footnotes normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. These interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes included in the Company's Form 10-KSB for the year ended February 28, 2001.

In the opinion of management, these financial statements reflect all adjustments (including normal recurring adjustments) necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position as of November 30, 2001, results of operations, and cash flows for the interim periods presented. Operating results for the three months, and nine months ended November 30, 2001, are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ended February 28, 2002.

NOTE B - CONVERSION OF SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK TO COMMON STOCK

On October 12, 2001, MacDougald Family Limited Partnership("MFLP") delivered a Notice of Conversion to the Issuer pursuant to which MFLP converted 850,000 shares of Preferred Stock held by MFLP into 8,500,000 shares of Common Stock in accordance with the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement and the Certificate of Designation. No additional funds were expended by MFLP in connection with its acquisition of the Common Stock. The consideration for the Common Stock was the Preferred Stock tendered by MFLP to the Issuer.

As a condition and an inducement to MFLP to convert the Preferred Stock, the Issuer and MFLP executed an Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, dated October 12, 2001 ("Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement"), pursuant to which the Issuer granted MFLP up to five demand registration rights. Concurrently with the execution of the Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, the Issuer and MFLP entered into the First Amendment to Series B Stock Purchase Agreement, dated October 12, 2001 ("First Amendment to Stock Purchase Agreement"), which eliminated certain of MFLP's rights under the Stock Purchase Agreement.

The 850,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock thus converted to Common Stock have been retired and cancelled and restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares of preferred stock of the Corporation, without designation as to series, as provided for in the Certificate of Designation of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S PLAN OF OPERATION.

In the long term, the Company expects to derive substantially all of its revenue through the sale and/or display of shipwreck cargoes and artifacts, including replicas. Therefore, until the Company is successful in acquiring and marketing artifacts and/or cargoes, it will be dependent upon investment capital to meet its cash flow requirements. To date, the Company has conducted private placements of debt, equity and project specific revenue participation to meet its financial obligations.

For the next twelve months, the Company anticipates spending approximately $80,000 per month to pay administrative and project development overhead. Management believes the Company currently has sufficient cash to fund its overhead for the next twelve months.

During the next twelve months, the Company is planning to conduct recovery and conservation operations on a shipwreck believed to be "HMS Sussex", conduct two search operations and begin the development of the sales and marketing department. All of these operations will require additional financing which the Company intends to raise through the sale of equity, debt or project specific revenue participation.

Recovery and Conservation for "HMS Sussex":

"HMS Sussex" is an English warship that sank during a storm in the western Mediterranean Sea in 1694. There is circumstantial evidence that the ship was carrying a substantial cargo of money at the time of its sinking.

During operations conducted in the Spring of 2001, the expedition archaeologist, Neil Cunningham Dobson, directed the recovery of certain artifacts from a site that he believed demonstrated some of the characteristics of the Sussex. In his draft archaeological report he concludes that after studying the survey data, the historical and documentary sources, the underwater investigations, the location, the size and shape of the site, and the cannon distribution and sizes, he believes that the site is likely to be the remains of the Sussex. However, the Company stresses that all of the evidence is circumstantial.

Based upon the survey data, historical research and Mr. Dobson's report, the Company believes that it is likely that the wreck of the British warship, "HMS Sussex", has been discovered. Accordingly, it has provided a copy of Mr. Dobson's report to the United Kingdom's Ministry of Defence ("MOD") and asked them to enter into a license agreement for the purpose of determining the methods of recovery and the disposition of any artifacts recovered. While there can be no assurance that the MOD will issue such a license, the MOD has previously indicated that a license would be issued to Odyssey. The Company believes that any license will contain provisions for Odyssey to receive a substantial distribution of any recovered items. The Company also anticipates that any license will be subject to the stringent application of archaeological standards for all work conducted on the site.

The Company anticipates it will be issued a license for the recovery of the Sussex, or it may elect to perfect a claim and protect the site using any international legal mechanisms at its disposal. Subject to financing, the Company intends to begin recovery during the Spring of 2002.

If the Company successfully recovers artifacts and cargo from "HMS Sussex", the Company plans to produce revenue from the project by selling the trade goods recovered (after conservation and documentation), along with ancillary products such as replicas, video footage, promotional items, and intangible property rights. The Company anticipates that the project will have a marketing life in excess of ten years.

Search Operations:

On September 1, 2001, the Company entered into an agreement with Mr. Jeff Hummel, a researcher for the Company's Republic Project, to conduct search operations, on a "no cure - no pay" basis. Accordingly, the Company did not conduct any of its own search operations for the Republic during the 2001 work season. If financing is obtained, the Company plans to continue its search for the Republic during August and September 2002, when weather conditions are most favorable in the search area.

During the Summer of 2002, the Company also intends to search an area off the east coast of the United States in an attempt to locate and identify a nineteenth century steamship believed to have sunk while carrying a cargo of coins at the time of its sinking. If this shipwreck is located and if financing and equipment are available, recovery and conservation efforts could begin immediately.

Sales and Marketing Department

Since the Company believes it will conduct recovery operations at one or more sites during the next twelve months, it intends to build a sales and marketing division to provide the platform for revenue generation. The Company has retained consultants to assist it in developing the marketing strategy and plans to implement this strategy once funds are available.

ITEM 2. Changes in Securities.

On October 12, 2001, MacDougald Family Limited Partnership ("MFLP") delivered a Notice of Conversion to the Company pursuant to which MFLP converted 850,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock held by MFLP into 8,500,000 shares of Common Stock in accordance with the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement and the Certificate of Designation. No additional funds were expended by MFLP in connection with its acquisition of the Common Stock. The consideration for the Common Stock was the Preferred Stock tendered by MFLP to the Company. James E. MacDougald, who was a Director of the Company at that time, controls MFLP.

As a condition and an inducement to MFLP to convert the Preferred Stock, the Company and MFLP executed an Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, dated October 12, 2001 ("Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement"), pursuant to which the Company granted MFLP up to five demand registration rights. Concurrently with the execution of the Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, the Company and MFLP entered into the First Amendment to Series B Stock Purchase Agreement, dated October 12, 2001 ("First Amendment to Stock Purchase Agreement"), which eliminated certain of MFLP's rights under the Stock Purchase Agreement.

In connection with this transaction, the Company relied on the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. MFLP is an accredited investor and represented that it was acquiring the shares for investment purposes and not with a view to distribution. The certificate representing the shares of common stock bears a restrictive legend and stop transfer orders were entered with the transfer agent.

On November 7, 2001, there were 26,365,536 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding, and no shares of Preferred Stock outstanding.
