PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.)

Taro Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (the "Company") was unable to timely file its annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 (the "2006 20-F") without unreasonable effort and expense due to several factors. The Company's annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 (the "2005 20-F") was significantly delayed and was ultimately filed on March 20, 2007. The delay in filing the 2005 20-F was due to restatement of the Company's financial statements for prior periods and related delays in the completion of the audit of its 2005 financial statements. As a result of these and related matters, including an investigation initiated by our independent auditors resulting in the resignation of our chief financial officer, the Company experienced significant financial and operational difficulty including being unable to meet the ongoing listing standards of NASDAQ and suffering the loss of a number of key employees.

In early November 2006, in light of the increasing pressures on the Company's liquidity, the Company retained The Blackstone Group, an investment banking firm, to assist the Company in exploring strategic alternatives, and began a process with respect to these alternatives. This process culminated with the Company entering into an Agreement of Merger with affiliates of Sun Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. providing for a merger pursuant to which the Company would become a subsidiary of Sun and the Company's shareholders would receive cash for their shares. As a result of the Company's financial and operational difficulties and the exploration of strategic alternatives leading to the transaction with Sun, the Company was not able to timely file the 2006 20-F. Although work on the audit of the Company's 2006 financial statements is underway, the Company is not able to estimate at this time when this work will be completed and when the 2006 20-F will be filed.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify reports(s). Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company expects to report sales in a range of approximately $180 million to $200 million for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to sales of approximately $297.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 and a net loss in a range of approximately $95 million to $120 million for the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to net income of approximately $5.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. These estimates are subject to change pending completion of the audit of the Company's 2006 financial statements.
