Item 8.01

Other Events

On March 4, 2014, Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company”) terminated all of its interest rate swaps associated with Federal Home Loan Bank (“FHLB”) advances as of year-end 2013, which had a notional value of $410 million. This termination was in association with the reduction of FHLB advances as a result of the previously disclosed purchase of branches and related deposits in New York, completed on January 17, 2014.

The Company reclassified approximately $8.6 million in fair value losses on interest rate swaps (approximately $5.1 million after-tax) from other comprehensive loss to a non-core charge against first quarter net income. This transfer represented a transfer within shareholders’ equity and therefore had no impact on total shareholders’ equity.

The Company terminated all of its interest rate swaps associated with FHLB advances with 3-month LIBOR based floating interest rates with an aggregate notional amount of $30 million, all of its interest rate swaps associated with 90 day rolling FHLB advances issued using the FHLB’s 3-month fixed interest rate with an aggregate notional amount of $145 million, and all of its forward-starting interest rate swaps associated with 90 day rolling FHLB advances issued using the FHLB’s 3-month fixed interest rate with an aggregate notional amount of $235 million, with various institutions. In the first quarter of 2014, the Company elected to extinguish $215 million of FHLB advances related to the terminated swaps.

The Company also initiated new forward starting interest rate swaps with a notional amount of $300 million associated with rolling FHLB 1- month fixed rate term advances. These swaps will start in the first half of 2016 and mature in the first half of 2019 and have a weighted average contract pay rate of 2.29%.

The Company anticipates that these changes in its deposits, borrowings, and interest rate swaps will contribute positively to its net interest margin and help protect net interest income in the event of future interest rate increases.
