Press Release

CVRD HAS A NEW CFO

Rio de Janeiro, April 25, 2002 - Fabio Barbosa, the former Secretary of the Brazilian National Treasury, is the new Chief Financial Officer of Companhia Vale do Rio Doce - CVRD. Fabio Barbosa was invited by Roger Agnelli, CVRD's CEO, and his name was unanimously approved by CVRD Board of Directors. Fabio Barbosa will start his activities as CVRD CFO on next July.

Mr. Agnelli reminded that the new Executive Director was already participating in the Board of Directors as the National Treasury representative. "He is completely familiar with the Company's subjects and, as an Executive Director, he will be able to provide the Company a worthy contribution in the financial division. Fabio Barbosa accumulated a large experience during the years he worked in the public sector that allows him to execute this important mission in a Company like CVRD. We are very happy with his appointment and anxious to work with him on day-to-day basis" emphasized Roger Agnelli.

Fabio Barbosa, a 41 year old economist, served the Brazilian Government since 1984, and has participated as a member of the Board of Directors of Companhia Siderurgica de Tubarao, Telesp, Caixa Economica Federal, Banco do Brasil, Banespa, besides CVRD. From 1992 to 1995, he was an advisor to the Executive Board of the World Bank.
