This information has not been updated to reflect changes in the ownership by such parties of AIG Shares that are disclosed in filings made by one or more of such parties under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("Exchange Act"). In each case, such information may not be accurate or complete and AIG takes no responsibility therefor and makes no representation to its accuracy or completeness as of the date hereof or any subsequent date.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

No funds were required in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement as defined in Item 4. In connection with the Merger described in Item 4, AIG estimates that the total amount of funds required to purchase all of the outstanding Common Stock of the Company not currently owned by AIG and the AIG Subs in the Merger (as defined in Item 4) and to pay estimated fees and expenses will be approximately $825 million. AIG will use working capital, including cash and/or proceeds of commercial paper issuances, to finance the consummation of the Merger and the associated fees and expenses.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

On January 24, 2007, AIG sent a letter to the Company's Board of Directors stating that it proposes to acquire all of the outstanding Common Stock of the Company not currently owned by AIG and the AIG Subs (the "Shares") for $19.75 per Share in cash, and on January 24, 2007, AIG issued a related press release.

On May 15, 2007, following negotiations with a special committee comprised of directors of the Company who are independent of AIG (the "Special Committee"), AIG, AIG TW Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of AIG ("Merger Subsidiary"), and the Company executed an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement"). The Merger Agreement followed a determination by the unanimous vote of the Company's Board of Directors upon recommendation and approval of the Special Committee that the Merger described below, and the other transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement are fair to and in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders other than AIG and its affiliates. On May 15, 2007 AIG issued a related press release. A copy of the press release is being filed herewith as Exhibit C.

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time specified therein (the "Effective Time"), Merger Subsidiary will merge (the "Merger") with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation (the "Surviving Corporation") and a wholly owned subsidiary of AIG. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement and subject to the conditions thereof, each share of the common stock of the Company ("Shares") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time other than (i) Shares owned by AIG, Merger Subsidiary or any other direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of AIG (other than Shares held by any mutual fund advised or managed by any of AIG or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of AIG),

Edgar Filing: 21ST CENTURY INSURANCE GROUP - Form SC 13D/A

(ii) Shares owned by the Company or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and in each case not held on behalf of third parties, (iii) Shares subject to Company Awards (as described in the Merger Agreement), and (iv) Shares as to which appraisal rights are perfected under applicable law, shall be converted into the right to receive $22.00 per Share in cash, without interest.

AIG, Merger Subsidiary and the Company have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, and the consummation of the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including among others, the approval of the Merger by the holders of a majority of the outstanding Shares entitled to vote on such matter at a shareholders' meeting duly called and held for such purpose. AIG expressly reserves the right to waive or not waive any unsatisfied condition in the Merger. AIG has agreed to vote or cause to be voted all of its and its subsidiaries' Shares in favor of the merger. AIG believes that the Merger is not subject to California Department of Insurance review or that of any other state regulator under the relevant insurance laws. AIG has discussed the terms of the Merger with the applicable regulators and believes that no further consents from these regulators are required. It is possible, however, that any of these regulators could assert a right to review the Merger or aspects thereof, and if such a review right is asserted, AIG would not complete the Merger before obtaining any required approval. The closing of the Merger shall occur as soon as practicable after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, (i) the directors of Merger Subsidiary immediately prior to the Merger will be the directors of the Surviving Corporation, (ii) the officers of the Company immediately prior to the Merger will be the officers of the Surviving Corporation, (iii) the certificate of incorporation of the Company, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until duly amended as provided therein or by applicable law, and (iv) the bylaws of Merger Subsidiary will be the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation, until thereafter amended as provided therein or by applicable law.

If the Merger is successfully completed, 100% of the Shares of the Company will be held by AIG and the AIG Subs, the common stock of the Company will be delisted from the New York Stock Exchange and would no longer be traded or quoted and the Company will become eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Exchange Act. Upon consummation of the Merger, AIG intends to cause the filing of such an application for termination of registration under the Exchange Act. If the Merger is successfully completed, AIG may change the Company's business and corporate structure and may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or some of the Company's assets.

The descriptions of the Merger Agreement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit B, and is incorporated by reference into this Item 4.

The foregoing is a summary of the Merger Agreement and should not be construed as an offer to purchase Shares. Any offer relating to a merger will be made by means of a proxy statement which will be filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Shareholders are urged to read any such proxy statement and other relevant documents regarding the Merger filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission when they become available because they will contain important information. Shareholders will be able to receive these documents (when they become available), as well as other documents filed by AIG and the Company with respect to the Merger, free of charge at the Securities and Exchange Commission's web site, www.sec.gov or at the principal office of the Company at 6301 Owensmouth Avenue, Woodland Hills, California, 91367.

The Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted Rule 13e-3 under the Securities Exchange Act which is applicable to certain "going private" transactions. Rule 13e-3 requires among other things, that certain financial information concerning the Company, and certain information relating to the fairness of the proposed transaction and the consideration offered to minority shareholders in such transaction, be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and disclosed to minority shareholders prior to consummation of the transaction. AIG expects to file the information required by Rule 13e-3 with the Securities and Exchange Commission together with the proxy statement, and to provide the required information to holders of Shares at such time.

AIG and the AIG Subs understand that any of their respective executive officers and directors that hold Shares do so for investment purposes. Other than as described above, none of AIG or the AIG Subs nor, to the best knowledge of the persons filing this Amendment, any of AIG's or the AIG Subs' respective executive officers or directors, have any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the events set forth in Items 4(a) through (j) of Schedule 13D. However, if the proposed transaction does not occur for any reason, AIG and the AIG Subs and their respective executive officers and directors intend to review continuously the Company's business affairs, general industry and economic conditions and the capital needs of AIG and the AIG Subs. Based on such review, these entities and individuals may, from time to time, determine to increase or decrease their ownership of Shares of the Company, approve an extraordinary corporate transaction with regard to the Company or engage in any of the events set forth in Items 4(a) through (j) of Schedule 13D.

Edgar Filing: 21ST CENTURY INSURANCE GROUP - Form SC 13D/A

(C) AIG, American Home, Commerce & Industry, National Union, and New Hampshire, to the best of each of their knowledge, AIG and the AIG Subs' respective executive officers and directors (as listed in Exhibit A), have not engaged in any transactions in the Common Stock of the Company during the past sixty days. AIG has no available information regarding transactions in the Common Stock of the Company by Messrs. Greenberg and Matthews, SICO, Starr, Universal Foundation, the Greenberg Foundation and the Greenberg Joint Tenancy Company or their respective directors and executive officers.

The Seasons Series TR Value Small Cap fund, which is managed by a subsidiary of AIG, (i) on April 25, 2007, acquired 48 Shares in the open market at $21.04 per Share; and (ii) on May 9, 2007, sold 99 Shares in the open market at $20.99 per Share.
