(1) Amounts indicated may be in excess of the total amount registered due to sales or transfers exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act since the date upon which the selling holders provided to us the information regarding their notes and common stock.

(2) Unless otherwise noted, represents shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of notes. Gilead's Board of Directors declared a two-for-one split of the outstanding shares of the company's common stock for all holders of record as of the close of business on February 2, 2001 and again on February 14, 2002. Each split was effected in the form of a stock dividend that resulted in a reduction by one-half of the conversion price per share and an increase in the number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes on the effective date of each split. As of February 3, 2001, the notes became convertible at a conversion price of $49.125 per share and as of February 15, 2002, the notes became convertible at a conversion price of $24.5625 per share. All stock numbers in this supplement have been adjusted to give effect to each of these two-for-one stock splits.

With the exception of Lehman Brothers Inc., none of the selling holders nor any of their affiliates, officers, directors or principal equity holders has held any position or office or has had any material relationship with us within the past three years. Lehman Brothers Inc. was an initial purchaser of the notes. The selling holders purchased the notes in private transactions on or after December 13, 2000.

The date of this prospectus supplement is May 8, 2002.
