, 2002, each option is subject to acceleration by 100% upon the closing of a qualifying "transaction" (as defined in that Plan).
- (5) Does not include options granted to Mr. Krish during 2001 before his election as Interim Chief Executive Officer. The options granted to Mr. Krish prior to that time, in his former capacity as a non-employee director, are described above under "Director Compensation."
- (6) Option was granted in connection with the election of Mr. Krish as Interim Chief Executive Officer. Option vested in equal monthly installments over a six-month period, such that the option was vested in full as of January 20, 2002.
- (7) Such options terminated in full in March 2002 in connection with the termination of Mr. Meyer's employment with FairMarket.
- (8) In connection with the termination of Mr. Randall's employment with FairMarket in June 2001, (a) the option to purchase 50,000 shares described in footnote (3) above terminated in full on the date of termination and (b) the vesting of the option to purchase 50,000 shares described in footnote (9) below and of the option to purchase 100,000 shares was accelerated in full on the date of termination and the exerciseability of these options was extended to December 29, 2002, on which date those options will expire.
- (9) Option vests over a four-year period. Option was granted under an executive retention option program, under which the option was subject to acceleration by 50% if each of two financial targets for 2001 were met, which targets were not met.
- (10) In connection with the termination of Ms. Rudden's employment with FairMarket in May 2001, (a) the option to purchase 50,000 described in footnote (3) above terminated in full on the date of termination and (b) the vesting of 112,500 of the shares under the option to purchase 225,000 shares described in footnote (9) above was accelerated as of the date of termination and the exerciseability of this option was extended to November 14, 2002, on which date this option will expire.
- (11) Option vests over a four-year period and expires 10 years from the date of grant.
- (12) Option was granted in connection with the election of Ms. Smith as Interim President. One-half of this option vested on the date of grant and the remainder vested on September 14, 2001.

The following table sets forth the number of shares of our common stock covered by all stock options held by the Named Executive Officers as of December 31, 2001. The value of unexercised in-the-money options is based on the closing price of our common stock as reported by Nasdaq on December 31, 2001, minus the exercise price, multiplied by the number of shares underlying the options.

Severance and Change of Control Agreements

Severance Agreements. FairMarket and each of Messrs. Ackley, Meyer and Shipley and Ms. Smith are parties to an amended severance agreement dated as of October 11, 2001. These agreements provide that if the officer's employment with FairMarket is terminated other than "for cause" (as defined in the severance agreements) or if the officer terminates their employment with FairMarket for "good reason" (as defined in the severance agreements) during the two-year period following the occurrence of a "change of control" (as defined in the severance agreements), then (a) all outstanding options held by that person (including those listed above under "Option Grants in Fiscal Year 2001," other than the options granted in August 2001) will accelerate in full upon such termination and (b) FairMarket will pay that person a lump-sum cash amount equal to the greater of (1) the sum of that person's annual base salary as of the termination date plus their target bonus (defined as 25% of that person's annual base salary for Messrs. Ackley and Meyer and Ms. Smith and as $50,000 for Mr. Shipley) or (2) the sum of the base salary paid or payable to that person during the 12 months preceding the termination date plus the total of the bonuses paid to or payable to that person with respect to the preceding four quarters. The agreement with Ms. Smith also provides that if her employment with FairMarket is terminated other than "for cause" or she terminates her employment with FairMarket for "good reason," in each case other than during the two-year period following the occurrence of a "change of control," then (a) all outstanding options held by her (including those listed above under "Options Grants in Fiscal Year 2001," other than the option granted to her in August 2001) will accelerate by one year and (b) FairMarket will continue to pay Ms. Smith her base salary for six months following her termination date.

In May 2001, FairMarket and Ms. Rudden entered into an amended severance agreement in connection with the termination of her employment with FairMarket, which provided for the following: (a) the payment to her of an amount equal to one year of her base salary in one lump sum; and

(b) the acceleration of the vesting of a portion of one of the options granted to her on January 17, 2001 as described above under "Option Grants in Fiscal Year 2001," the acceleration of the vesting of 337,500 of the shares under the option covering 900,000 shares that was granted to her in September 2000, and the extension of the period during which such stock options (to the extent vested on her termination date) will remain exercisable to November 14, 2002.

In June 2001, FairMarket and Mr. Randall entered into an amended severance agreement in connection with the termination of his employment, which provided for the following: (a) the payment to him of an amount equal to one year of his base salary in one lump sum; and (b) the acceleration of the vesting of a portion of one of the options granted to him on January 17, 2001 and the acceleration in full of the option granted to him on April 3, 2001 as described above under "Option Grants in Fiscal Year 2001," the acceleration of 62,500 of the shares under the option covering 250,000 shares that was granted to him in February 2000, and the extension of the period during which such stock options (to the extent vested on his termination date) will remain exercisable to December 29, 2002.

In January 2002, FairMarket entered into a severance agreement with Mr. Krish which provides that if Mr. Krish's employment with FairMarket is terminated other than "for cause" (as defined in that severance agreement) or if he terminates his employment with FairMarket for "good reason" (as defined in that severance agreement) during the one-year period following the occurrence of a "change of control" (as defined in that severance agreement), then (a) all outstanding options held by him (including those listed above under "Option Grants in Fiscal Year 2001" and all other options granted to him to date) will accelerate in full upon such termination and (b) FairMarket will pay him a lump-sum cash amount equal to one year of his base salary plus one year's target bonus. This agreement also provides that if Mr. Krish's employment with FairMarket is terminated other than "for cause" or if he terminates his employment with FairMarket for "good reason," in each case other than during the one-year period following the occurrence of a "change of control," then (a) all outstanding options held by him (including those listed above under "Options Grants in Fiscal Year 2001," other than the option granted to him in August 2001) will accelerate by one year and (b) FairMarket will continue to pay him his base salary for eight months following his termination date.

Each of the agreements described also prohibits the executive from competing with FairMarket and its affiliates or soliciting any employee of FairMarket or its affiliates for a period of one year following termination of the executive's employment with FairMarket.

Transaction Bonus Plan. In August 2001, the Board of Directors adopted a Transaction Bonus Plan under which each of our executive officers was granted a stock option on August 28, 2001 as described above under "Option Grants in Fiscal Year 2001," each of which is subject to acceleration by 100% upon the closing of a qualifying "transaction" (as defined in this Plan). This Plan terminates on August 28, 2002.

Report of the Board of Directors and the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing and recommending to the Board of Directors the amount and type of consideration to be paid to senior management, administering FairMarket's stock option and employee stock purchase plans and establishing and reviewing general policies relating to compensation and benefits of employees. During 2001, the Compensation Committee consisted of: Messrs. Krish and Pallan (a former director of FairMarket) from January until March 21, 2001; Messrs. Cowan, Krish and Pallan from March 21 until May 14, 2001; and Messrs. Cowan and Krish from May 14, 2001. During 2001, the Compensation Committee consisted solely of independent directors until Mr. Krish's election as Interim Chief Executive Officer in July 2001. For the year ended December 31, 2001, FairMarket's executive compensation program was administered either by the full Board of Directors or, until July 2001, by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Krish's compensation as Interim Chief Executive Officer was determined by the Board of Directors. None of the persons who served as Chief Executive Officer during 2001 participated in deliberations by the Board or the Compensation Committee regarding their individual compensation for 2001.

The goals of FairMarket's compensation program are to align compensation with business objectives and performance, to enable FairMarket to attract, retain and reward executive officers and other employees who contribute to FairMarket's long-term success and to motivate those officers and employees to enhance long-term stockholder value. The compensation of FairMarket's officers and employees consists of an annual base salary, short-term performance incentives in the form of cash bonuses and long-term performance incentives in the form of stock options. FairMarket has in the past and continues to emphasize the award of stock options in its executive compensation policy and believes that in the highly competitive, evolving markets in which FairMarket operates, equity-based compensation provides the greatest incentive for outstanding executive performance and encourages the greatest alignment of management and stockholder long-term interests.

Base Salary. The initial annual base salary for executive officers hired by FairMarket during 2001 was reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors. When reviewing those base salaries, the Board has considered level of responsibility, breadth of knowledge and prior experience as well as publicly available compensation information and informal survey information obtained by FairMarket's management with respect to other companies in the Internet industry. The relative importance of these factors varies, depending on the particular individual whose salary is being reviewed. The Board has not determined it necessary to specifically analyze compensation levels at companies included in the index under the caption "Performance Graph." For 2001, in light of economic conditions during the third and fourth quarters of 2001 and FairMarket's August 2001 workforce reduction, it was determined that it would not be appropriate to effect any salary increase for any executive officers for that year.

Bonuses. During 2001, FairMarket's executive officers were eligible to receive a quarterly cash bonus of up to either a specified percentage of their quarterly base salary or a specified dollar amount based on the extent to which business and individual performance objectives, approved by the Compensation Committee for each such person, were achieved. These objectives consisted of operating, strategic and/or financial goals that are considered to be important to FairMarket's fundamental long-term goal of building stockholder value. Cash bonuses were paid to executive officers for the first two quarters of 2001, based on the extent to which officers achieved their objectives, as approved by the Compensation Committee. In light of economic conditions during the third and fourth quarters of 2001 and FairMarket's August 2001 workforce reduction, it was determined that it would not be appropriate to pay bonuses to FairMarket's executive officers for those two quarters.

Stock Options. FairMarket's equity incentive plans are designed to provide its employees with an opportunity to share, along with its stockholders, in FairMarket's long-term performance. Initial grants of stock options are generally made to employees upon commencement of employment, with additional grants being made to certain employees following a significant change in job responsibility, scope or title. Options granted under FairMarket's standard stock option program generally vest over a four-year period and expire 10 years from the date of grant. The exercise price of the options is usually 100% of the fair market value of FairMarket's common stock on the date of grant.

The number of shares of FairMarket's common stock covered by options granted to new employees other than executive officers is generally determined based on a schedule of option grant ranges for each job level, as approved by the Board of Directors. These ranges take into account publicly available compensation information and informal survey information obtained by FairMarket's management with respect to other companies in the Internet industry. The number of shares of FairMarket's common stock covered by options granted to new executive officers is determined on an individual basis taking into account the same factors as are considered in establishing the officers' initial base salary, as described above. Follow-on option grants to employees are based upon a number of factors, including performance of the individual, job level, potential, and past option grants.

In January 2001, the Compensation Committee granted each executive officer an option to purchase 50,000 shares of FairMarket's common stock under an executive incentive option program, under which each option was subject to acceleration by 100% if each of two financial targets for 2001 were met, which targets were not met. Each option vests in full on the four-year anniversary of the date of grant and has a term of 10 years. Also in January 2001, the Compensation Committee granted an executive retention option to each of Mr. Randall, Ms. Rudden and two other executive officers covering 50,000, 225,000, 75,000 and 50,000 shares, respectively, of FairMarket's common stock. Each of these options was subject to acceleration by 50% if each of two financial targets for 2001 were met, which targets were not met. Each option vests over a four-year period and has a term of 10 years. The terms of each of these option programs were determined by the Board of Directors based on a study by independent compensation consultants and were approved by the Board.

In August 2001, the Board of Directors adopted a Transaction Bonus Plan in order to further incent certain of FairMarket's executive officers to maximize shareholder value in the event of a "transaction" (as defined in this Plan). Under this Plan, on August 28, 2001 the Board of Directors granted each of Messrs. Ackley, Meyer and Shipley and Ms. Smith an option to purchase 80,000 shares of FairMarket's common stock, and granted Mr. Krish an option to purchase 160,000 shares of FairMarket's common stock, each of which options is subject to acceleration by 100% in the event of such a transaction. This Plan also provides for the payment, to each executive officer then in office, of a transaction bonus upon the consummation of such a transaction, with the amount of the bonus varying based on the total equity value of the transaction (but not to exceed $750,000 in total). This Plan terminates on August 28, 2002. The terms of this Plan were determined by the Board based on a study by independent compensation consultants.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. For 2001, Eileen Rudden, who served as President and Chief Executive Officer of FairMarket through May 14, 2001, continued to receive an annual base salary at the same rate of $200,000 per year as was established for Ms. Rudden upon her election to those offices in September 2000. The Compensation Committee approved the payment to Ms. Rudden of a bonus for the first quarter of 2001 in the amount of $20,313, which represented a portion of her target bonus and was based on the percentage attainment of certain business and individual performance objectives for that quarter, which objectives included, for example, a reduction of FairMarket's operating loss for that quarter and the completion of FairMarket's execution of an API license with eBay Inc. and the implementation of FairMarket's related MarketSelect product offering. As described above under "Stock Options," in January 2001 the Compensation Committee also granted Ms. Rudden an option to purchase 50,000 shares under the executive incentive option program described above and an option to purchase 225,000 shares of FairMarket's common stock as an executive retention grant as described above. The terms of these option programs, including the number of shares subject to each of these options grants, were determined by the Board based on a study by independent compensation consultants.

Ms. Smith was elected in January 2001 as Chief Financial Officer. Upon the termination of Ms. Rudden's employment with FairMarket in May 2001, Ms. Smith was elected as Interim President of FairMarket. Ms. Smith did not receive any increase in her base compensation (which was established in January 2001 in connection with her election as Chief Financial Officer) related to her election as Interim President. In consideration of her additional responsibilities in connection with her election as Interim President, the Board of Directors approved the payment to Ms. Smith of a special cash bonus in the amount of $15,000, in addition to the bonuses paid to her under FairMarket's executive bonus plan in her capacity as Chief Financial Officer.

In July 2001, in connection with his appointment as Interim Chief Executive Officer of FairMarket for a six-month term, the Board determined that Mr. Krish be paid a salary at the rate of $175,000 for his six-month term as Interim Chief Executive Officer and set a target six-month cash bonus for Mr. Krish at $50,000, with the actual amount of the bonus to be paid to Mr. Krish to be based on the attainment of performance measures. Also in connection with his election as Interim Chief Executive Officer, the Board granted Mr. Krish an option to purchase 128,000 shares of FairMarket's common stock. This option vested in equal monthly installments over a six-month period, such that the option was vested in full as of January 20, 2002. In August 2001, Mr. Krish was granted an option to purchase 160,000 shares of FairMarket's common stock under the Transaction Bonus Plan described above.

Deductibility of Executive Compensation. Compensation payments in excess of $1 million to the chief executive officer or the other four most highly compensated executive officers are subject to a limitation on deductibility for FairMarket under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Certain performance-based compensation is not subject to the limitation on deductibility. The Compensation Committee does not expect cash compensation in 2002 to its chief executive officer or any other executive officer to be in excess of $1 million. FairMarket intends to maintain qualification of its applicable stock option plans for the performance-based exception to the $1 million limitation on deductibility of compensation payments.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

For the year ended December 31, 2001, FairMarket's executive compensation program was administered either by the full Board of Directors or, until July 2001, by the Compensation Committee. Neither Mr. Cowan nor Mr. Pallan (a former director of FairMarket), each of whom served as a member of our Compensation Committee during 2001, has ever been an officer or employee of FairMarket. Mr. Krish also served on the Compensation Committee during 2001. Mr. Krish was elected as Interim Chief Executive Officer of FairMarket in July 2001, following which our executive compensation program was administered by our Board of Directors rather than the Compensation Committee. None of our executive officers serves as a member of the board of directors or compensation committee of any entity that has one or more executive officers serving on our Board of Directors or Compensation Committee.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED PARTIES

Scott Randall, who beneficially owns approximately 13.0% of our outstanding common stock as of March 18, 2002, resigned as an officer of FairMarket in June 2001 and as a director in February 2002. Mr. Randall received specified payments in connection with the termination of his employment as an officer of FairMarket which are described above under "Compensation of Directors and Executive Officers."

COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(a) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires FairMarket's executive officers and directors and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of FairMarket's common stock to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC and to furnish copies to FairMarket.

Based upon a review of the reports furnished to FairMarket and representations made to FairMarket by its officers and directors and certain 10% beneficial owners, FairMarket believes that, during 2001, its officers and directors and 10% beneficial owners complied with all applicable reporting requirements, except that At Home Corporation inadvertently failed to file a Form 4 on a timely basis with the SEC to report certain sales of FairMarket's common stock.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of our Board of Directors is currently composed solely of independent directors as defined and required by Nasdaq. The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in general oversight and monitoring of management's and the independent auditor's participation in FairMarket's financial reporting process and of FairMarket's procedures for compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. The primary objective of the Audit Committee in fulfilling these responsibilities is to promote and preserve the integrity of FairMarket's financial statements and the independence and performance of FairMarket's independent auditor. The Audit Committee has adopted a written charter to govern its operation. The Audit Committee held seven meetings during 2001.

While the Audit Committee oversees FairMarket's financial reporting process for the Board of Directors consistent with its charter, management has primary responsibility for this process including FairMarket's system of internal controls, and for the preparation of FairMarket's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. In addition, FairMarket's independent auditors and not the Audit Committee are responsible for auditing those financial statements. It is not the duty or responsibility of the Audit Committee to conduct auditing or accounting reviews or procedures. Members of the Audit Committee are not employees of FairMarket, may not be employees of FairMarket and may not be, or represent themselves to be or serve as, accountants or auditors by profession or experts in the field of accounting or auditing.

Report of the Audit Committee

The following is a report of the Audit Committee of FairMarket's Board of Directors with respect to FairMarket's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001.

In connection with its function of overseeing and monitoring the financial reporting process, the Audit Committee has, among other things, done the following:

reviewed and discussed FairMarket's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001 with FairMarket's management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, FairMarket's independent auditors;

discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP those matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, "Communications with Audit Committees"; and received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP required by Independence Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees," and discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP their independence from FairMarket.

Based upon the foregoing, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements referred to above be included in FairMarket's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

STOCK PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The graph below compares the cumulative total stockholder return on FairMarket's common stock with the cumulative total return of (a) the Nasdaq Stock Market Index (U.S.) (the "Nasdaq Index"), (b) the JP Morgan H&Q Internet 100 Index and (c) a peer group that includes the following businesses, which FairMarket considers to be a peer group: Ariba, Inc., Commerce One, Inc., Digital River, Inc., eBay Inc. and ADB Systems International Inc. (formerly named Bid.com International Inc.). The graph assumes that $100 was invested in each of our common stock, the Nasdaq Index, the JP Morgan H&Q Internet 100 Index and the peer group on March 14, 2000 (the date on which our common stock was first publicly traded) and reflects the return through December 31, 2001, and assumes the reinvestment of dividends, if any. The comparisons in the graph below are based on historical data and are not indicative of, or intended to forecast, possible future performance of FairMarket's common stock. We have elected to replace the peer group index used in the graph below with the JP Morgan H&Q Internet 100 Index because we believe that the JP Morgan H&Q Internet 100 Index is more representative of peer companies and will thus facilitate greater comparability between FairMarket and its peers. As required by regulations of the SEC applicable to such changes, comparisons shown this year include both indices.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

On March 7, 2002, JHC Investment Partners, LLC, musicmaker.com, Inc., Jewelcor Management, Inc. and Barington Companies Equity Partners, L.P. (collectively, "Barington") filed a Schedule 13D with the SEC including a letter addressed to FairMarket's Secretary in which Barington stated its intention to solicit proxies to elect one of its nominees as a director at FairMarket's Annual Meeting, in opposition to the director nominated by FairMarket's Board of Directors.
