of Directors of The Provident Bank (the "Bank"), the wholly-owned subsidiary of Provident Financial Services, Inc. (the "Company").

The Voluntary Bonus Deferral Plan. On June 23, 2005, The Board of Directors of the Bank amended the Voluntary Bonus Deferral Plan (the "Bonus Deferral Plan") to freeze the Bonus Deferral Plan as it relates to the deferral of bonuses earned for the calendar years 2005 and thereafter. The Bank maintains the Bonus Deferral Plan, which is a non-qualified plan that provides for the deferral of some or all of any bonus payments awarded under the management incentive bonus program. Prior to this amendment, an eligible employee could defer either one-half or all of a bonus award for a period of five years or ten years, or until the attainment of age 60 or 65, but in no event could any amount be deferred beyond the year in which such employee attains age 65. Deferred bonus awards are invested by the Bank's Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, in a portfolio of assets consisting of any combination of obligations of the United States with maturities not exceeding five years in duration. An eligible employee will receive a lump sum payment upon a change in control, as defined in this plan, and is eligible to apply for a hardship distribution of some or all of his or her separate accounts. The Bonus Deferral Plan shall continue to be administered as to amounts previously deferred under such plan prior to December 31, 2004 in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Bonus Deferral Plan.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

As discussed in more detail below, a compensatory plan or arrangement in which the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Bank may participate was terminated by the Board of Directors of The Provident Bank (the "Bank"), the wholly-owned subsidiary of Provident Financial Services, Inc. (the "Company").

The Voluntary Bonus Deferral Plan for the Chairman. On June 23, 2005, the Board of Directors of the Bank approved the termination of the Voluntary Bonus Deferral Plan for the Chairman (the "Chairman's Bonus Deferral Plan") effective immediately. The Bank maintained the Chairman's Bonus Deferral Plan, a non-qualified plan that provided for the deferral of up to the entire bonus award made to the Chairman for a period of five years or until the attainment of age 65. The Bank established an investment fund to provide for the investment of the deferred bonus awards due under this plan and allowed the Chairman to choose, with the plan administrator's consent, from a variety of investment options. Under this plan the Chairman was entitled to receive a lump sum payment upon a change in control, as defined in the plan, and was eligible to apply for a hardship distribution of some or all of his separate account, in the event of a financial hardship. No bonus payments were deferred pursuant to this plan.
