FRMO CORP.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NINE MONTHS ENDED NOVEMBER 30, 2003

(UNAUDITED)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for interim financial information in response to the requirements of Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited financial statements contain all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring items) necessary to present fairly the financial position as of November 30, 2003; results of operations for the three and nine months ended November 30, 2003 and 2002; and cash flows for the nine months ended November 30, 2003 and 2002. For further information, refer to the Company's financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended February 28, 2003. The balance sheet at February 28, 2003 was derived from the audited financial statements as of that date. Results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of annual results of operations.

2. INTANGIBLE ASSETS

RESEARCH AGREEMENTS

In March 2001, the Company acquired the research service fees that Horizon Research Group receives from The Kinetics Paradigm Fund in exchange for 80,003 shares of common stock. The value of the shares issued in this transaction was $51,003. The Company is amortizing the cost of The Kinetics Paradigm Fund research agreement over ten years using the straight-line method.

SUBSCRIPTION REVENUES

In October 2001, the Company acquired a 2% interest in the subscription revenues from subscribers to The Capital Structure Arbitrage Report that Horizon Research Group and another third party receive. Consideration for this interest consisted of the issuance of 50 shares of Series R preferred stock. The value of the shares issued in both of these transactions aggregated $26,250. The Company is amortizing the purchase of these subscription agreements over ten years using the straight-line method. At the time of these transactions, a 2% interest in the subscription revenues amounted to $3,018 per annum.

Intangible assets consist of the following:

	NOVEMBER 30, 2003	FEBRUARY 28, 2003
Research agreements Subscription revenue	$51,003 26,250	$51,003 26,250
Less accumulated amortization	77,253 18,863	77,253 13,069
Intangible assets, net	$58,390 =====	$64,184 ======

For the nine months ended November 30, 2003 and 2002, amortization of intangible assets was $5,794 and $5,428.

3. NET INCOME PER COMMON SHARE AND PER COMMON SHARE EQUIVALENT

Basic earnings per common share for the three and nine months ended November 30, 2003 and 2002 are calculated by dividing net income by weighted average common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per common share for the three and nine months ended November 30, 2003 and 2002, are calculated by dividing net income by weighted average common shares outstanding during the period plus dilutive potential common shares, which are determined as follows:

Dilutive potential common shares	4,535,902	3,947,524
	4 505 000
Conversion of preferred stock	50,000	50,000
Effect of dilutive securities:
Weighted average common shares	4,485,902	3,897,524

4. COMPENSATION FOR CONTRIBUTED SERVICES

Two officers/shareholders performed services for the Company during the nine months ended November 30, 2003 and 2002 for which no compensation was paid. The Company recorded a charge to operations for these contributed services of $9,000 and a corresponding credit to paid-in-capital for each period.

5. INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes consist of the following:

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

All statements contained herein that are not historical facts, including but not limited to, statements regarding future operations, financial condition and liquidity, capital requirements and the Company's future business plans are based on current expectations. These statements are forward looking in nature and involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially are changes in the financial markets, which affect investment managers, investors, mutual funds and the Company's consulting clients, and other risk factors described herein and in the Company's reports filed and to be filed from time to time with the Commission. The discussion and analysis below is based on the Company's unaudited Financial Statements for the three and nine months ended November 30, 2003 and 2002. The following should be read in conjunction with the Management's Discussion and Analysis of results of operations and financial condition included in Form 10-K for the year ended February 28, 2003.

OVERVIEW

By reason of the spin-off transaction described in Form 10-K for the year ended February 28, 2002, the Company had a new start in terms of its continuing business and its financial statements. After the spin-off, its balance sheet consisted of $10,000 in assets, no liabilities and 1,800,000 shares of common stock. On January 23, 2001 the Company issued an additional 34,200,000 shares of common stock for $3,258,000 to be paid as set forth in Item 1 of Form 10-K for the year ended February 28, 2001.

Since its new start on January 23, 2001, FRM completed the following transactions through November 30, 2003:

- i. The Company invested $5,000 in FRM NY Capital, LLC, a limited liability venture capital company whereby the substantial investment of financial capital will be made by unrelated parties but where FRM will have a carried interest based on leveraging the creative services of its personnel (its intellectual capital).
- ii. A consulting agreement was signed effective January 1, 2001, whereby FRM is currently receiving approximately $20,000 a year from the manager of Santa Monica Partners, LP, a director and shareholder of FRM, for access to consultations with the Company's personnel designated by Murray Stahl and Steven Bregman. Santa Monica Partners, L.P. is a private fund, which owns 218,000 shares of common stock of FRM.
- iii. In March 2001 FRM acquired the research service fees that Horizon Research Group had received from The Kinetics Paradigm Fund in exchange for 80,003 shares of FRM common stock. Management believes that the growth of that Fund in the current fiscal year and future years will increase the current level of research fees for which the stock consideration was paid. The Kinetics Paradigm Fund outperformed the S&P 500 Index by approximately 13 percentage points in its first fiscal year of operation, Calendar 2000. During 2001, it outperformed the S&P 500 Index by 14 percentage points and, during 2002, by 17 percentage points. In August 2003, The Kinetics Paradigm Fund was assigned a five-star rating by Morningstar, Inc., the fund rating service. This is Morningstar's highest rating and is often the basis on which mutual fund investors seek to select funds. For calendar 2003, the Fund outperformed the S&P 500 by a further 19 percentage points. On a cumulative basis, over the four-year period from inception through year-end 2003, the Kinetics Paradigm Fund has returned 50%, whereas the S&P 500 Index has lost (20%).
- iv. In October 2001, FRM acquired a 2% interest in the subscription revenues from The Capital Structure Arbitrage Report that Horizon Research Group and another third party receive, in exchange for 50 shares of Series R preferred stock. While the subscriptions are minimal at the present time, management believes that they will grow in future years.
- v. In February 2002, FRM acquired a 7.71% interest in Kinetics Advisors, LLC and the Finder's Fee Share Interest from the Stahl Bregman Group, in exchange for 315 shares of FRM common stock. Kinetics Advisors, LLC controls and provides investment advice to

Kinetics Partners, LP, a hedge fund and to

Kinetics Fund, Inc., an offshore version of Kinetics Partners. While these funds were quite small at the time of acquisition, they have expanded significantly and management believes that they will continue to grow in future years. During its first year of operation in 2000, and in 2001, Kinetics Partners returned 23.7 and 21.6 percentage points more than the S&P 500 Index, net of management and incentive fees. In 2002, it outperformed the S&P 500 Index by 33 percentage points. Through December 31, 2003, it has outperformed the S&P 500 Index by a further 23 percentage points. On a cumulative basis, over the 3-year 4-month period from inception through year-end 2003, the Kinetics Partners Fund has returned 92%, whereas the S&P 500 Index has lost (23%).

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

2003 PERIOD COMPARED TO THE 2002 PERIOD

The Company's revenues from operations for the three months ended November 30, 2003 ("2003") were $40,500, an increase of $5,500 or 16% as compared to the three months ended November 30, 2002 ("2002"). The net increase in the three-month period was due to increases in consulting, research and subscription revenues. The 2002 period included $8,400 of income from investments in unconsolidated subsidiaries, which for comparative purposes was completely offset during the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ended February 28, 2003, when the Company reevaluated its accounting for its investment in Kinetics Advisers, LLC and recorded an adjustment that reduced second quarter revenues by approximately $8,400. The Company's revenues from operations for the nine months ended November 30, 2003 ("2003") was $90,200, a decrease of $11,300 or 11% as compared to the nine months ended November 30, 2002 ("2002"). The net decrease in the nine-month period was due primarily to the inclusion in 2002 of $22,100of income from investments in unconsolidated subsidiaries. However, for comparative purposes, the $22,100 of income was completely offset during the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ended February 28, 2003, when the company reevaluated its accounting for its investment in Kinetics Advisers, LLC and recorded an adjustment that reduced first half revenues by approximately $22,100. These decreases in 2003 revenues were partially offset by an increase of $10,700 in research fees.

Costs and expenses from operations were $12,800 during the three months ended in November 2003, a decrease of $1,300 or (9%) from the comparable 2002 period. During the nine-month period ended in 2003 costs and expenses from operations decreased by $2,600 (6%) to $43,000. The result for the three-month period was primarily due to an increase in accounting expenses, offset by declines in shareholder reporting and office expenses. The decrease for the nine months ended in 2003 was primarily due to an increase in shareholder reporting expenses, offset by decreases in accounting and office expenses.

For the reasons noted above, the Company's net income for the three months ended November 30, 2003 increased by $10,600 to $21,000, as compared to net income of $10,400 in 2002. For the same reasons, net income for the nine months ended November 30, 2003 was $35,200, as compared to net income of $36,900 for the same period in 2002.

Some discussion is required with respect to an asset that is presently carried at zero cost on the FRMO balance sheet and which had a negligible accounting impact on earnings in fiscal 2003 and during the nine months ended November 30, 2003, yet which has a very significant economic impact on FRMO. This is the investment in Kinetics Advisers, LLC ("Kinetics Advisers"), which was acquired in February 2002 (as discussed in Part I, Item 1, under the heading Specific Business Activities, of the Form 10-K for the fiscal 2003 year). This investment takes the form of a minority interest in Kinetics Advisers, which controls and provides investment advice to two hedge funds. Kinetics Advisers has elected to reinvest in these two funds the fees to which it is entitled from them. As a consequence, FRMO will not receive its proportional interest in those fees until such time that Kinetics Advisers itself elects to receive them. Under generally accepted accounting principles, FRMO must record this investment on a cost basis, which was $205 as of February 28, 2002. However, on an economic basis, FRMO's proportional share of Kinetics Advisers' capital accounts in those funds was approximately $708,600 (pre-tax and unaudited) as of November 30, 2003, predominantly from fee income and appreciation (also pre-tax and unaudited).

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's activities during the nine months ended November 30, 2003 resulted in an increase in cash of $219,500. The $219,500 increase in cash in 2003 was due to income, after adjusting for amortization and contributed services, of $50,000, reduced by ($9,000) due to fluctuations in operating assets and liabilities primarily caused by timing differences, and increased by the receipt of $178,520 in proceeds from common stock subscriptions for 1,785,200 shares. The subscription proceeds represent partial payment for shares of common stock held in escrow as set forth in Item 1 of Form 10-K for the year ended February 28, 2001. In 2002, the Company started recording non-cash compensation for contributed services from two of its executives. In 2001, those executives, who are responsible for all of the company's operations, agreed not to draw any salaries during the period of formation. There were no cash flows provided by or used in investing or financing activities during both of the nine-month periods ended in 2003 and 2002. The Company expects its business to develop without the outlay of cash, since growth is expected to be a function of its intellectual property as presently represented by consulting, research and subscription fees as well as its asset-based general partner interest.

EFFECTS OF NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

None.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

On January 23, 2001 the Company issued 34,200,000 shares of $.001 par value stock for $3,258,000. Only $39,375 was paid for at the time and the balance of $3,218,625 will be paid to the Company as set forth in Item 1 of Form 10-K for the year ended February 28, 2001. The Company's market risk arises principally from the obligations of the shareholders to pay for the shares of common stock of the Company based on dividends from outside sources and the income generated from the management of mutual funds.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, we have evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures within 90 days of the filing date of this quarterly report, and, based on their evaluation, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer have concluded that these controls and procedures are effective. There were no significant changes in our internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect these controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation.

Disclosure controls and procedures are our controls and other procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.
