If the maturity date or an interest payment date for any note is not a business day (as that term is defined in the prospectus supplement), principal, premium, if any, and interest for that note is paid on the next business day, and no interest will accrue from, and after, the maturity date or interest payment date.

The notes will be treated as fixed rate debt instruments for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Intended to be listed on the Channel Islands Stock Exchange.

Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP has confirmed its opinion as to the legality of the notes offered by this pricing supplement as set forth under "Validity of the Notes" in the prospectus supplement dated September 28, 2012, subject to the customary assumptions set forth in the opinion of such counsel dated November 20, 2012 filed as an exhibit to a report on form 6-K by the Company on such date.
