On November 15, 2004, Computer Associates International, Inc. (the Company) agreed to issue and sell $500 million aggregate principal amount of its 4.75%, 5-year senior unsecured notes and $500 million aggregate principal amount of its 5.625%, 10-year senior unsecured notes (collectively, the Notes) through a private offering to qualified institutional buyers under Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) Rule 144A and to non-U.S. persons outside the United States under SEC Regulation S. The Company has the option to redeem the 5-year notes and the 10-year notes at any time, at redemption prices equal to the greater of (i) 100% of the aggregate principal amount of the notes of such series being redeemed and (ii) the present value of the principal and interest payable over the life of the Notes, discounted at a rate equal to 15 basis points and 20 basis points, respectively, over a comparable U.S. Treasury bond yield. The maturity of the Notes may be accelerated by the holders upon certain events of default, including failure to make payments when due and failure to comply with covenants in the Notes, as provided in the Notes. The Company also agreed for the benefit of the holders to register the Notes under the Securities Act of 1933 so that the Notes may be sold in the public market. If the Company does not meet certain deadlines for filing and effectiveness of the registration statement, the interest rate on the Notes will increase by 25 basis points for up to 90 days and by an additional 25 basis points thereafter, until the delay is cured. The Company signed a purchase agreement with various investment banks under which the Company agreed to issue and sell the Notes to the banks, and the banks, subject to customary closing conditions, agreed to purchase the Notes from the Company, at a purchase price equal to 99.261% of the principal amount, in the case of the 5-year notes, and 98.855% of the principal amount, in the case of the 10-year notes, for resale under Rule 144A and Regulation S. Several of the purchasers or their affiliates have provided investment and commercial banking services to the Company from time to time, with some being lenders under the Company's existing credit facilities, and may continue to provide such services in the future. The Notes were issued on November 18, 2004 under an indenture between the Company and the trustee for the holders of the Notes.

The foregoing description of the Notes and related matters is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement, the Indenture and the Registration Rights Agreement filed as exhibits hereto.
