Explanatory Note:

Entertainment Properties Trust (the Company) filed a Current Report on Form 8-K on May 20, 2009 (the Initial Filing), pursuant to which it disclosed (1) under Item 5.02(c), the appointment of Morgan G. Earnest II as the Company's Chief Investment Officer and Vice President and (2) under Item 5.02(e), the approval by the shareholders of the Company of an amendment to the 2007 Equity Incentive Plan (the Plan) as well as other amendments to the Plan not requiring approval of the shareholders of the Company. The Company has subsequently determined that disclosure of the appointment of Mr. Earnest was not required under Item 5.02(c). This Amendment on Form 8-K/A only amends the Initial Filing by (A) deleting all disclosure under Item 5.02(c) and (B) disclosing under Item 8.01 the appointment of Mr. Earnest as Chief Investment Officer and Vice President of the Company. Except as described in the immediately preceding sentence, all other disclosures contained in the Initial Filing and all exhibits thereto are not amended hereby in any manner.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

Immediately following the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company held on May 13, 2009 (the 2009 Annual Meeting), Morgan G. Earnest II was appointed Chief Investment Officer and Vice President of the Company, effective as of May 14, 2009. In addition, on May 19, 2009 the Company issued to Mr. Earnest options to purchase 50,000 common shares of beneficial interest at an exercise price of $19.41. These stock options become exercisable by Mr. Earnest in four equal annual installments beginning January 1, 2010 and expire on May 19, 2019. This grant was made in accordance with policies set forth in the Company's most recently filed definitive proxy statement.

Mr. Earnest, 52, served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Company from 2003 until the expiration of his term as a trustee at the 2009 Annual Meeting. During such time, Mr. Earnest was a member of the audit, nominating/company governance, compensation and finance committees. Prior to joining the Company as Chief Investment Officer and Vice President, Mr. Earnest was Executive Vice President and a member of the Board of Directors of Capmark Financial Group, Inc. (Capmark) (formerly GMAC Commercial Mortgage Corporation, or GMACCM) and was responsible for the co-management of Lending and Originations for both North America and Europe. Previously, Mr. Earnest was responsible for the GMACCM's Specialty Lending Groups, which consisted of the Healthcare, Hospitality and Construction Lending Divisions. Prior to his role at Capmark, Mr. Earnest was a principal of Lexington Mortgage Company which was acquired by GMACCM in March 1996. Mr. Earnest has an MBA from the Colgate Darden Graduate School of Business Administration, University of Virginia and is a graduate of Tulane University.

As previously reported in the Company's definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 17, 2009, GMAC Commercial Mortgage of Canada, a Canadian affiliate of Capmark, provided the Company with $97 million in mortgage financing in 2004 secured by the Company's Canadian properties. Mr. Earnest received no direct or indirect compensation from any party in connection with the loan and the Company's independent trustees previously determined that Mr. Earnest does not have a direct or indirect material interest in the transaction.

Effective as of May 14, 2009, the Company and Mr. Earnest entered into an employment agreement. The employment agreement has a three year term, with automatic one-year extensions on each anniversary date thereafter. The employment agreement generally provides for:

An original annual base salary of $360,000 for Mr. Earnest;

An annual incentive bonus in an amount established by the compensation committee pursuant to the Company's Annual Incentive Program;

A long-term incentive award pursuant to the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan in an amount established by the compensation committee of the Board of Trustees; and Severance benefits triggered in the event of death, termination due to disability, termination by the Company without cause, or termination by the executive for good reason. Subject to the immediately following paragraph, the severance benefits consist of:

a payment following the triggering event of the sum of Mr. Earnest's base salary in effect on the date of termination, the value of the annual incentive bonus under the Company's Annual Incentive Program for the most recently completed year, and the value of the most recent long-term incentive award made under the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan, multiplied by a severance multiple (which is three for Mr. Earnest);

continuation of certain health plan benefits for a period of years equal to the severance multiple; and vesting of all unvested equity awards

In the event that Mr. Earnest's employment is terminated by (i) the Company without cause or (ii) by Mr. Earnest for good reason after the second anniversary of the execution of the employment agreement and within 90 days after Mr. Earnest has received notice that the Board of Trustees requires, upon the recommendation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, that Mr. Earnest be based at the then current offices of the Company and if the Board reasonably determines that Mr. Earnest has failed to comply with such requirement, then the Company will pay Mr. Earnest a lump-sum payment equal to Mr. Earnest's base salary in effect on the date of termination multiplied by 1.5.

Good reason is defined in the employment agreement as a good faith determination by Mr. Earnest within 30 days after the Company's receipt of written notice that one of the following events constitutes good reason:

the assignment of duties materially and adversely inconsistent with Mr. Earnest's position under the agreement or a material reduction in Mr. Earnest's office, status, position, title or responsibilities not agreed to by Mr. Earnest; any material reduction in Mr. Earnest's base compensation or eligibility under the Company's Annual Incentive Program, eligibility for long-term incentive awards under the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan, or eligibility under employee benefit plans which is not agreed to by Mr. Earnest, or after the occurrence of a change in control, a diminution of Mr. Earnest's target opportunity under the Company's Annual Incentive Program, the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan or any successor plan, or a failure to evaluate Mr. Earnest's performance relative to the target opportunity based upon the same metrics as peer management at the surviving or acquiring company; a material breach of the employment agreement by the Company, its successors or assigns, including any failure to pay Mr. Earnest on a timely basis any amounts to which he is entitled under the agreement; or any requirement that Mr. Earnest be based at an office outside of a 35-mile radius of Mr. Earnest's principal residence as of May 14, 2009.

Under the employment agreement, a change of control is deemed to have occurred if:

incumbent trustees (defined as the trustees of the Company on the effective date of the agreement, plus trustees who are subsequently elected or nominated with the approval of two-thirds of the incumbent trustees then on the Board) cease for any reason to constitute a majority of the Board of Trustees;

any person becomes the beneficial owner of 25% or more of the Company's voting securities, other than an acquisition by an underwriter in an offering of shares by the Company, or a transaction in which 50% of the voting securities of the surviving corporation is represented by the holders of the Company's voting securities prior to the transaction, no person is the beneficial owner of 25% of the surviving corporation, and at least a majority of the directors of the surviving corporation were incumbent trustees of the Company (a non-qualifying transaction), or upon the acquisition of shares directly from the Company in a transaction approved by a majority of the incumbent trustees;

the shareholders approve a merger, consolidation, acquisition, sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets or properties or similar transaction that requires the approval of our shareholders, other than a non-qualifying transaction;

the shareholders approve a complete plan of liquidation or dissolution of the Company;

the acquisition of control of the Company by any person; or any transaction or series of transactions resulting in the Company being closely held within the meaning of the REIT provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and with respect to which the Board of Trustees has either waived or failed to enforce the excess share provisions of the Company's Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust.

Under the employment agreements, cause is defined as and is limited to an affirmative determination by the Board of Trustees that any of the following has occurred:

Mr. Earnest's willful and continued failure or refusal to perform his duties with the Company (other than as a result of his disability or incapacity due to mental or physical illness) which is not remedied in the reasonable good faith determination of the Board of Trustees within 30 days after such employee's receipt of written notice from the Board of Trustees specifying the nature of such failure or refusal; or the willful engagement by Mr. Earnest in misconduct which is materially and demonstrably injurious to the Company. Under the employment agreement, no act or failure to act shall be considered willful unless done or omitted in bad faith and without reasonable belief that the act or omission was in the best interests of the Company.

The foregoing summary of the employment agreement between the Company and Mr. Earnest does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, reference to the full text of the employment agreement, which is attached to the Initial Filing as Exhibit 10.1, and is incorporated herein by reference.
