Item 9. Regulation FD Disclosure

The Registrant has previously disclosed the amount of restructuring charges that were recorded during the quarter ended December 31, 2001 and is adding clarification to its news release filed as Exhibit 99.1 to the 8-K dated March 6, 2003 relating to the discussion of loss per share comparative information associated with those restructuring charges. While the amount of the restructuring charges did not change, the per share information associated with the restructuring charges varies for the three months ended, the nine months ended, and the twelve months ended December 31, 2001 because the Company issued a significant number of shares in connection with a merger in the 4th quarter of 2001 which caused the weighted average number of shares outstanding for each period to vary significantly. These restructuring charges recorded in the fourth
