EXPLANATORY NOTE

On November 29, 2010, Mellanox Technologies, Ltd., a public company formed under the laws of Israel (the Registrant), Mondial Acquisition Corporation Ltd., a private company formed under the laws of Israel and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Registrant (Merger Sub), and Voltaire Ltd., a public company formed under the laws of Israel (Voltaire), entered into an Agreement of Merger (the Merger Agreement). On February 7, 2011, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub was merged with and into Voltaire (the Merger), with Voltaire continuing as the surviving corporation and becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of the Registrant. In connection with the Merger, certain options to acquire ordinary shares of Voltaire and restricted share units of Voltaire (collectively, the Assumed Voltaire Equity Awards) granted under the Voltaire Plans outstanding as of the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time) were assumed by the Registrant and converted on February 7, 2011 at the Effective Time into options or restricted share units, as applicable, of the Registrant with the number of ordinary shares of the Registrant subject to such equity award determined by multiplying the number of ordinary shares of Voltaire subject to such Assumed Voltaire Equity Award by 0.319 (the Exchange Ratio) and rounding the resulting product down to the next whole number of ordinary shares of the Registrant, and the exercise price per share of options of Voltaire assumed by the Registrant determined by dividing the exercise price per share of such options of Voltaire prior to the Merger by the Exchange Ratio and rounding the resulting quotient up to the next whole cent.

This Registration Statement on Form S-8 is filed by the Registrant to register (i) the ordinary shares of the Registrant subject to such Assumed Voltaire Equity Awards and (ii) the ordinary shares reserved for issuance pursuant to equity awards to be granted under the 2010 Plan.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not Applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not Applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

We indemnify our office holders for certain liabilities. The Israel Companies Law, 1999, or Companies Laws, allows us to insure our office holders against the following liabilities incurred for acts performed as an office holder:

a breach of duty of loyalty to the company, to the extent that the office holder acted in good faith and had a reasonable basis to believe that the act would not prejudice the company; a breach of duty of care to the company or to a third party; and a financial liability imposed on or incurred by the office holder in favor of a third party.

We cannot, however, indemnify, exculpate or insure our office holders against any of the following:

a breach of duty of loyalty, except, with respect to indemnification and insurance, to the extent that the office holder acted in good faith and had a reasonable basis to believe that the act would not prejudice the company;

a breach of duty of care committed intentionally or recklessly, excluding a breach arising out of the negligent conduct of the office holder;

an act or omission committed with intent to derive illegal personal benefit; or a fine levied against the office holder.

An Israeli company may not exculpate an office holder from liability for a breach of the duty of loyalty of the office holder. The company may, however, approve an office holder's act performed in breach of the duty of loyalty, provided that the office holder acted in good faith, the act or its approval does not harm the company and the office holder discloses the nature of his or her personal interest in the act and all material facts and documents a reasonable time before discussion of the approval. An Israeli company may exculpate an office holder in advance from liability to the company, in whole or in part, for a breach of duty of care, but only if a provision authorizing such exculpation is inserted in its articles of association. Our amended and restated articles of association include such a provision. An Israeli company may not exculpate a director for liability arising out of a prohibited dividend or distribution to shareholders.

Pursuant to the Companies Law, we may indemnify an office holder only for judgments, settlements or arbitrators' awards approved by a court that were rendered in connection with events that the board of directors deemed foreseeable based on the company's actual activities at the time of the approval by the board of the indemnification, provided that the indemnification is limited to an amount or criteria determined by the board of directors as reasonable under the circumstances and that the indemnification undertaking states the foreseeable activities and the amount or criteria. In addition, we may indemnify an office holder against the following liabilities incurred for acts performed as an office holder:

Table of Contents

reasonable litigation expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by the office holder as a result of an investigation or proceeding instituted against him or her by an authority authorized to conduct such investigation or proceeding, provided that (i) no indictment was filed against such office holder as a result of such investigation or proceeding and (ii) either (A) no financial liability was imposed upon him or her as a substitute for the criminal proceeding as a result of such investigation or proceeding or (B) if the financial liability was imposed, it was imposed with respect to an offense that does not require proof of criminal intent; and reasonable litigation expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by the office holder or imposed by a court in proceedings instituted against him or her by the company, on its behalf or by a third party or in connection with criminal proceedings in which the office holder was acquitted or in which the office holder was convicted of an offense that does not require proof of criminal intent.

Under the Companies Law, exculpation, indemnification and insurance of office holders must be approved by our audit committee and our board of directors and, in respect of our directors, by our shareholders.

Our amended and restated articles of association allow us to indemnify and insure our office holders to the fullest extent permitted by the Companies Law. In addition, we have entered into agreements with each of our office holders undertaking to indemnify them to the fullest extent permitted by law and to indemnify venture capital funds that are or were affiliated with or represented by such office holders party to such agreements. This indemnification is limited to an amount or criteria determined by the board of directors as reasonable under the circumstances, and, with respect to financial obligation incurred by the office holder as a result of, judgments, settlements or arbitrators' awards approved by a court, indemnification in advanced is also limited to events determined as foreseeable by our board of directors based on the company's activities. The insurance is subject to our discretion depending on its availability, effectiveness and cost.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not Applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

See Index to Exhibits.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(a) (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the

Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (i) and (ii) do not apply if the Registration Statement is on Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Table of Contents

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b)

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
