Item 8.01 Other Events.

Community Central Bank Corporation ("Company") is the parent company of Community Central Bank (the "Bank"). The Bank's Report of Condition and Income for the quarter ended December 31, 2010 ("Call Report") filed with the FDIC reported that its tier 1 leverage ratio as of the end of the period was 1.66%, placing the Bank in the critically undercapitalized category.

Under the Prompt Corrective Action framework established under FDICIA, the failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate both mandatory and additional discretionary actions by regulators that are likely to have a material adverse effect on the Bank and the Company. In the case of critically undercapitalized banks, the appointment of a conservator or receiver generally is required if the institution is unable to raise sufficient capital within 90 days of the date on which it was determined that the institution was critically undercapitalized.
