PART I

Item 1. Description of Business.

The Company.

EClips Energy Technologies, Inc., (EET the Company , Eclips , we or us) is a Florida Corporation with principal executive offices at 3900 31st Street North, St. Petersburg, FL 33714.

The Company's operations were developing and manufacturing products and services, which reduce fuel costs, save power & energy and protect the environment. The products and services were made available for sale into markets in the public and private sectors. In December 2009, the Company discontinued these operations.

Recent Developments

On December 22, 2009, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement, (the Purchase Agreement) by and among the Company, Benjamin C. Croxton (the Seller), and certain purchasers of securities owned by the Seller, representing a controlling interest in the Company (each a Purchaser and collectively the Purchasers). The Purchase Agreement was subsequently amended on January 12, 2010. As amended the Purchase Agreement contemplates a change of control of the Company through the resignation of the existing officers and directors, and the purchase, in privately negotiated transactions, of outstanding shares of the Company from the Seller, and the appointment of Greg Cohen as director and Chief Executive Officer.

Table of Contents

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, Purchasers agreed to purchase from the Seller an aggregate of (i) 50,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.001 par value (Common Stock) and (ii) 1,500,000 shares of Series D preferred stock (the Series D Preferred Stock and collectively with the Common Stock, the Shares), comprising approximately 82% of the issued and outstanding shares of voting stock of the Company. The closing of the purchase of the Shares occurred on February 4, 2010. Upon closing of the Purchase Agreement, a change of control occurred in which Auracana, LLC has control of the Company through the exercise of the voting rights attributable to the voting power of 500 votes for each share outstanding of the Company s Series D Preferred Stock acquired from the Seller (750,000,000 votes total). There is no agreement or understanding in effect among the Purchasers with respect to the voting of any of the Shares.

In connection with the Purchase Agreement, the Company and Seller entered into a release pursuant to which in consideration for the termination of Seller s employment agreement, dated January 31, 2006, the Company issued to Seller 1,100,000 shares of the Company s common stock. Furthermore, the Company agreed to transfer to Seller or Seller s designee, Pure Air Technologies, Inc., Hydrogen Safe Technologies, Inc., World Energy Solutions Limited and Advanced Alternative Energy, Inc. and granted to Seller a five-year option for the purchase of H-Hybrid Technologies, Inc.

During late 2009, the Company began to explore other business opportunities which in light of the execution of the Purchase Agreement, likely will be limited to business opportunities introduced by Purchasers, and disposition of its existing businesses. Although no agreement has been entered, the Company has been advised by Purchasers that a privately owned online sports marketing and fantasy sports website and related businesses (the Proposed Business) is being proposed to be acquired following the closing of the Purchase Agreement. Mr. Cohen is not affiliated with the Proposed Business.

On March 16, 2010, the Company filed a definitive information statement of Schedule 14C (the Definitive Schedule 14C) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) notifying its stockholders that on March 2, 2010, a majority of the voting capital stock of the Company took action in lieu of a special meeting of stockholders authorizing the Company to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with its newly-formed wholly-owned subsidiary, EClips Media Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (EClips Media) for the purpose of changing the state of incorporation of the Company to Delaware from Florida. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Company will be merged with and into EClips Media with EClips Media continuing as the surviving corporation (the Merger). The Merger will be effective approximately 20 days after the mailing of the Definitive Schedule 14C.

On the effective date of the Merger, (i) each issued and outstanding share of common stock of the Company shall be converted into two (2) shares of EClips Media common stock, (ii) each issued and outstanding share of Series D preferred stock of the Company shall be converted into two (2) shares of EClips Media Series A preferred stock and (iii) the outstanding share of EClips Media Common Stock held by the Company shall be retired and canceled and shall resume the status of authorized and unissued EClips Media common stock. The outstanding 6% convertible debentures due February 4, 2012 of the Company shall be assumed by EClips Media and converted into outstanding 6% convertible debentures due February 4, 2012 of EClips Media. All options and rights to acquire the Company s common stock, and all outstanding warrants or rights outstanding to purchase the Company s common stock, will automatically be converted into equivalent options, warrants and rights to purchase two (2) times the number of shares of EClips Media common stock at fifty (50%) percent of the exercise, conversion or strike price of such converted options, warrants and rights.

Cautionary Notice Regarding Forward Looking Statements

The information contained in this Item 7 contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Actual results may materially differ from those projected in the forward-looking statements as a result of certain risks and uncertainties set forth in this report. Although management believes that the assumptions made and expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, there is no assurance that the underlying assumptions will, in fact, prove to be correct or that actual results will not be different from expectations expressed in this report.

We desire to take advantage of the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. This filing contains a number of forward-looking statements which reflect management's current views and expectations with respect to our business, strategies, products, future results and events, and financial performance. All statements made in this filing other than statements of historical fact, including statements addressing operating performance, events, or developments which management expects or anticipates will or may occur in the future, including statements related to distributor channels, volume growth, revenues, profitability, new products, adequacy of funds from operations, statements expressing general optimism about future operating results, and non-historical information, are forward looking statements. In particular, the words "believe," "expect," "intend," "anticipate," "estimate," variations of such words, and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements, but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements, and their absence does not mean that the statement is not forward-looking. These forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, including those discussed below. Our actual results, performance or achievements could differ materially from historical results as well as those expressed in, anticipated, or implied by these forward-looking statements. We do not undertake any obligation to revise these forward-looking statements to reflect any future events or circumstances.

Readers should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which are based on management's current expectations and projections about future events, are not guarantees of future performance, are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions (including those described below), and apply only as of the date of this filing. Our actual results, performance or achievements could differ materially from the results expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements. Factors which could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, the risks to be discussed in this Annual Report on form 10-K and in the press releases and other communications to shareholders issued by us from time to time which attempt to advise interested parties of the risks and factors which may affect our business. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

The following are factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those anticipated, and include but are not limited to: general economic, financial and business conditions; changes in and compliance with governmental regulations; changes in tax laws; and the costs and effects of legal proceedings. For example, a few of the uncertainties that could affect the accuracy of forward-looking statements include:

An abrupt economic change resulting in an unexpected downturn in demand;

Governmental restrictions or excessive taxes on our products;

Over-abundance of companies supplying energy conserving products and services;

Economic resources to support the retail promotion of new products and services;

Expansion plans, access to potential clients, and advances in technology; and

Lack of working capital that could hinder the promotion and distribution of products and services to a broader based business and retail population.

Table of Contents

Results of Operations

For the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008

The Company discontinued its current operations.

Operating Expenses

Costs associated with the administration of the Company were included in continued operations. Allocation was made for the administrative duties incurred, in relation to the public entity. Payroll expenses were $117,249 and 141,079 for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. The decrease was due to the termination of 2 executives in 2008.

Professional and consulting expenses were $114,938 and $242,918 for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. Professional expenses were incurred for the audits and public filing requirements.

General and administrative costs were $47,509 and 47,518 for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. General and administrative costs were allocated to the support function of the Company on a consistent basis and represents predominately fixed costs.

Discontinued Operations

For the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 we recorded total loss from discontinued operations of $1,907,663 and $5,302,476, respectively, associated with the discontinuance of our subsidiaries. Included in the Loss from discontinued operations, total product sales from discontinued operations were $313,660 and $456,269 for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. The Company has had decreased sales related to discontinued operations, due to decrease in product orders, believed to be from the decrease in housing construction and other general economic conditions. Impairment charges have been included in the loss from discontinued operations, in the amounts of $770,062 and $3,264,000 for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. A further discussion of the effects of these discontinued operations is included in Note 3 of the notes to consolidated financial statements appearing elsewhere in this report.

Net Loss

Net losses incurred in all periods presented have been primarily due to the operating costs. These expenses resulted in the net losses in the amount of $2,248,665 and $5,747,029 for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 respectively. The variances in the year over year net loss was due primarily from operating expenses, as described above. At this time, normal costs of public filing will continue, which requires significant expenditures for professional expense, and it is not known when significant revenues will occur to off-set these expenses. Additionally, in efforts to find alternative credit, the Company has had the necessity to issue common stock in payment of critical services. The costs incurred may not be indicative of the costs, had conventional payment methods been available. Subsequent to the year end, the Company is seeking to acquire a new operating company.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The net cash used in operating activities for the years ended December 31, 2009 was $716,690 which was less than the $1,940,692 cash used in the same period for 2008 by approximately $1.2 million. General and administrative expenses and other operating expenses, excluding non-cash charges of impairment and stock-based compensation, remained reasonably consistent.

At the end of 2009, we did not believe our working capital is sufficient to implement the full spectrum of our planned, new energy-saving business model. Operations in 2009 and most of 2008 have been funded in large part through the sale of our common stock. Based on the cash requirements, the Company began to explore other business opportunities which in light of the execution of the Purchase Agreement, filed December 17, 2009, likely will be limited to business opportunities introduced by Purchasers, and included the disposition of our current existing businesses.

Debenture Financing

On February 4, 2010, we entered into securities purchase agreement (the Securities Purchase Agreement) with an accredited investor pursuant to which the Company agreed to issue $200,000 of its 6% Senior Convertible Debentures for an aggregate purchase price of $200,000 (the Debenture). The Debenture bears interest at 6% per annum and matures twenty-four months from the date of issuance. The Debenture is convertible at the option of the holder at any time into shares of common stock, at an initial conversion price equal to the lesser of (i) $0.05 per share or (ii) until the eighteen (18) months anniversary of the Debenture, the lowest price paid per share or the lowest conversion price per share in a subsequent sale of the Company s equity and/or convertible debt securities paid by investors after the date of the Debenture (Initial Conversion Price).

In connection with the Agreement, the investor received a warrant to purchase 4,000,000 shares of the Company s common stock (the Warrant). The Warrant is exercisable for a period of five years from the date of issuance at an initial exercise price of $0.05 (the Initial Exercise Price), subject to adjustment in certain circumstances. The investor may exercise the Warrant on a cashless basis if the Fair Market Value (as defined in the Warrant) of one share of common stock is greater than the Initial Exercise Price.

In addition, on December 17, 2009, the Company entered into securities purchase agreement (the December 2009 Purchase Agreement) with an accredited investor (the December 2009 Investor) pursuant to which the Company agreed to issue $75,000 of its 6% Senior Convertible Debentures for an aggregate purchase price of $75,000. Pursuant to the terms of the December 2009 Purchase Agreement, the December 2009 Investor was granted to right to receive the benefit of any more favorable terms or provisions provided to subsequent investors for a period of 18 months following the closing of the transaction. As a result of the issuance of the securities pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement, the December 2009 Investor was entitled to receive the securities issued to the Investor pursuant to the terms of the December 2009 Purchase Agreement. As a result, the December 2009 Investor was issued a Debenture in the aggregate principal amount of $75,000 and received a warrant to purchase 1,500,000 shares of the Company s common stock on the same terms and conditions as the Investor described above and the previously issued Debenture was cancelled.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Financial Accounting Standards Board and other standard-setting bodies issued new or modifications to, or interpretations of, existing accounting standards during the year. The Company has carefully considered the new pronouncements that alter previous generally accepted accounting principles and does not believe that any new or modified principles will have a material impact on the corporation s reported financial position or operations in the near term. These recently issued pronouncements have been addressed in the footnotes to the financial statements.

Critical Accounting Policies

The results of operations are based on preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of financial statements requires management to select accounting policies for critical accounting areas as well as estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements. The Company s accounting policies are more fully described in Note 1 to Notes of Financial Statements found in the Company s annual financial statements filed with this Form 10-K. We have identified the following accounting policy and related judgment as critical to understanding the results of our operations.

The Company prepares its financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America. These principals require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Management believes that these estimates are reasonable and have been discussed with the Board of Directors; however, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Table of Contents

The Company issues restricted stock to consultants for various services. Cost for these transactions are measured at the fair value of the consideration received or the fair value of the equity instruments issued, whichever is more reliably measurable. The value of the common stock is measured at the earlier of (i) the date at which a firm commitment for performance by the counterparty to earn the equity instruments is reached or (ii) the date at which the counterparty's performance is complete.

Long-lived assets such as property, equipment and identifiable intangibles are reviewed for impairment whenever facts and circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. When required impairment losses on assets to be held and used are recognized based on the fair value of the asset. The fair value is determined based on estimates of future cash flows, market value of similar assets, if available, or independent appraisals, if required. If the carrying amount of the long-lived asset is not recoverable from its undiscounted cash flows, an impairment loss is recognized for the difference between the carrying amount and fair value of the asset. When fair values are not available, the Company estimates fair value using the expected future cash flows discounted at a rate commensurate with the risk associated with the recovery of the assets.

The Company evaluates deferred tax assets for future realization and reduced by a valuation allowance to the extent we believe a portion will not be realized. We consider many factors when assessing the likelihood of future realization of our deferred tax assets including our recent cumulative earnings experience, expectations of future taxable income, the carry-forward periods available to us for tax reporting purposes and other relevant factors. At December 31, 2009, our net deferred tax assets are comprised principally of net operating loss carry forwards (NOLs). Classification of deferred tax assets between current and long-term categories is based on the expected timing of realization, and the valuation allowance is allocated on a prorata basis.

We have reflected a valuation allowance of 100%, which resulted in an income tax benefit of zero. The range of possible judgments relating to the valuation of our deferred tax asset is very wide. If we had concluded that the weight of available evidence supported a decision that substantially all of our deferred tax assets may be realized, we would have a substantial income tax benefit in our statement of operations. Significant judgment is required in making this assessment, and it is very difficult to predict when, if ever, our assessment may conclude our deferred tax assets is realizable.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We have no off-balance sheet arrangements.

Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

The Company qualifies as a smaller reporting company, as defined by Rule 229.10(f)(1), and is not required to provide the information required by this Item.

Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data.

Our financial statements are contained herein commencing on page F-1, which appear at the end of this annual report.

Item 9. Changes In and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure.

On April 13, 2009, we engaged Randall N. Drake, C.P.A., (Drake) as our independent auditor and dismissed our previous auditor Ferlita, Walsh & Gonzalez, PA (FW&G). We have had no disagreements with Drake or FW&G on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, in connection with its reports.

Item 9A(T). Controls and Procedures.

Disclosure Controls and Procedures.

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures, as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act), that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. In designing and evaluating our disclosure controls and procedures, management recognized that disclosure controls and procedures, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the disclosure controls and procedures are met. Additionally, in designing disclosure controls and procedures, our management necessarily was required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible disclosure controls and procedures. The design of any disclosure controls and procedures also is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions.

With respect to the fiscal year ending December 31, 2009, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, we conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operations of our disclosure controls and procedures. Based upon this evaluation, the Company's management has concluded that its disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of December 31, 2009 due to the Company's limited internal resources and lack of ability to have multiple levels of transaction review.

Management is in the process of determining how best to change our current system and implement a more effective system to insure that information required to be disclosed in this annual report on Form 10-K has been recorded, processed, summarized and reported accurately. Our management acknowledges the existence of this problem, and intends to develop procedures to address them to the extent possible given limitations in financial and manpower resources. While management is working on a plan, no assurance can be made at this point that the implementation of such controls and procedures will be completed in a timely manner or that they will be adequate once implemented.

Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting as such term is defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act.

With respect to the fiscal year ending December 31, 2009, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, we conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operations of our internal controls over financial reporting, and based on the criteria for effective internal control described in Internal Control Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. Based upon our evaluation regarding the fiscal year ending December 31, 2009, the Company's management, including its Chief Executive Officer, has concluded that its internal controls over financial reporting were not effective due to the Company's limited internal resources and lack of ability to have multiple levels of transaction review.

Management is in the process of determining how best to change our current system and implement a more effective system to insure that information required to be disclosed in this Annual Report on Form 10-K has been recorded, processed, summarized and reported accurately. Our management acknowledges the existence of this problem, and intends to develop procedures to address them to the extent possible given limitations in financial and manpower resources. While management is working on a plan, no assurance can be made at this point that the implementation of such controls and procedures will be completed in a timely manner or that they will be adequate once implemented.

All internal control systems, no matter how well designed, have inherent limitations including the possibility of human error and the circumvention or overriding of controls. Further, because of changes in conditions, the effectiveness of internal controls may vary over time. Projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate. Accordingly, even those systems determined to be effective can provide us only with reasonable assurance with respect to financial statement preparation and presentation.

This Annual Report on Form 10-K does not include an attestation report of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm pursuant to temporary rules of the SEC that permit the Company to provide only management's report in this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Our business, property and affairs are managed by or under the direction of the board of directors. Members of the board are kept informed of our business through discussion with the executive officers and other officers, by reviewing materials provided to them and by participating at meetings of the board and its committees.

A majority of the authorized number of directors constitutes a quorum of the Board of Directors for the transaction of business. The directors must be present at the meeting to constitute a quorum. However, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors individually or collectively consent in writing to the action. The Company's Board of Directors undertook corporate action a total of 13 times and held 3 meetings during the year ended December 31, 2009. The Company intends to continue to search for a qualified individual for hire.

Director Independence

Glenn Kesner and Daniel Wood are independent directors, as that term is defined under the NASDAQ Marketplace Rules.

Board Leadership Structure and Role in Risk Oversight

Although we have not adopted a formal policy on whether the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer positions should be separate or combined, we have traditionally determined that it is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders to combine these roles.

Table of Contents

Our Board of Directors is primarily responsible for overseeing our risk management processes. The Board of Directors receives and reviews periodic reports from management, auditors, legal counsel, and others, as considered appropriate regarding our Company's assessment of risks. The Board of Directors focuses on the most significant risks facing our Company and our Company's general risk management strategy, and also ensures that risks undertaken by our Company are consistent with the Board's appetite for risk. While the Board oversees our Company's risk management, management is responsible for day-to-day risk management processes. We believe this division of responsibilities is the most effective approach for addressing the risks facing our Company and that our Board leadership structure supports this approach.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Under the securities laws of the United States, the Company's directors, executive officers, and any persons holding more than five percent of the Company's Common Stock are required to report their initial ownership of the Company's Common Stock and any subsequent changes in their ownership to the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Specific due dates have been established by the SEC, and the Company is required to disclose in this Information Statement any failure to file by those dates. Based upon (i) the copies of Section 16(a) reports that the Company received from such persons for their 2009 fiscal year transactions, the Company believes that there has been compliance with all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to such officers, directors, and five-percent beneficial owners for such fiscal year.

We may develop a compensation plan for our independent directors in order to attract qualified persons and to retain them. We expect that the compensation arrangements may be comprised of a combination of cash and/or equity awards.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of EClips Energy Technologies, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of EClips Energy Technologies, Inc. as of December 31, 2009 and 2008 and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2009 and 2008. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required at this time, to have, nor were we engaged to perform an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal controls over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provided a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, based on our audit and the report of other auditors, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2009 and 2008 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 11 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has had recurring losses and negative cash flows from operations. These conditions raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans regarding those matters also are described in Note 11. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

ECLIPS ENERGY TECHNOLOGIES, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2009 AND 2008

1. Business Organization and Significant Accounting Policies:

Organization

The Company, formerly known as Advanced 3-D Ultrasound Services, Inc. was incorporated on September 23, 1997. Advanced 3D Ultrasound Services, Inc. merged with a private Florida corporation known as World Energy Solutions, Inc. effective August 17, 2005. Advanced 3D Ultrasound Services, Inc. remained as the surviving entity as the legal acquirer, and the Company also was the accounting acquirer. On November 7, 2005, Advanced 3-D Ultrasound Services, Inc. changed its name to World Energy Solutions, Inc. (WESI).

On November 7, 2005, WESI merged with Professional Technical Systems, Inc. (PTS). WESI remained as the surviving entity as the legal acquirer, while PTS was the accounting acquirer. On February 26, 2009, the Company changed its name to EClips Energy Technologies, Inc.

On December 22, 2009, in a private equity transaction (Purchase Agreement), the majority shareholder (Seller) entered into agreement, whereby the Purchasers collectively purchased from the Seller an aggregate of (i) 50,000,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company and (ii) 1,500,000 shares of series D preferred stock, $0.001 par value (the Preferred Stock), comprising, 82 % of the issued and outstanding capital stock of the Company, for the aggregate purchase price, including expenses, of $100,000.

In connection with the Purchase Agreement, the Company and Seller entered into a release pursuant to which in consideration for the termination of Seller s employment agreement, dated January 31, 2006, the Company issued to Seller 1,100,000 shares of the Company s common stock. Furthermore, the Company agreed to transfer to Seller or Seller s designee, Pure Air Technologies, Inc., Hydrogen Safe Technologies, Inc., World Energy Solutions Limited and Advanced Alternative Energy, Inc. and granted to Seller a five-year option for the purchase of H-Hybrid Technologies, Inc.

During late 2009, the Company began to explore other business opportunities which in light of the execution of the Purchase Agreement will be limited to business opportunities introduced by Purchasers, and disposition of its existing businesses. The Purchasers have targeted a privately owned online sports marketing and fantasy sports website and related businesses (the Proposed Business) is being proposed to be acquired. Certain of the Purchasers own debt and equity securities in the Proposed Business.

Discontinued Operations

The Company was in the business of manufacturing and selling transient voltage surge suppressors and related products and commercial and residential energy-saving equipment and applications to distributors and customers throughout the United States. The Company is located in St. Petersburg, Florida. At the end of 2009 the Company s management decided to discontinue such operations and prior periods have been restated in the Company s financial statements and related footnotes to conform to this presentation.

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements included the accounts of its wholly-owned subsidiaries:
EClips Energy Technologies, Inc.

Pure Air Technologies, Inc. (PATI)

Hydrogen Safe Technologies, Inc. (HSTI)

Advanced Alternative Energy, Inc. (AAEI)

H-Hybrid Technologies, Inc. (HHTI)

Significant inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

World Energy Solutions, Limited was created during 2007 to serve as a platform for marketing the Company s products and developments in the UK and all European Union countries, when the time is right. The entity does not have activity and has not been capitalized, and therefore, it is not consolidated.

In connection with the Purchase Agreement, the Company and Seller entered into a release agreement whereby the Company agreed to transfer to Seller or Seller s designee, Pure Air Technologies, Inc., Hydrogen Safe Technologies, Inc., World Energy Solutions Limited and Advanced Alternative Energy, Inc. and granted to Seller a five-year option for the purchase of H-Hybrid Technologies, Inc. Thus until December 22, 2009, the execution date of the Purchase Agreement, the consolidated financial statements included the accounts of four wholly-owned subsidiaries, Pure Air Technologies, Inc., Hydrogen Safe Technologies, Inc., World Energy Solutions Limited and Advanced Alternative Energy, Inc. At the end of 2009 the Company's management decided to discontinue the operations of the above wholly-owned subsidiaries.

Table of Contents

Comparative Statements

In August 2009, the Company's Board of Directors approved a reverse split of the Company's common stock by a ratio of one (1) share for each one hundred fifty (150) shares issued and outstanding (1-for-150 reverse). All shares and per share values are retroactively stated at the post stock-split shares.

Use of Estimates

The Company prepares its financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America. These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Management believes that these estimates are reasonable and have been discussed with the Board of Directors; however, actual results could differ from those estimates.

ASB Accounting Standards Codification

The issuance by the FASB of the Accounting Standards Codification™ (the Codification) on July 1, 2009 (effective for interim or annual reporting periods ending after September 15, 2009), changes the way that GAAP is referenced. Beginning on that date, the Codification officially became the single source of authoritative nongovernmental GAAP; however, SEC registrants must also consider rules, regulations, and interpretive guidance issued by the SEC or its staff. The change affects the way the Company refers to GAAP in financial statements and in its accounting policies. All existing standards that were used to create the Codification became superseded. Instead, references to standards consist solely of the number used in the Codification's structural organization.

Subsequent Events

In May 2009, the FASB issued ASC Topic 855: Subsequent Events (ASC 855), which establishes general standards of accounting for and disclosure of events that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued. For purposes of determining whether a post-balance sheet event should be evaluated to determine whether it has an effect on the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2009, subsequent events were evaluated by the Company as of April 5, 2010, the date on which the consolidated financial statements at and for the year ended December 31, 2009, were available to be issued.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Effective January 1, 2008, the Company adopted FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (ASC 820), for assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis. ASC 820 establishes a common definition for fair value to be applied to existing generally accepted accounting principles that require the use of fair value measurements, establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosure about such fair value measurements. The adoption of ASC 820 did not have an impact on the Company's financial position or operating results, but did expand certain disclosures.

ASC 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Additionally, ASC 820 requires the use of valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. These inputs are prioritized below:

Level 1: Observable inputs such as quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2: Observable market-based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data

Level 3: Unobservable inputs for which there is little or no market data, which require the use of the reporting entity's own assumptions.

Cash and cash equivalents include money market securities that are considered to be highly liquid and easily tradable as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. These securities are valued using inputs observable in active markets for identical securities and are therefore classified as Level 1 within our fair value hierarchy.

In addition, FASB ASC 825-10-25 Fair Value Option was effective for January 1, 2008. ASC 825-10-25 expands opportunities to use fair value measurements in financial reporting and permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The Company did not elect the fair value options for any of its qualifying financial instruments.

The carrying amounts of current assets and current liabilities approximate their fair value because of the relatively short period of time between the origination of these instruments and their expected realization. As of year-end December 31, 2009, the Company had completed the distribution of all existing assets of the pre-Agreement operating Company.

Table of Contents

Cash

The majority of cash is maintained with a major financial institution in the United States. Deposits with this bank may exceed the amount of insurance provided on such deposits. Generally, these deposits may be redeemed on demand and, therefore, bear minimal risk. The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable consisted of amounts due for the delivery of finished goods sales to customers. Revenue is recognized when shipments are made to customers. The Company recognizes a sale when the product has been shipped and risk of loss has passed to the customer. An allowance for doubtful accounts is considered to be established for any amounts that may not be recoverable, which is based on an analysis of the Company's customer credit worthiness, and current economic trends. Receivables are determined to be past due, based on payment terms of original invoices. The Company does not typically charge interest on past due receivables.

Inventory

Inventory was stated at the lower of average cost or market, using the first-in, first-out method, and includes costs of materials, labor and manufacturing overhead. Inventory was comprised of raw materials, work-in-progress and finished goods.

Property and Equipment and Intangible Assets

Equipment was recorded at historical cost. Depreciation is computed by the straight-line method over estimated useful lives (three to seven years for equipment, thirty-nine for leasehold improvements). Capital leases are included as a component of property and equipment and amortization of assets under capital leases is included in depreciation expense. The carrying amount of all long-lived assets is evaluated periodically to determine if adjustment to the depreciation and amortization period or the unamortized balance is warranted. All property and equipment were written off and included in the disposal of assets from discontinued operations.

The Company recorded intangible license for $988,660 related to acquisitions of patent rights and certain other intellectual property, secured from an unrelated company. The Company valued these licenses based on the value of the stock issued, as the Company believes that this is the more reliable measurement. The intellectual property consists primarily of patents and patent applications, which the Company has estimated has a useful life of ten to seventeen years. All patents and intangible assets have been impaired due to the lack of necessary funds to develop the technologies and included in the dissolution of the Company assets.

Long-lived assets such as property, equipment and identifiable intangibles are reviewed for impairment whenever facts and circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. When required impairment losses on assets to be held and used are recognized based on the fair value of the asset. The fair value is determined based on estimates of future cash flows, market value of similar assets, if available, or independent appraisals, if required. If the carrying amount of the long-lived asset is not recoverable from its undiscounted cash flows, an impairment loss is recognized for the difference between the carrying amount and fair value of the asset. When fair values are not available, the Company estimates fair value using the expected future cash flows discounted at a rate commensurate with the risk associated with the recovery of the assets.

The Company recognized $770,062 and $3,264,000 of impairment losses included in the loss from discontinued operations for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. For the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company disposed of any remaining assets, in consideration of the Purchase Agreement dated December 17, 2009

Income taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under the liability method which provides that deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded based on the differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purpose, referred to as temporary differences. Deferred tax assets and liabilities at the end of each period are determined using the currently enacted tax rates applied to taxable income in the periods in which the deferred tax assets and liabilities are expected to be settled or realized.

Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. Income tax expense is the tax payable or refundable for the period plus or minus the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

Net income (loss) per share	$ (0.12)	$ (13.52)

Potentially dilutive options and preferred stock conversion were not included in the computation of dilutive net earnings per share as their effect would have been anti-dilutive. There were no dilutive common stock equivalents as of December 31, 2009.

Share Based Payments

All share-based payments to employees, including grants of employee stock options to be recognized as compensation expense in the financial statements based on their fair values. That expense is recognized over the period during which an employee is required to provide services in exchange for the award, known as the requisite service period (usually the vesting period). The Company had no additional common stock options or common stock equivalents granted for all periods presented and all compensation has been recognized for previous issuances.

The Company, at times, issues restricted stock to consultants for various services. Cost for these transactions are measured at the fair value of the consideration received or the fair value of the equity instruments issued, whichever is more reliably measurable. The Company recognized consulting expenses and a corresponding increase to additional paid-in-capital related to stock issued for services.

In addition, the consideration of other similar technology entering the market prior to the Company cannot be determined. Based on the above factors, the Company concluded that the valuation of the intangible could not be fully supported and therefore as of December 31, 2006, the Company deemed the intellectual rights impaired and wrote them off during 2006.

The resulting intangible asset of $3,332,650 was analyzed and although the Company anticipates further development of the related technology, the technology had not yet been tested on the market nor had there been any related sales. Estimation of future sales could not be determined as the technology is not ready to be introduced into the market place and knowledge of when or if the Company can fully develop the technology is not known. In addition, consideration of other similar technology entering the market prior to the Company cannot be determined. Based on the above factors, the Company concluded that the capitalized value of the intangible could not be supported and therefore the Company deemed the intangible asset to be fully impaired and recognized the expense in 2007.

The HSTI license agreement has 3% royalties due on net sales of the licensed product which can be netted against required minimum annual royalties. The purchase price of $3,500,000 was based on the agreed face value of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock as of the date of acquisition. The resulting intangible asset of $3,264,000 was analyzed and although the Company anticipates further development of the related technology, as of June 30, 2008, the technology had not yet been tested on the market nor had there been any related sales. Table of Contents

The valuation of the intangible assets purchased were based the number of shares, convertible at the time of agreement, at the fair market rate. This amount was discounted, based on SEC Rule 144 limitations, and the historical trading volume and the size of the block relative to the Company's total number of common stock equivalent shares outstanding, management determined that the market would be unable to absorb the block at the calculated price and that it was appropriate to deduct a discount from that price to reflect the lack of liquidity. Utilizing a drip-out methodology over various assumed periods, management developed a range of potential discounts to reflect the lack of liquidity of the subject shares. Management believes a discount of 80% is appropriate given the facts and circumstances of this valuation. Thus, the resulting value for the consideration given for the assets acquired in this transaction, net of cash received in the transaction, is $818,000.

Royalties to HTA will become due on a bi-annual basis based upon the net sales of any of the licensed products sold from the technology license. Royalties are to be paid within thirty days and are based on 3% of the net sales on the licensed products. No minimum royalties shall be required for the first twelve months after the effective date of the agreement; however each succeeding twelve months after the effective date of the agreement minimum annual royalties become due.

The minimum royalty due for the second through the fifth (September 2010 - 2013) anniversary of the executed agreement is $20,000 and then thereafter the minimum royalty payment become $50,000 per year. The minimum annual royalties are fully creditable against any actual earned royalties paid during the previous twelve month period. The minimum royalties are not refundable in any part and if any payment becomes delinquent it shall bear interest at an annual rate of one and one-half (1.5) percentage points above the prime rate quoted on the last day of said period by a designated major financial institution.

In connection with the Purchase Agreement, the Company and Seller entered into a release whereby the Company agreed to transfer to Seller or Seller's designee, Pure Air Technologies, Inc., Hydrogen Safe Technologies, Inc., World Energy Solutions Limited and Advanced Alternative Energy, Inc. and granted to Seller a five-year option for the purchase of H-Hybrid Technologies, Inc.

Included in the expenses of the discontinued operations is depreciation expense totaled $48,781 and $48,172 for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. Interest expense was not allocated to the discontinued operations. Discontinued operations is reported net of tax, however, tax provisions for the benefit of the tax loss have been off-set by valuation allowances.

4. Intangible Assets:

Intellectual property, license agreements and website development costs were capitalized at the time of acquisition. Intellectual property and licenses were being amortized over a life of 10-17 years. Amortization expense was for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 was $109,874 and $42,805, respectively.

The Company's financial position required a cease of any and all research and development projects. Accordingly, management has determined that the uncertainty involved with the intangibles would be impaired, as there is no reasonable basis for any future discounted cash flow considerations. The Company recognized impairment costs of $770,062 and $3,264,000 for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively, and such expense is included in the loss from discontinued operations.

Additionally, based on the Seller's Agreement, the Company recognized all intangible assets, except for HHTI, in the disposition of discontinued operations.

5. Debenture Financing

On December 17, 2009, to obtain funding for working capital, the Company entered into securities purchase agreement with an accredited investor pursuant to which the Company agreed to issue its 6% Senior Convertible Debentures for an aggregate purchase price of $75,000. The Debenture bears interest at 6% per annum and matures twenty-four months from the date of issuance. The Debenture will be convertible at the option of the holder at any time into shares of common stock, at an initial conversion price equal to the lesser of (i) $0.05 per share or (ii) until the eighteen (18) months anniversary of the Debenture, the lowest price paid per share or the lowest conversion price per share in a subsequent sale of the Company's equity and/or convertible debt securities paid by investors after the date of the Debenture.

In accordance with ASC Topic 815 Derivatives and Hedging, this convertible debenture includes a down-round provision under which the conversion price could be affected by future equity offerings. Instruments with down-round protection are not considered indexed to a company's own stock under ASC Topic 815, because neither the occurrence of a sale of common stock by the company at market nor the issuance of another equity-linked instrument with a lower strike price is an input to the fair value of a fixed-for-fixed option on equity shares. This convertible instrument was treated as a discount on the 6% Senior Convertible debentures and was valued at $67,380 to be amortized over the debenture term. The fair value was estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model using the following weighted-average assumptions: expected dividend yield of 0%; expected volatility of 231%; risk-free interest rate of 0.77% and an expected holding period of two years.

6. Derivative Liabilities

In June 2008, a FASB approved guidance related to the determination of whether a freestanding equity-linked instrument should be classified as equity or debt under the provisions of FASB ASC Topic No. 815-40, Derivatives and Hedging - Contracts in an Entity's Own Stock. The adoption of this requirement will affect accounting for convertible instruments and warrants with provisions that protect holders from declines in the stock price (down-round provisions). Warrants with such provisions will no longer be recorded in equity and would have to be reclassified to a liability. The Issue is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008, and interim periods within those fiscal years. Earlier application by an entity that has previously adopted an alternative accounting policy is not permitted.

Instruments with down-round protection are not considered indexed to a company's own stock under ASC Topic 815, because neither the occurrence of a sale of common stock by the company at market nor the issuance of another equity-linked instrument with a lower strike price is an input to the fair value of a fixed-for-fixed option on equity shares.

ASC Topic 815 guidance is to be applied to outstanding instruments as of the beginning of the fiscal year in which the Issue is applied. The cumulative effect of the change in accounting principle shall be recognized as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings (or other appropriate components of equity) for that fiscal year, presented separately. If an instrument is classified as debt, it is valued at fair value, and this value is re-measured on an ongoing basis, with changes recorded on the statement of operations in each reporting period. The Company did not have outstanding instruments with down-round provisions as of the beginning of fiscal 2009 thus no adjustment will be made to the opening balance of retained earnings.

Table of Contents

In connection with the issuance of the 6% Senior Convertible Debentures on December 17, 2009, the Company has determined that the terms of the convertible debenture include a down-round provision under which the conversion price could be affected by future equity offerings undertaken by the Company until the 18 month anniversary of such convertible debenture. Accordingly, the convertible instrument is accounted for as a liability at the date of issuance and adjusted to fair value through earnings at each reporting date. The Company has recognized a derivative liability of $67,380 at the date of issuance. The gain resulting from the decrease in fair value of this convertible instrument was $233 for the year ended December 31, 2009.

During 2008, the Company entered into an agreement with UTEK for services to be rendered related to comparative analysis of intellectual property developments. As payment for these services the Company issued 12,820 (1,923,077 pre-reverse split) unregistered common shares which were valued at the fair market value of the common shares at the date of agreement and recorded as a prepayment for the services to be rendered. For the year ended December 31, 2008, the full value of $250,000 had been recognized as expense.

Furthermore, the Company agreed to transfer to Mr. Croxton or his designee, Pure Air Technologies, Inc., Hydrogen Safe Technologies, Inc., World Energy Solutions Limited and Advanced Alternative Energy, Inc. and granted to Mr. Croxton a five-year option for the purchase of H-Hybrid Technologies, Inc.

9. Income Taxes:

The provision for federal and state income taxes for the years ended December 31 is as follows:

	2009	2008
Current	$	$
Deferred
Total Provision for Income Taxes	$	$

Table of Contents

Deferred income taxes reflect the net effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes.

Significant components of the Company's deferred tax assets and liabilities are as follows:

	December 31, 2009	December 31, 2008
Deferred tax assets:
Net operating loss carry forwards	$ 7,630,800	$ 6,792,000
Other	7,000	7,000
Total deferred tax assets	$ 7,637,800	$ 6,799,000
Deferred tax liabilities:
Book basis of property and equipment in excess of tax basis	$ 14,000	$ 15,000
Total deferred tax liabilities	$ 14,000	$ 15,000

Valuation allowance	(7,623,800)	(6,784,000)
Net deferred tax asset	$	$

The Company has recorded a 100% valuation allowance against the net deferred tax asset at December 31, 2009 and 2008 due to the uncertainty of its ultimate realization. The events of the Seller's Agreement gives serious doubt for the Company's ability to utilize net operating losses in future periods and, accordingly, have established a valuation allowance for the full amount of the deferred tax assets. As time passes, management will be able to better assess the amount of tax benefit it will realize from using the net deferred tax asset resulting from the loss carry forwards. At December 31, 2009, the Company has available unused federal net operating losses of approximately $18,800,000 that may be used against future taxable income and if not utilized, will expire between 2024 and the end of 2029.

Income taxes for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 differ from the amounts computed by applying the effective income tax rate of 34.0% to income taxes as a result of the following:
