Item 8.01. Other Events.

Effective January 1, 2009, The Southern Company ( Southern Company ) adopted retrospectively Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 160, Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements, which is an amendment of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51, Consolidated Financial Statements, ( SFAS No. 160 ). The adoption of SFAS No. 160 requires the preferred and preference stock of subsidiaries representing noncontrolling interests to be separately presented as a component of Stockholders Equity on Southern Company s consolidated balance sheets. Also required is the presentation of preferred and preference dividends of subsidiaries as a deduction from Consolidated Net Income to arrive at Consolidated Net Income After Dividends on Preferred and Preference Stock in Southern Company s consolidated statements of income. Preferred and preference dividends of subsidiaries previously were reported in Southern Company s consolidated statements of income as a component of Other Income and (Expense). In Southern Company s consolidated statements of cash flows, the preferred and preference dividends previously classified in operating activities are now classified in financing activities.

Exhibit 99 to this Current Report on Form 8-K includes the information initially presented under Item 6 - Selected Financial Data, Item 7 - Management s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, and Item 8 Financial Statements and Supplementary Data as presented in Southern Company s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 (the Form 10-K ). Each such item has been revised to reflect the retrospective adoption of SFAS No. 160.

The information in Exhibit 99 to this Current Report on Form 8-K does not reflect events or developments that occurred after February 25, 2009, and does not modify or update the
